^JAPAN TO EXTEND 200 MILLION DOLLARS TO TURKEY<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER TOSHIKI KAIFU ON FRIDAY INFORMED THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT THAT HIS COUNTRY WILL PROVIDE AN EMERGENCY LOAN OF 200 MILLION DOLLARS TO TURKEY TO HELP RECOVER FROM ITS LOSSES FROM THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ.

KAIFU'S SPOKESMAN, SHIGEO TAKENAKA, TOLD REPORTERS THAT KAIFU MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT DURING HIS TALKS WITH TURKISH PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT.

TAKENAKA SAID THE LOAN CARRIES 1 PERCENT INTEREST AND HAS A 30-YEAR REPAYMENT PERIOD.

TURKEY SHUT DOWN TWIN PIPELINES CARRYING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY AND BANNED ALL DIRECT AND TRANSIT TRADE WITH ITS SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR.

INCLUDING RISES IN OIL PRICES, TURKEY'S LOSSES FROM THE GULF CRISIS OVER A ONE YEAR PERIOD WILL AMOUNT TO 7 BILLION DOLLARS, ACCORDING TO WORLD BANK CALCULATIONS.

JAPAN HAS SET ASIDE 2 BILLION DOLLARS TO COMPENSATE TURKEY, EGYPT AND JORDAN, TWO OTHER COUNTRIES BADLY HURT BY THE EMBARGO AND DECIDED TO EXTEND 600 MILLION DOLLARS OF THIS MONEY AS EMERGENCY AID.

BEFORE ARRIVING HERE, KAIFU VISITED JORDAN AND EGYPT. HE PLEDGED TO PROVIDE 300 MILLION DOLLARS EMERGENCY AID TO EGYPT AND 100 MILLION DOLLARS TO JORDAN.

DURING A LUNCHEON SPEECH, AKBULUT SAID THE STRICT ENFORCEMENT OF THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ WAS THE ONLY POSSIBLE WAY FOR A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE GULF CRISIS.

TAKENAKA SAID THE PREMIERS ALSO DISCUSSED WAYS OF INCREASING ECONOMIC COOPERATION BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

HE SAID JAPAN WAS CONSIDERING TO EXTEND A PROJECT LOAN FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND EXTENSION OF GOLDEN HORN BRIDGE IN ISTANBUL, WHICH WOULD AMOUNT TO 100 MILLION DOLLARS.

KAIFU LEAVES FOR SAUDI ARABIA ON SATURDAY ON THE FOURTH LEG OF HIS TRIP.

^NATO FORCES HOLD EXERCISE OFF TURKEY<
ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - TURKISH, U.S. AND ITALIAN TROOPS LAUNCHED AN AMPHIBIOUS EXERCISE OFF WESTERN TURKEY ON TUESDAY, BUT A NATO OFFICIAL SAID IT WAS UNRELATED TO THE GULF CRISIS.
U.S. GENERAL JOHN GALVIN, NATO'S SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER IN EUROPE, SAID THE TIMING OF THE MANEUVERS WAS @@COINCIDENTAL'' AND THAT THE EXERCISE HAD BEEN PLANNED A YEAR AGO.
THE EXERCISE, NAMED DISPLAY DETERMINATION, TOOK PLACE AT SAROS BAY, 118 MILES (190 KILOMETERS) SOUTHWEST OF ISTANBUL AND JUST NORTHEAST OF GALLIPOLI IN THE AEGEAN SEA. IT BROUGHT TOGETHER TURKISH, U.S. AND ITALIAN SEA AND LAND FORCES IN AN AMPHIBIOUS OPERATION, GALVIN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.
TURKISH AND U.S. AIR FORCE PLANES ALSO JOINED THE ONE-DAY EXERCISE.
DISPLAY DETERMINATION WAS PART OF AN ANNUAL NATO EXERCISE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN REGION WHICH BEGAN SEPT. 28 IN SOUTHERN TURKEY AND WAS SCHEDULED TO BE CONCLUDED OCT. 13 FOLLOWING MANEUVERS IN TURKISH THRACE ADJACENT TO GREECE.

@@REGARDLESS OF THE GULF CRISIS, (OUR) MILITARY FORCES HAVE TO BE TRAINED,'' SAID GALVIN.
ALTHOUGH THE EXERCISE TOOK PLACE NEAR GREECE, TURKEY'S TRADITIONAL FOE, GREEK FORCES WERE NOT PART OF THE OPERATION.
GALVIN SAID THERE WAS NO SIGNIFICANCE TO THE GREEKS' ABSENCE AND THAT THEY HAD PARTICIPATED IN PREVIOUS EXERCISES.
@@THERE'S A GOOD AMOUNT OF SOLIDARITY AND I THINK THIS WILL CONTINUE,'' HE SAID.
HE ALSO SAID THAT WHILE NATO FORCES IN THE FUTURE WILL BE SMALLER, THEY WILL BE MORE MOBILE.
REFERRING TO NATO'S SOUTHERN FLANK, HE SAID, @@I BELIEVE THE INFRASTRUCTURE SHOULD BE IMPROVED IN THE SOUTHERN REGION ... THIS IS WHERE OLD EQUIPMENT WILL BE DESTROYED AND NEW EQUIPMENT SHIPPED IN.''

^PRESIDENT OZAL TO START A TOUR OF GULF COUNTRIES<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL ON SATURDAY WILL BEGIN A VISIT TO FIVE MIDDLE EASTERN AND GULF COUNTRIES, HIS OFFICE ANNOUNCED FRIDAY.

OZAL WILL FIRST FLY TO SAUDI ARABIA THEN PROCEED TO UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, QATAR, EGYPT AND SYRIA. HE WILL RETURN HOME OCT. 17.

OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID DURING HIS TOUR OZAL WOULD EXPLAIN TURKEY'S POSITION OVER THE GULF CRISIS WHICH ERUPTED FOLLOWING IRAQI INVASION OF KUWAIT IN AUGUST AND EMPHASIZE TURKEY'S STAND THAT STRICT ENFORCEMENT OF THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ WAS THE ONLY POSSIBLE WAY FOR A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM.

TURKEY MADE A MAJOR CONTRIBUTION TO THE U.N. EMBARGO BY SHUTTING OFF TWIN PIPELINES CARRYING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY. IT ALSO BANNED ALL TRANSIT AND DIRECT TRADE WITH IRAQ, ITS SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR AND SECOND LARGEST TRADING PARTNER LAST YEAR.

INCLUDING RISES IN OIL PRICES, TURKEY'S LOSSES FROM THE GULF CRISIS OVER A ONE YEAR PERIOD WILL AMOUNT TO 7 BILLION DOLLARS, ACCORDING TO WORLD BANK CALCULATIONS.

THE ISTANBUL DAILY MILLIYET REPORTED FRIDAY THAT OZAL WOULD DISCUSS WITH THE SAUDI AUTHORITIES THE POSSIBILITY OF GIVING TURKEY FREE OIL FOR A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR WHICH WOULD AMOUNT TO 1.5 BILLION DOLLARS OF FINANCIAL AID.

A DELEGATION OF FIVE HIGH-LEVEL OFFICIALS WILL ACCOMPANY OZAL. THEY INCLUDE THE UNDERSECRETARY OF FOREIGN TRADE, THE GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THE TURKISH PETROLEOUM COMPANY, THE UNDERSECRETARY OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY IN CHARGE OF ECONOMIC MATTERS AND THE PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL ADVISER ON FOREIGN POLICY.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - ABOUT 70 DESERTERS FROM THE IRAQI ARMY HAVE CROSSED INTO TURKEY AND ARE BEING KEPT IN SPECIAL CAMPS NEAR THE BORDER, INDEPENDENT ISTANBUL DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED SUNDAY.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CONFIRMED THAT IRAQI DESERTERS HAD SOUGHT ASYLUM HERE BUT DECLINED TO DISCLOSE NUMBERS OR ANY OTHER DETAILS.

HURRIYET, QUOTING LOCAL OFFICIALS FROM THE BORDER TOWNSHIPS SIRNAK AND HAKKARI, SAID THE SOLDIERS TOLD AUTHORITIES HERE THAT THE IRAQI ARMY WAS TIRED OF FIGHTING AFTER EIGHT YEARS OF WAR WITH IRAQ.

THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF OTHER SOLDIERS WHO WANT TO FLEE BUT THOSE WHO ARE CAUGHT TRYING TO CROSS THE BORDER ARE BEING EXECUTED SUMMARILY, THE REPORT QUOTED THE DESERTERS AS SAYING.

THERE WERE OFFICERS AMONG THE DESERTERS AND 15 OF THEM HAVE BEEN SENT TO THIS CAPITAL CITY, HURRIYET SAID.

IN A SPEECH TO A BUSINESS MEETING EARLIER THIS WEEK, PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL MENTIONED THE DESERTIONS, SAYING THIS CAST DOUBT ON THE RESOLVE OF THE IRAQI ARMY TO FIGHT IN A NEW GULF WAR. HE DID NOT ELABORATE AND DID NOT MENTION THE NUMBER OF DESERTERS.

^ANKARA, TURKEY: POINT OUT.<
EQUIPMENT RELEASED FROM THE EUROPEAN THEATER AS PART OF ARMS REDUCTION AGREEMENTS WITH THE SOVIETS WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE TO TURKEY EVENTUALLY, BUT ANY GULF WAR IS LIKELY TO BE OVER BY THEN.
THE NATION IS TOTALLY UNPREPARED FOR A POSSSIBLE CHEMICAL WEAPONS ATTACK FROM IRAQ, LACKING SHELTERS, MEDICINE AND GAS MASKS AS WELL AS A PROPER ORGANIZATION FOR CIVIL DEFENSE.
ONE COMMONLY EXPRESSED FEAR IS THAT WESTERN COUNTRIES HIGHLY DEPENDENT ON GULF OIL WILL PERSUADE TURKEY TO DO THEIR DIRTY WORK IN THE REGION AND THEN MOVE AWAY, LEAVING TURKEY VULNERABLE IN THIS AREA OF SHIFTING ALLEGIANCES.
@@ONCE THE CRISIS IS OVER, WE WILL BE IMMEDIATELY FORGOTTEN. IT WILL BE BUSINESS AS USUAL FOR THE WESTERN POWERS THAT SOLD ALL THE CHEMICAL WEAPONS EQUIPMENT TO IRAQ,'' SAID ONE GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WHO ASKED FOR ANONYMITY.
FOOT DRAGGING IN COMPENSATING TURKEY FOR ITS LOSSES FROM THE EMBARGO FEED THIS KIND OF DISTRUST BUILT OVER THE PAST DECADES.
ACCORDING TO WORLD BANK ESTIMATES, TURKEY IS THE BIGGEST LOSER FROM THE ECONOMIC SANCTIONS, ESTIMATED AT ABOUT 7 BILLION DOLLARS OVER A ONE-YEAR PERIOD. THE FIGURE INCLUDES LOST REVENUE FROM THE PIPELINE, BILATERAL TRADE, CONSTRUCTION BUSINESS, UNPAID IRAQI DEBTS AND CANCELLATION OF TOURISM RESERVATIONS BY WESTERN TRAVEL AGENCIES.
SO FAR, JAPAN HAS PLEDGED 200 MILLION DOLLARS, KUWAIT 300 MILLION, GERMANY 74 MILLION DOLLARS AND FRANCE 30 MILLION DOLLARS. SAUDI ARABIA HAS NOT RESPONDED YET TO REQUESTS FOR CHEAPER OIL OR SOFT LOANS.
THERE HAS BEEN NO FIRM PLEDGE FROM THE UNITED STATES.
THERE IS ALSO NO WORD FROM THE UNITED STATES IN RESPONSE TO OZAL'S REQUEST THAT RESTRICTIONS BE LIFTED ON TURKEY'S COMPETITIVE EXPORT GOODS SUCH AS TEXTILES AND IRON AND STEEL.
MEANWHILE, HIGHER OIL PRICES HAVE PUSHED UP CONSUMER PRICES BY 8.7 PERCENT IN SEPTEMBER AND 6.8 PERCENT IN OCTOBER.
THE GOVERNMENT ALREADY HAS AUTHORIZATION FROM PARLIAMENT TO SEND TURKISH TROOPS ABROAD AND ALLOW DEPLOYMENT OF FOREIGN TROOPS HERE. MOST OFFICIALS BELIEVE THIS WILL BE USED IN A LIMITED WAY, TO PERMIT U.S. AIRCRAFT TO USE THE INCIRLIK NATO BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY AS A STAGING AREA.

SOON AFTER IRAQ MARCHED INTO KUWAIT AUG. 2, TURKEY CLOSED DOWN TWIN PIPELINES CARRYING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY, CUTTING OFF MORE THAN HALF OF IRAQ'S OIL EXPORTS.
TURKEY HAS ALSO BLOCKED IRAQ'S LAND ACCESS TO THE WEST, BANNING ALL BILATERAL AND TRANSIT TRADE. AFTER THE UNITED NATIONS ORDERED AN AIR EMBARGO ON IRAQ, TURKEY HAS BEEN POLICING COMPLIANCE WITH IT, FORCING AIRCRAFT BOUND FOR IRAQ TO LAND AND BE SEARCHED HERE.
AS A RESULT, TURKEY'S RELATIONS WITH ITS SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR ARE SERIOUSLY DAMAGED AND MAY NEVER BE MENDED IF SADDAM REMAINS IN POWER, DIPLOMATS AND ANALYSTS SAY.
SADDAM'S DOWNFALL IS JUST AS AVIDLY DESIRED HERE AS IN WASHINGTON. BUT TURKS WOULD PREFER OTHERS TO ACCOMPLISH THE TASK.
IN SEVERAL PUBLIC OPINION POLLS CONDUCTED AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF CRISIS, THREE-FOURTHS OF THE RESPONDENTS OPPOSED TURKEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN ANY MILITARY ACTION.

^NEWSPAPER SAYS TURKEY EXPELS 25 IRAQIS<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY HAS EXPELLED 25 IRAQI NATIONALS SUSPECTED OF BEING INVOLVED IN ANTI-TURKISH ACTIVITIES, THE ISTANBUL DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED THURSDAY.

HURRIYET SAID IRAQI STUDENTS, TOURISTS AND BUSINESSMEN WERE AMONG THOSE EXPELLED IN THE PAST TWO WEEKS.

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE IRAQIS WERE DETAINED AND LATER EXPELLED FOLLOWING THE INTERROGATION OF A TURKISH MAN WHO WAS ARRESTED LAST MONTH ON CHARGES OF SPYING FOR IRAQ.

A TURKISH GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL CONFIRMED THAT SEVERAL IRAQIS WERE EXPELLED RECENTLY. BUT THE OFFICIAL REFUSED TO GIVE ANY DETAILS.

^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=
VAN, TURKEY (AP) - MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED IRAQI SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS, MOST OF THEM SUFFERING FROM MALNUTRITION, HAVE DEFECTED TO TURKEY AND SOUGHT ASYLUM, THE LOCAL GOVERNOR SAID MONDAY.
ADNAN DARENDELILER, GOVERNER OF THIS EASTERN PROVINCE, SAID THE GROUP INCLUDED TWO ARMY OFFICERS, ONE NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER AND 90 SOLDIERS. IN ADDITION, 13 IRAQI MEN, 10 WOMEN AND 7 CHILDREN, COMPRISING EIGHT FAMILIES, HAVE ALSO SOUGHT ASYLUM IN TURKEY, HE SAID.
DARENDELILER SAID THE ARMY DESERTERS AND THE CIVILIAN REFUGEES WERE BUSED IN SUNDAY FROM HAKKARI PROVINCE WHERE THEY CROSSED THE BORDER WITH IRAQ INTO TURKEY.
HAKKARI IS 205 KILOMETERS (120 MILES) SOUTHERST OF VAN.
DARENDELILER TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE IRAQIS WERE BROUGHT TO VAN BECAUSE THIS WAS THE CLOSEST PLACE WHERE PROPER ACCOMODATION WAS AVAILABLE FOR A GROUP OF THAT SIZE.
HE ALSO SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHEN THE IRAQIS HAD CROSSED INTO TURKEY OR HOW LONG THEY WOULD STAY HERE. ALL OF THEM WERE PLACED IN A HOTEL HERE TO REST.
DOCTORS EXAMINING THE ARRIVALS FOUND THAT 35 OF THEM SUFFERED FROM MALNUTRITION.
@@THEY ARE RESTING TODAY BUT YOU MAY SEE THEM AND TALK TO THEM TOMORROW,'' DARENDELILER ADDED.
HE SAID THE IRAQIS WERE NOT INTERNED AND COULD GO OUT OF THE HOTEL IF THEY WANTED. @@BUT THEY NEED REST NOW,'' HE ADDED.
HE REFUSED TO ELABORATE OR GIVE ANY MORE INFORMATION.
TURKEY HAS COMPLIED WITH U.N. ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AGAINST IRAQ, BANNING ALL BILATERAL AND TRANSIT TRADE.
TURKEY HAS ALSO CLOSED TWO PIPELINES CARRYING IRAQI CRUDE TO THE MEDITERRANEAN THROUGH THIS COUNTRY, EFFECTIVELY CUTTING MORE THAN HALF OF IRAQ'S OIL EXPORTS.

DESERTERS FROM IRAQI TELL OF HARDSHIP, EXECUTIONS OF GENERALS<

^BY AHMET BALAN<

^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER<

VAN, TURKEY (AP) - DESERTERS FROM THE IRAQI ARMY SAID ON TUESDAY THAT CIVILIANS IN IRAQ WERE BEING FORCED TO GIVE FOOD TO SOLDIERS.

DESERTERS, GIVING ACCOUNTS TO REPORTERS, ALSO SPOKE OF INDESCRIMINATE ATTACKS ON KUWAITI CITIZENS. A MAN IDENTIFYING HIMSELF AS A 26-YEAR-OLD ARMY CAPTAIN SAID SADDAM HUSSEIN HAD ORDERED EXECUTED SIX GENERALS AND 120 OTHER OFFICERS WHO OPPOSED IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT ON AUG. 2.

THREE ARMY OFFICERS AND 90 SOLDIERS FROM THE IRAQI ARMY HAVE DESERTED AND COME TO TURKEY SINCE THE INVASION.

EIGHT IRAQI FAMILIES, INCLUDING SEVEN CHILDREN, HAVE ALSO SOUGHT ASYLUM IN THIS COUNTRY.

THE DESERTERS AND A GROUP OF CIVILIAN REFUGEES WERE BUSED IN FROM HAKKARI, IN SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY WHERE THEY HAD CROSSED THE BORDER, TO VAN TO BE HOUSED IN A HOTEL.

REPORTERS WERE TAKEN BY AUTHORITIES TO THE HEAVILY GUARDED HOTEL IN THE CITY CENTER TO INTERVIEW THE IRAQIS.

ALL OF THE IRAQIS SPOKE ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY AND COVERED THEIR FACES FOR FEAR OF REPRISALS AGAINST THEIR RELATIVES BACK HOME.

SOME SAID THEY WANTED TO EMIGRATE TO GERMANY OR THE UNITED STATES. MOST OF THEM KNEW SOME ENGLISH OR TURKISH.

THE MAN WHO SPOKE OF THE EXECUTIONS OF ARMY OFFICERS ALSO SAID IRAQI SOLDIERS MACHINE GUNNED TO DEATH HUNDREDS OF KUWAITI CIVILIANS AND LOOTED AND RAPED INDISCRIMINATELY.

THE CAPTAIN SAID WHEN HE DECIDED TO DESERT HE TOOK LEAVE ON THE PRETEXT OF VISITING HIS PARENTS IN BAGHDAD AND ONCE THERE HE ESCAPED TO TURKEY AFTER WALKING FOR TWO DAYS THROUGH THE RUGGED MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN ON THE TURKISH-IRAQI FRONTIER.

^ANKARA: AGAINST TURKEY.

IN NOVEMBER, DEFENSE MINISTER GIRAY SAID HE QUIT BECAUSE OF A PARTY DISPUTE OVER DELEGATE SELECTION. BUT THE RESIGNATION OF DOZER, THE FOREIGN MINISTER, WAS LINKED TO OZAL'S HANDLING OF THE GULF CRISIS.

DOZER WAS UPSET THAT OZAL ACTED ON HIS OWN, OFTEN DISREGARDING THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S ADVICE TO ACT WITH CAUTION IN DEALING WITH ITS NEIGHBOR.

UNDER TURKEY'S 1982 CONSITUTION THE PRESIDENT HAS LITTLE EXECUTIVE POWER, AN INTERPRETATION OZAL HAS BEEN REJECTING. HE HAS BEEN RUNNING THE COUNTRY, ESPECIALLY IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THROUGH HIS HAND-PICKED SUCCESSOR AKBULUT.

TORUMTAY WAS OZAL'S CHOICE FOR THE TOP MILITARY POST WHEN OZAL WAS STILL PREMIER IN 1987. OZAL BYPASSED ANOTHER GENERAL, NECDET OZTORUN, IN LINE FOR THE JOB IN A MOVE THEN HAILED AS A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY AGAINST CAREFULLY LAID MILITARY PLANS FOR PROMOTION.

TORUMTAY IS A THOROUGHLY WESTERNIZED GENERAL, WHO SPEAKS EXCELLENT ENGLISH AND SERVED AS MILITARY ATTACHE IN TOKYO AND WASHINGTON.

TRADITIONALLY, THE LAND FORCES CHIEF, CURRENTLY GEN. DOGAN GURES, SUCCEEDS AS CHIEF OF STAFF IN TURKEY.

UNDER TURKISH LAW THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS APPOINTS THE NEW CHIEF OF STAFF AND THE APPOINTMENT HAS TO BE CONFIRMED BY THE PRESIDENT.

TORUMTAY'S RESIGNATION ALSO CAME DURING A PUBLIC DEBATE ON THE SPECIAL WAR DEPARTMENT, A BRANCH OF THE GENERAL STAFF PREPARING RESISTANCE FIGHTERS TO DEFEND THE COUNTRY IN CASE OF AN INVASION.

AT A BRIEFING AT THE GENERAL STAFF HEADQUARTERS MONDAY, MILITARY SPOKESMEN DENIED RUMORS THAT THE ORGANIZATION HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN A WAVE OF POLITICAL TERRORISM WHICH ROCKED TURKEY IN THE 1970S AND TRIGGERED A MILITARY TAKEOVER IN 1980.

^EDS: UPDATES WITH QUESTIONS RAISED ABOUT TURKEY'S GULF POLICY<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY'S CHIEF OF THE GENERAL STAFF RESIGNED ON MONDAY AMID REPORTS OF DIFFERENCES AMONG TURKISH OFFICIALS OVER THE COUNTRY'S ROLE IN THE GULF CRISIS.

THE RESIGNATION OF GEN. NECIP TORUMTAY CAME IN THE WAKE OF TURKISH NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT TURKEY'S MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC ESTABLISHMENT WERE OPPOSED TO AN ACTIVE ROLE BY THIS COUNTRY IN A POSSIBLE WAR TO FORCE IRAQ OUT OF KUWAIT.

TORUMTAY IS THE THIRD HIGH-RANKING TURKISH OFFICIAL TO RESIGN IN THE PAST THREE MONTHS. DEFENSE MINISTER SAFA GIRAY RESIGNED IN NOVEMBER AND FOREIGN MINISTER ALI BOZER IN OCTOBER.

TORUMTAY'S LETTER OF RESIGNATION, SUBMITTED TO PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT, WAS BRIEF IN THE TRADITIONAL STYLE OF THE TURKISH MILITARY AND REVEALED LITTLE.

THE 64-YEAR-OLD GENERAL, LEADER OF THE SECOND LARGEST ARMY IN THE NATO ALLIANCE, SAID HE FOUND IT IMPOSSIBLE TO CONTINUE SERVING IN HIS POST IN LIGHT OF @@PRINCIPLES I BELIEVE IN AND MY UNDERSTANDING OF STATECRAFT.''

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT FROM PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT OR FROM PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL ON THE RESIGNATION.

THE INDEPENDENT DAILY CUMHURIYET REPORTED SUNDAY THAT A TOP-LEVEL STRATEGY MEETING ON THE GULF CRISIS WAS HELD SATURDAY AT OZAL'S CANKAYA PALACE. THE MILITARY ARGUED THAT TURKEY WAS DOING ENOUGH BY TYING UP EIGHT IRAQI DIVISIONS ALONG ITS BORDER AND SHOULD STAY OUT OF A HOT WAR, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF CRISIS WITH IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT AUG.2, TURKEY HAS SIDED FIRMLY WITH THE UNITED STATES, CUTTING OFF TWIN PIPELINES CARRYING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY.

TURKEY HAS ALSO BANNED ALL DIRECT AND TRANSIT TRADE WITH IRAQ, CUTTING OFF IS SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR'S ACCESS TO EUROPE.

RECENTLY THERE HAS BEEN TALK OF TURKEY OPENING A @@SECOND FRONT'' FROM THE NORTH IN CASE THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES GO TO WAR AGAINST IRAQ.

ALL TURKISH LEADERS, MILITARY AND CIVILIAN, RULED OUT THIS POSSIBILITY. BUT THE GOVERNMENT, URGED BY OZAL, HAS RECEIVED AUTHORIZATION FROM THE PARLIAMENT TO SEND TURKISH TROOPS ABROAD AND TO HOST FOREIGN TROOPS IN THIS COUNTRY.

ALSO, OZAL HAS NOT RULED OUT THE POSSIBILITY OF ALLOWING THE UNITED STATES TO USE THE NATO INCIRLIK BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY FOR A STAGING AREA FOR ANY CONFRONTATION IN THE GULF.

U.S. AIR FORCE F-16 AND F-111 AIRCRAFT HAVE BEEN DEPLOYED AT THE BASE SINCE AUGUST.

RELIABLE SOURCES SAY THERE ARE OPPONENTS BOTH IN THE MILITARY AND THE FOREIGN MINISTRY TO THE USE OF INCIRLIK ON GROUNDS THAT THIS COULD INVITE AN IRAQI ATTACK AGAINST TURKEY.

TURKEY'S GENERALS HAVE ARGUED, HOWEVER, THAT TURKEY WAS DOING ENOUGH MILITARILY BY TYING UP EIGHT IRAQI DIVISIONS ALONG ITS SOUTHERN BORDER.

UPON OZAL'S URGING, THE GOVERNMENT HAS OBTAINED AUTHORIZATION FROM PARLIAMENT TO SEND TURKISH TROOPS ABROAD AND TO HOST FOREIGN TROOPS HERE.

TORUNTAY WAS OPPOSED TO THE USE OF THIS AUTHORITY OR THE USE OF THE NATO BASE AT INCIRLIK IN SOUTHERN TURKEY AS A STAGING AREA FOR ANY ATTACK AGAINST IRAQ, NEWSPAPERS REPORTED TUESDAY.

BUT WHAT MOST IRKED THE GENERAL WAS OZAL'S HABIT OF CONSULTING WITH U.S. PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH AND REGIONAL LEADERS FREQUENTLY BY TELEPHONE AND INFORMING THE MILITARY AND THE CABINET AS HE SAW FIT, THE REPORTS SAID.

UNDER TURKEY'S CONSTITUTION THE PRESIDENCY IS MAINLY A CEREMONIAL POST WITH LITTLE EXECUTIVE POWER, A CONTENTION OZAL HAS BEEN REJECTING.

COMMENTARIES IN TURKISH PAPERS TUESDAY LAUDED TORUNTAY'S DECISION AS @@HONORABLE AND DEMOCRATIC.''

IN THE PAST, TURKISH GENERALS USED TO DELIVER PUBLIC ULTIMATUMS TO CIVILIAN GOVERNMENTS WHEN THEY DISAGREED WITH THEIR POLICIES. THREE TIMES SINCE 1960, THE MILITARY HAS TOPPLED THE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT. THE LATEST TAKEOVER WAS IN 1980, FOLLOWING A PERIOD OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE WHICH CLAIMED 5,000 LIVES.

TORUNTAY'S RESIGNATION AS CHIEF OF STAFF OVER POLICY DIFFERENCES WAS UNPRECEDENTED IN THE 67-YEAR HISTORY OF THE REPUBLIC.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE COMMANDER OF TURKEY'S LAND FORCES WAS APPOINTED CHIEF OF THE GENERAL STAFF TUESDAY TO REPLACE A GENERAL WHO RESIGNED BECAUSE OF DIFFERENCES WITH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL ON GULF POLICY.
PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT ANNOUNCED THE APPOINTMENT OF GEN. DOGAN GURES TO REPLACE GEN. NECIP TORUMTAY, WHO RESIGNED MONDAY.
THE APPOINTMENT WAS IN ACCORDANCE WITH MILITARY TRADITION AS GURES WAS IN LINE FOR THE JOB AS THE SECOND HIGHEST RANKING ARMY GENERAL AFTER TORUMTAY.
IT DID NOT, HOWEVER, SOLVE OZAL'S PROBLEMS WITH TURKEY'S POWERFUL MILITARY SINCE GURES SHARES TORUMTAY'S VIEW THAT TURKEY SHOULD REFRAIN FROM ACCEPTING AN ACTIVE ROLE IN ANY POSSIBLE GULF WAR TO FORCE IRAQ OUT OF KUWAIT, SOURCES CLOSE TO THE MILITARY SAID.
THE SOURCES, SPEAKING ON GROUNDS OF ANONYMITY, SAID THE NEW CHIEF OF STAFF IS EVEN MORE UNCOMPROMISING IN HIS OPPOSITION TO GROWING ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM IN THIS PREDOMINANTLY MOSLEM BUT SECULAR COUNTRY.
ANALYSTS SAY TORUMTAY'S RESIGNATION SIGNALED THE DISCOMFORT OF THE STAUNCHLY SECULARIST ARMY WITH WHAT THEY DEEM IS ENCOURAGEMENT OF ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALIST GROUPS AND THEIR DEMANDS BY THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT.
IN HIS BRIEF RESIGNATION LETTER, TORUMTAY SAID HE FOUND IT IMPOSSIBLE TO CONTINUE SERVING IN HIS POST IN THE LIGHT OF @@PRINCIPLES I BELIEVE IN AND MY UNDERSTANDING OF STATECRAFT.''
THIS WAS INTERPRETED AS A VEILED BUT CLEAR CRITICISM OF OZAL'S AUTOCRATIC RULE AND HIS HANDLING OF GULF POLICIES SINGLEHANDEDLY, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE ADVICE OF THE NATION'S MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC ESTABLISHMENT.

^VELAYETI SAYS BOTH TURKEY AND IRAN WANT PEACEFUL SOLUTION<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY AND IRAN, BOTH NEIGHBORS OF IRAQ, WANT A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE GULF CRISIS, THE IRANIAN FOREIGN MINISTER SAID WEDNESDAY.

ALI AKBAR VELAYETI, WHO IS HERE FOR A TWO-DAY-OFFICIAL VISIT, TOLD REPORTERS BEFORE MEETING WITH HIS TURKISH COUNTERPART THAT HE BELIEVED HIS CONSULTATIONS IN TURKEY WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO A PEACEFUL SOLUTION.

HE DID NOT ELABORATE.

SINCE IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT AUG.2, TURKISH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL AND IRANIAN LEADER HASHEMI RAFSANJANI HAVE KEPT IN CLOSE TOUCH, TALKING ON THE PHONE FREQUENTLY AND SENDING EACH OTHER MESSAGES VIA SPECIAL ENVOYS.

LAST MONTH OZAL MADE A BRIEF STOPOVER IN TEHRAN ON HIS WAY TO THE ENTHRONMENT CEREMONIES OF THE JAPANESE EMPEROR TO TALK TO RAFSANJANI.

VELAYETI'S VISIT IS ALSO ANOTHER STEP TOWARD MENDING BILATERAL RELATIONS THAT WERE STRAINED LAST YEAR OVER DIFFERENCES ON ISLAM'S ROLE IN PUBLIC LIFE AND STATE AFFAIRS.

TURKEY, PREDOMINANTLY MOSLEM BUT SECULAR, OBJECTED TO WHAT WAS DEEMED IRANIAN INTERFERENCE IN ITS DOMESTIC AFFAIRS BY LENDING SUPPORT TO MOSLEM FUNDAMENTALISTS IN THIS COUNTRY.

IN APRIL 1989, TURKEY TEMPORARILY RECALLED ITS AMBASSADOR TO TEHRAN AND IRAN FOLLOWED SUIT.

IN MARCH OF THIS YEAR PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT VISITED TEHRAN TO START NORMALIZATION OF TIES.

PROBLEMS STILL REMAIN, HOWEVER. VELAYATI DID NOT VISIT THE TOMB OF KEMAL ATATURK, THE FOUNDER OF MODERN TURKEY, BEFORE STARTING HIS TALKS WEDNESDAY. THE VISIT IS A TRADITIONAL PART OF THE PROTOCOL FOR EVERY FOREIGN DIGNITARY VISITING THIS COUNTRY.

IRANIANS REFUSE TO PAY RESPECTS TO ATATURK BECAUSE OF HIS WESTERNIZING REFORMS THAT DIMINISHED ISLAM'S ROLE IN THE SOCIETY.

VELAYATI'S VISIT, INITIALLY SCHEDULED FOR THREE DAYS, WAS CUT SHORT BY ONE DAY. OFFICIALS SAID THIS WAS BECAUSE IT WOULD OVERLAP WITH SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER EDUARD SHEVARDNADZE'S VISIT STARTING THURSDAY.

TURKISH NEWSPAPERS CLAIMED IT WAS TO ELIMINATE A ONE-DAY TRIP BY VELAYETI TO KONYA, THE CENTRAL ANATOLIAN CITY WHICH IS THE BASTION OF ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISTS IN THIS COUNTRY.

TURKEY-SOVIET
^SHEVARDNADZE VISIT SEEN AS PART OF EFFORT FOR GULF SOLUTION<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER EDUARD SHEVARDNADZE ARRIVES HERE THURSDAY FOR A VISIT DESCRIBED BY ONE SOVIET OFFICIAL AS PART OF DIPLOMATIC EFFORTS TO FIND A SOLUTION TO THE GULF CRISIS.

ALEXANDER BELOGONOV, FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE SOVIET UNION, TOLD THE ISTANBUL DAILY MILLIYET IN AN INTERVIEW PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY THAT THE SOVIETS HOPED IRAQ WOULD HEED UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTIONS AND WITHDRAW SOON FROM KUWAIT, WHICH IT OCCUPIED ON AUG. 2.

HE SAID WITHOUT ELABORATION THAT TURKEY COULD PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE QUEST FOR PEACE.

TURKISH OFFICIALS WHO SPOKE ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY SAID THE GULF WOULD BE A MAJOR TOPIC OF TALKS DURING THE VISIT. THERE WAS NO SIGN, HOWEVER, THAT TURKEY WAS ABOUT TO ASSUME A MEDIATION ROLE.

OFFICIALS SAID THE TIMING OF THE VISIT WAS SIGNIFICANT, COMING RIGHT AFTER SHEVARDNADZE'S TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES. THERE, THE SOVIET MINISTER SAID THE TWO SIDES PINNED MUCH HOPE ON UPCOMING MEETINGS BETWEEN IRAQ AND THE UNITED STATES.

SHEVARDNADZE'S VISIT IS THE FIRST BY A SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER TO TURKEY IN PAST 25 YEARS.

TURKS WOULD LIKE TO MAKE USE OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPAND ECONOMIC AND OTHER TIES WITH THEIR NORTHERN NEIGHBOR.

DURING THE VISIT THE TWO SIDES WILL DISCUSS A BLACK SEA ECONOMIC COOPERATION REGION ENVISIONED BY TURKISH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL. IT WOULD BE A SORT OF COMMON MARKET INCLUDING THE SOVIET UNION, TURKEY, BULGARIA AND ROMANIA.

IF THE SOVIET REPUBLICS IN THE CAUCASUS ONE DAY GAIN THEIR INDEPENDENCE, THEY WOULD AUTOMATICALLY BE MEMBERS OF THE COMMON MARKET, ACCORDING TO THIS IDEA.

TURKS, DENIED ENTRY INTO THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY, ARE SEEKING ALTERNATIVES IN REGIONAL ECONOMIC PACTS WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND THEIR NEIGHBORS.

AFTER TWO DECADES OF COLD WAR HOSTILITY, TURKEY AND THE SOVIET UNION STARTED NORMALIZING RELATIONS IN THE 1960S. SEVERAL INDUSTRIAL COMPLEXES WERE SET UP IN TURKEY WITH SOVIET FINANCIAL AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.

THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY ANOTHER PERIOD OF COOLNESS IN RELATIONS UNTIL THE NEIGHBORS SIGNED AN AGREEMENT IN 1984 TO BRING SOVIET NATURAL GAS TO THIS COUNTRY.

OVER THE PAST TWO YEARS, TRADE HAS DOUBLED, REACHING A VOLUME OF 1.5 BILLION DOLLARS THIS YEAR.

TURKISH CONTRACTORS ARE BUILDING HOLIDAY RESORTS AND HOSPITALS IN THE SOVIET UNION. A TURKISH FIRM HAS RENOVATED MOSCOW'S HISTORIC PETROVSKY PASSAGE, WHICH HAS BEEN REOPENED AS A SHOPPING MALL.

THIS YEAR TURKEY HAS EXTENDED 350 MILLION DOLLARS IN CREDIT TO THE SOVIET UNION FOR CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS CARRIED OUT BY ITS COMPANIES.

IN THEIR EAGERNESS TO IMPROVE TIES WITH THE SOVIETS, TURKS HAVE EVEN INCURRED THE DISPLEASURE OF THEIR MAJOR NATO ALLY, THE UNITED STATES, BY REFUSING TO ALLOW AMERICAN EXPERTS TO INVESTIGATE A MIG-29 HIJACKED TO THIS COUNTRY IN MAY 1989.

IN THE TALKS, THE SIDES WILL ALSO MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR OZAL'S VISIT TO THE SOVIET UNION SOMETIME EARLY NEXT YEAR, OFFICIALS SAID.

SHEVARDNADZE LEAVES TURKEY ON FRIDAY.

^SADDAM SAYS IRAQ WANTS PEACE<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - SADDAM HUSSEIN SAYS IRAQ WANTS PEACE BUT HIS COUNTRY IS READY TO FIGHT IF ATTACKED, IT WAS REPORTED WEDNESDAY.

THE IRAQI PRESIDENT ALSO CRITICIZED TURKEY'S STAND IN THE GULF CRISIS, SAYING THE NEIGHBORING COUNTRY THAT HAS BACKED THE U.N. RESOLUTIONS SHOULD PLAY THE ROLE OF A ''BROTHER.''

"WE WANT PEACE, BUT IF THERE HAPPENS TO BE AN ATTACK WE ARE READY TO CRUSH IT," SADDAM SAID IN AN INTERVIEW WITH A TURKISH JOURNALIST.

THE INTERVIEW IS SCHEDULED FOR BROADCAST WEDNESDAY EVENING, BUT THE TEXT WAS MADE AVAILABLE IN ADVANCE.

THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL HAS DEMANDED THAT IRAQ WITHDRAW UNCONDITIONALLY FROM KUWAIT BY JAN. 15 AND ALLOW THE RETURN OF LEGITIMATE KUWAITI GOVERNMENT. IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG.2 AND LATER ANNEXED THE EMIRATE AS ITS 19TH PROVINCE.

SADDAM SAID IRAQ TRIED HARD TO AVOID A POSSIBLE WAR. HE SAID IT WAS UP TO THE OTHER PARTY IN THE CONFLICT WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS "INTERNATIONAL TYRANTS AND COUNTRIES IN THE REGION," TO TAKE THE DECISION OF WAR.

"WE DON'T WANT THE ARMIES OF BUSH TO COME TO INVADE OUR HOLY LANDS," HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING IN THE INTERVIEW CONDUCTED IN BAGHDAD LAST FRIDAY.

HE SAID IRAQ ACCEPTED THE U.S. OFFER TO START A DIALOGUE BECAUSE "WE THOUGHT PRESIDENT BUSH WANTED TO START A SERIOUS DIALOGUE."

SADDAM SAID THE PURPOSE OF A DIALOGUE WAS TO SEEK A MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING. "IF THIS IS NOT THE INTENTION OF AMERICA, THEN WE WILL CONCLUDE THAT IT MADE THIS CALL TO COVER ITS FUTURE CRIMES."

IRAQI FOREIGN MINISTER TARIQ AZIZ HAD BEEN DUE IN WASHINGTON ON MONDAY TO MEET WITH PRESIDENT BUSH, BUT THE VISIT WAS PUT OFF AFTER SADDAM REJECTED U.S. PROPOSALS FOR A DATE TO MEET WITH THE U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE JAMES A. BAKER IN BAGHDAD.

SADDAM SAID THE EFFORTS OF ALGERIAN PRESIDENT CHADLI BENDJEDID, WHO WAS WORKING TO FIND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE CRISIS, SHOULD BE SUPPORTED.

ON TURKEY, HE SAID, ''TURKEY SHOULD NOT PUT ITSELF INTO THIS CURRENT POSITION. ... IT SHOULD NOT TAKE SIDES IN CONFLICTS BETWEEN ARABS BUT PLAY A ROLE OF A BROTHER.''

TURKEY HAS COMPLIED WITH U.N. RESOLUTIONS ON THE CRISIS, CUTTING OFF TWIN PIPELINES PUMPING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH TURKEY.

TURKEY BANNED ALL DIRECT AND TRANSIT TRADE WITH ITS NEIGHBOR AND HAS BEEN MONITORING COMPLIANCE WITH A U.N. AIR EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ.

TURKEY ALSO KEEPS 100,000 TROOPS ALONG ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ, TYING UP EIGHT IRAQI DIVISIONS.

SADDAM EXPRESSED DISSAPOINTMENT OVER TURKEY'S DECISION TO INCREASE ITS FORCES AT THE JOINT BORDER. HE SAID IRAQ NEVER POSED A MILITARY THREAT TO TURKEY.

BUT HE SAID TURKEY COULD PERMIT THE USE OF A NATO BASE ON ITS SOIL AS A STAGING AREA FOR ANY U.S. AIR ATTACK AGAINST IRAQ. HE SAID THAT IT WAS AN "ASTONISHING SITUATION NOT ONLY FOR IRAQIS BUT ALSO FOR ALL MOSLEMS.''

@@IT IS TO BE KNOWN THAT WE DON'T HAVE OUR EYES ON ANYBODY'S LAND. ...BUT WE HAVE TO DEFEND OUR LAND IN THE BEST MEANS. WE TAKE THE MEASURES TO BE READY IN CASE OF AN ATTACK,'' HE TOLD REPORTERS.
AKBULUT DID NOT DIRECTLY ANSWER A QUESTION WHETHER THERE WAS AN INCREASED IRAQI THREAT TOWARD TURKEY.
AKBULUT ALSO HINTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO REQUEST NATO UNITS PLAYED A ROLE IN THE RESIGNATION OF THE FORMER CHIEF OF STAFF GEN. NECIP TORUMTAY. HE DID NOT ELABORATE BUT STATE MINISTER MUSTAFA TASAR TOLD REPORTERS THAT TORUMTAY'S RESIGNATION CAME AFTER A CABINET MEETING WHICH MADE THE DECISION OVER THE ISSUE.
TORUMTAY RESIGNED ON DEC. 3 BECAUSE OF DIFFERENCES WITH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL ON GULF POLICY.
MILITARY SOURCES CLAIMED THAT OZAL WANTED TO COMMIT THE TURKISH MILITARY TO THE GULF CONFLICT AGAINST IRAQ, A POLICY NOT SHARED BY TURKISH GENERALS.
TURKEY'S ARMED FORCES OF SOME 800,000 ARE THE SECOND LARGEST IN THE ALLIANCE AFTER THE UNITED STATES. ABOUT 100,000 TROOPS ARE ALONG THE BORDER WITH IRAQ, TYING UP EIGHT IRAQI DIVISIONS.
TURKISH OFFICIALS STILL DID NOT SPECIFY THEIR REQUEST FROM NATO. BUT NATO SOURCES IN BRUSSELS SAID TURKEY ASKED FOR SEVERAL AIR UNITS FROM THE ALLIED COMMAND EUROPE MOBILE FORCE, AN IMMEDIATE REACTION FORCE, TO BE PLACED NEAR ITS SOUTHEASTERN BORDER WITH IRAQ BY JAN. 15.
NATO'S MOBILE FORCE IS MADE UP OF BOTH LAND AND AIR COMPONENTS. IT IS CONSIDERED A DETERRENT FORCE, ARMED WITH CONVENTIONAL OR NON-NUCLEAR WEAPONS. IT WAS DESIGNED TO REDUCE THE VULNERABILITY OF THE ALLIANCE'S FLANK REGIONS.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - SAUDI ARABIA HAS GRANTED TURKEY 1.6 BILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF CRUDE OIL TO OFFSET THE ECONOMIC LOSSES THIS COUNTRY HAS SUFFERED FOR THE EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ, A SAUDI OFFICIAL SAID THURSDAY.

SALIH KAMIL, HEAD OF A SAUDI GOODWILL DELEGATION, SAID HAD BEGUN LAST MONTH.

"WE KNOW THAT THIS IS NOT ENOUGH. THAT'S WHY THE UNITED STATES HAS APPEALED TO THE GULF COUNTRIES, GERMANY AND JAPAN TO HELP THOSE NATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN AFFECTED MOST BY THE GULF CRISIS," KAMIL SAID.

HE SAID ''NO PRICE TAG CAN POSSIBLY BE PUT ON THE TURKISH NATION'S SACRIFICE."

TURKEY HAS CUT OFF TWIN PIPELINES PUMPING IRAQI CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY INTO OIL TANKERS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, BANNED ALL DIRECT AND TRANSIT TRADE WITH IRAQ AND COMPLIED WITH A U.N. AIR EMBARGO AGAINST ITS SOUTHEASTERN NEIGHBOR.

ACCORDING TO WORLD BANK ESTIMATES, THE ECONOMIC LOSS TURKEY WILL SUFFER IN ONE YEAR BECAUSE OF THE GULF CRISIS WILL AMOUNT TO 7 BILLION DOLLARS.

KAMIL ASSAILED SOME ARAB NATIONS, WHICH HE DID NOT NAME, FOR SIDING WITH IRAQ OR FOR NOT CONDEMNING KUWAIT'S INVASION AND SAID IRAQ'S "AGGRESSION" HAD HURT THE PALESTINIAN CAUSE. HE DID NOT ELABORATE.

HE ALSO SAID HE BELIEVED THAT NOT ONE AMERICAN SOLDIER WOULD REMAIN ON SAUDI SOIL ONCE THE CRISIS WAS RESOLVED.

^TURKEY SENDS REINFORCEMENTS TO IRAQI BORDER<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY HAS SENT AN ADDITIONAL 8,000 PARATROOPERS TO ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ AND WILL ADD 4,500 INFANTRY SOLDIERS IN COMING DAYS, A NEWSPAPER REPORTED SATURDAY.

THE ISTANBUL DAILY CUMHURIYET ALSO QUOTED UNIDENTIFIED MILITARY SOURCES AS SAYING THAT IRAQ ALSO INCREASED ITS FORCES IN THE AREA.

THE TURKISH PARATROOPERS WERE SENT TO THE BORDER AREA IN THE PAST 10 DAYS, THE PAPER SAID. THE 4,500 INFANTRY SOLDIERS WILL BE TRANSFERRED THERE FROM THRACE IN NORTHWESTERN TURKEY, IT SAID.

NOT COUNTING THE DEPLOYMENT REPORTED BY CUMHURIYET, TURKEY HAS ABOUT 100,000 TROOPS ALONG THE BORDER WITH IRAQ, MOST WERE SENT THERE SHORTLY AFTER IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG. 2.

NO OFFICIALS WERE AVAILABLE TO CONFIRM THE CUMHURIYET REPORT SATURDAY.

PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT SAID THURSDAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD ASKED NATO TO SEND AIR UNITS TO IRAQ TO BOLSTER THE COUNTRY'S DEFENSE.

TURKISH NEWSPAPERS CRITICIZED THE REQUEST SATURDAY, ARGUING THAT IT WOULD COMMIT TURKEY MILITARILY IN THE EVENT OF A GULF WAR.

THE NEWSPAPERS WROTE THAT THE DECISION WAS MADE BY PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL.

MEMBERS OF THE CABINET SUBMITTED EMPTY SHEETS OF PAPER WITH THEIR SIGNATURES WHICH WERE LATER FILLED IN WITH THE REQUEST TO NATO, THE PAPERS SAID.

WHEN TURKEY'S TWO LEADING NEWSPAPERS, MILLIYET AND GUNES, BROKE THE STORY ABOUT THE REQUEST TO NATO, MOST CABINET MEMBERS SAID THEY WERE UNAWARE OF THE ISSUE.

HURRIYET'S CHIEF COLUMNIST, OKTAY EKSI, CALLED ON THE MINISTERS TO RESIGN.

@@DECISIONS THAT MAY RESULT IN A WAR FOR THIS COUNTRY ARE TAKEN IN THEIR (MINISTERS') NAME BUT WITHOUT THEIR KNOWLEDGE,'' HE WROTE.

@@MR. OZAL IS ENGAGED IN A VERY RISKY GAMBLE ... OZAL'S GAMBLING MAY CAUSE A BLOODY ADVENTURE FOR THE COUNTRY,'' WROTE HASAN CEMAL, CHIEF COLUMNIST FOR CUMHURIYET.

MILLIYET'S DERYA SAZAK WROTE THAT TURKS WERE NOT HAPPY WITH THE UNRESPONSIBLE ATTITUDE OF THE GOVERNMENT, AND DID NOT WANT TO GET INVOLVED IN A WAR AGAINST IRAQ.

THE NEWSPAPERS ARGUED THAT IRAQ WOULD SEE THE NATO UNITS AS A PROVOCATION, NOT AS AN INCREASED DEFENSE MEASURE.

NATO CONFIRMED FRIDAY THAT IT WAS CONSIDERING THE REQUEST TO HAVE THE SQUADRONS IN PLACE BY JAN. 15. BELGIUM SAID IT WAS PREPARING A SQUADRON OF MIRAGE JETFIGHTERS.

THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL HAS PASSED A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE USE OF FORCE IF IRAQ DOES NOT PULL OUT OF KUWAIT BY JAN. 15.

NATO'S MOBILE FORCE IS CONSIDERED A DETERRENT FORCE, ARMED WITH CONVENTIONAL OR NON-NUCLEAR WEAPONS. IT WAS DESIGNED TO REDUCE THE VULNERABILITY OF THE ALLIANCE'S FLANK REGIONS.

^SADDAM OFFERS TURKEY IRAQI OIL<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - SADDAM HUSSEIN HAS OFFERED TO PAY IRAQ'S DEBTS TO TURKEY WITH CRUDE OIL, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED MONDAY.
SADDAM TOLD A GROUP OF TURKISH REPORTERS IN BAGHDAD ON SUNDAY THAT TURKEY COULD USE THE TWO PIPELINES SHUT DOWN AFTER THE IRAQI INVASION OF KUWAIT FOR THE DEAL AND LATER CLOSE THEM DOWN AGAIN, ACCORDING TO ANATOLIA.
@@I HEARD CRUDE OIL PRICES WERE UP IN TURKEY...IF IT IS TRUE WHY DON'T YOU BUY OIL FROM IRAQ?...TURKEY CAN MEET IRAQI DEBTS WITH CRUDE OIL THEN CLOSE DOWN THE PIPELINES,'' SADDAM SAID.
IRAQ OWES TURKEY 740 MILLION DOLLARS.
IRAQ WAS PUMPING 1.6 MILLION BARRELS OF CRUDE FROM TWO PIPELINES THROUGH THIS COUNTRY UNTIL THEIR CUTOFF BY THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT. TURKEY USED TO OBTAIN 50 TO 60 PERCENT OF ITS OIL IMPORTS FROM IRAQ.
IRAQ HAD EARLIER MADE A SIMILAR OFFER TO TURKEY. IT ALSO OFFERED TO PUMP FREE OIL. BUT BOTH OFFERS WERE REJECTED BY THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT.
A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WHO REQUESTED ANONYMITY SAID THE NEW IRAQI OFFER WOULD BE REJECTED AS WELL.
SADDAM ALSO TOLD REPORTERS THAT HE DOES NOT ACCEPT THAT TURKEY WOULD ALLOW THE USE OF A NATO BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY AS A STAGING AREA FOR U.S. AIR ATTACKS AGAINST IRAQ BECAUSE TURKEY WAS A FRIEND, NEIGHBOR AND MOSLEM COUNTRY. @@WE BELIEVE THAT OUR GOOD RELATIONS AND THE DIGNITY OF THE TURKISH NATION WOULD NOT LET THIS HAPPEN,'' SADDAM SAID.
ASKED WHETHER HE VISITED KUWAIT AFTER ITS ANNEXATION BY IRAQ, SADDAM SAID KUWAIT WAS ONE OF THE IRAQI PROVINCES. @@AS WE GO TO MOSUL, WE GO THERE TOO,'' HE ADDED. HE DID NOT ELABORATE.

^FACT-FINDING MISSION INVESTIGATES REQUEST FOR NATO AID<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - A FACT-FINDING MISSION FROM BELGIUM ARRIVED HERE THURSDAY TO ASSESS A TURKISH REQUEST FOR DEPLOYMENT OF SPECIAL NATO AIR UNITS IN THIS COUNTRY.

ANOTHER DELEGATION FROM GERMANY WILL ARRIVE FOR A SIMILAR MISSION FRIDAY, AN ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE MILITARY'S GENERAL STAFF SAID.

THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT HAD ASKED NATO TO SEND AIR UNITS TO ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ TO BOLSTER THE COUNTRY'S DEFENSE.

NATO CONFIRMED LAST WEEK THAT IT WAS CONSIDERING THE REQUEST TO HAVE THE SQUADRONS IN PLACE BY JAN. 15. BELGIUM SAID IT WAS PREPARING A SQUADRON OF MIRAGE JETFIGHTERS.

THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL HAS PASSED A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE USE OF FORCE IF IRAQ DOES NOT PULL OUT OF KUWAIT BY JAN. 15.

NATO'S MOBILE FORCE IS CONSIDERED A DETERRENT FORCE, ARMED WITH CONVENTIONAL OR NON-NUCLEAR WEAPONS. IT WAS DESIGNED TO REDUCE THE VULNERABILITY OF THE ALLIANCE'S FLANKS.

THE GENERAL STAFF ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE GERMAN AND BELGIAN DELEGATIONS WOULD BE BRIEFED ABOUT THE LOGISTICAL FACILITIES THE NATO FORCES WOULD BE PROVIDED IN THIS COUNTRY.

^TURKEY DEPLOYS ADDITIONAL ARMS TO IRAQI BORDER<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY HAS STRENGHTENED AIR DEFENSES AND SENT MORE ARMOR TO THE BORDER WITH IRAQ WHERE THE IRAQIS REPORTEDLY HAVE BEEFED UP AN ESTIMATED EIGHT DIVISIONS, TURKISH NEWSPAPERS SAID THURSDAY.

THE ISTANBUL DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED THAT ANTI-AIRCRAFT MISSILES, INCLUDING RAPIERS, WERE DEPLOYED AT THREE AIRFIELDS IN THE SOUTHEASTER REGION. THE ISTANBUL DAILY MILLIYET SAID THE TRANSFER OF LEOPARD TANKS AND OTHER ARMORED VEHICLES TO THE BORDER AREA IS CONTINUING.

NATO DECIDED WEDNESDAY TO SEND THREE SQUADRONS OF GERMAN, ITALIAN AND BELGIAN JETFIGHTERS TO TURKEY TO BOLSTER THE COUNTRY'S DEFENSE.

HURRIYET ALSO REPORTED THAT TURKISH ARMED FORCES HAD BEEN ON ALERT SINCE WEDNESDAY.

MILLIYET SAID PREPARATIONS WERE UNDERWAY TO SHUTDOWN THE HABUR BORDER POST WITH IRAQ AND TURN IT INTO A MILITARY AREA BY THE END OF THE WEEK.

TURKISH MILITARY OFFICIALS HAVE NOT COMMENTED ON THE NEWSPAPER REPORTS. TURKISH LEADERS REPEATEDLY HAVE STRESSED THAT THEY HAVE NO INTENTION TO TAKE PART IN A POSSIBLE WAR AGAINST IRAQ UNLESS TURKEY IS ATTACKED.

TURKEY WELCOMED THE NATO DECISION, WHICH CAME ON TURKEY'S REQUEST. FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR SAID THE NATO'S DECISION WAS AN ACT OF SOLIDARITY AMONG THE ALLIED COUNTRIES.

OFFICIALS SAID THE WARPLANES WILL ARRIVE AT ERHAC MILITARY AIRPORT IN SOUTHERSTER MALATYA PROVINCE BETWEEN JAN. 6 AND 10.

TURKEY ALSO KEEPS SOME 100,000 TROOPS ALONG ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ.

MEANWHILE, TURKEY'S CIVIL DEFENSE ORGANIZATION ORGANIZED A SMALL SCALE CIVIL DEFENSE DRILL IN THE SOUTHEAST, LOCAL SOURCES REPORTED. THE NATURE OF THE DRILL WAS NOT ANNOUNCED YET. BUT A BLACKOUT WILL ALSO BE TRIED FOR A SHORT WHILE IN THE AREA, THEY SAID.

^NATO'S MOBILE FORCE AIRCRAFT ARRIVE IN TURKEY<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - AIRCRAFT FROM NATO'S MOBILE FORCE HAVE ARRIVED IN TURKEY, THE TURKISH MILITARY ANNOUNCED SUNDAY.

THE SPECIAL ALLIED FORCE SENT TO THIS NATO MEMBER IS INTENDED TO BOLSTER THE COUNTRY'S DEFENSES IN CASE OF AN ATTACK BY IRAQ, TURKEY'S SOUTHEASTERN NEIGBOR.

THE AIRCRAFT LANDED AT THEIR DESIGNATED LOCATIONS, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY QUOTED THE TURKISH GENERAL STAFF AS SAYING.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT IDENTIFY THE AIRCRAFT OR THE DESTINATIONS OR SAY HOW MANY THERE WERE.

EARLIER SUNDAY, 18 GERMAN ALPHA JETS, SIX ITALIAN AIR FORCE RECONNAISSANCE AIRCRAFT AND 18 BELGIAN AIR FORCE FIGHTER-BOMBERS LEFT THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNTRIES FOR TURKEY AS PART OF NATO'S MOBILE FORCE.

ANATOLIA SAID THE AIRCRAFT THAT LEFT BELGIUM WOULD ARRIVE ON MONDAY AFTER STAYING OVERNIGHT AT A LOCATION OUTSIDE TURKEY. IT DID NOT SAY WHERE.

MILITARY AUTHORITIES REFUSED TO ELABORATE.

THE AIRCRAFT WERE SUPPOSED TO LAND AT ERHAC AIRBASE NEAR MALATYA, 668 KILOMETERS (400 MILES) SOUTHEAST OF ANKARA, ACCORDING TO EARLIER REPORTS.

RELIABLE SOURCES WHO REFUSED TO BE IDENTIFIED, SAID THE NATO PLANES LANDED SUNDAY AT BALIKESIR, 531 KILOMETERS (330 MILES) WEST OF THE CAPITAL.

ON SATURDAY, 20 TRANSPORT PLANES CARRYING SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT IN PREPARATION FOR THE DEPLOYMENT OF THE NATO AIRCRAFT LANDED AT ERHAC.

TURKEY KEEPS SOME 100,000 TROOPS ALONG ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ.

NATO'S MOBILE FORCE IS CONSIDERED A DETERRENT, ARMED WITH CONVENTIONAL OR NON-NUCLEAR WEAPONS. IT IS DESIGNED TO REDUCE THE VULNERABILITY OF THE FLANK REGIONS OF THE ALLIANCE.

MEANWHILE, FOUR TURKISH NEWSMEN WERE ARRESTED SUNDAY FOR SHOOTING PICTURES OF ERHAC AIRBASE WITHOUT OFFICIAL PERMISSION, BUT WERE RELEASED AFTER SURRENDERING THEIR FILMS, ANATOLIA REPORTED.

^NATO Force Under Turkish Control, Says Official(

DIYARBAKIR, Turkey (AP) - A NATO Allied Mobile Force sent to Turkey last weekend will be under Turkish command in case of a threat to the country, a Turkish military official said Tuesday.

Col. Halil Kalayc told reporters that the Allied Mobile Force and Turkish air force units would together form the 6th Tactical Air Force.

It will be commanded by Air Force Lt. Gen. Oner Dincer, Kalayci told the briefing.

''He's the one to order the aircraft to scramble'' in case of an attack from Iraq, Turkey's southeastern neighbor, he added.

Kalayci, head of the Allied Press Information Center just set up in this southeastern city 230 kilometers (142 miles) northwest of the Iraqi frontier, said NATO had sent 18 German Alpha jets, six Italian F-104 Starfighters and 18 Belgian Mirage 5 fighter-bombers to this member of the alliance.

The German and Italian aircraft arrived over the weekend at Erhac airbase near Malatya, 668 kilometers (400 miles) southeast of Ankara, Kalayci said.

Italy sent eight additional transport planes on Sunday.

The Belgians, who arrived in Turkey on Monday, remained grounded at Balikesir airbase, 531 kilometers (330 miles) west of Ankara, due to bad weather conditions complicated by dense fog, Kalayci said.

''The types and numbers of AMF aircraft are not important,'' Kalayci said. ''What's important is that they show NATO's solidarity. They have been invited for the purpose of defense and deterrence. The republic of Turkey already does have the power to rebuff any threat directed against it.''

Turkey has fully complied with a United Nations embargo against Iraq for its invasion of Kuwait on Aug. 2. It has recently beefed up its armed forces on its frontier with Iraq.

''Measures taken by the Turkish armed forces are purely defensive in nature and have no other purpose,'' Kalayci said.

On Monday, President Turgut Ozal said Turkey had made no decision yet on whether it would join a war against Iraq if that country's forces did not withdraw from Kuwait by the United Nations deadline of Jan. 15.

ADANA, TURKEY (AP) - U.S. SERVICEMEN AT NATO'S INCIRLIK AIRBASE NEAR THIS MEDITERRANEAN PORT HAVE SENT THEIR DEPENDENTS HOME, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED WEDNESDAY.

IT SAID THE FAMILIES OF APPROXIMATELY 2,500 AMERICAN SERVICEMEN AT THE BASE, 688 KILOMETERS NORTHWEST OF THE IRAQI FRONTIER, HAD RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES BECAUSE OF THE THREAT OF WAR WITH IRAQ.

MEANWHILE, THE TURKISH ARMED FORCES HAS BEEN SENDING FRESH UNITS TO BEEF UP THE DEFENSE OF THE BASE, ANATOLIA SAID.

OFFICIALS AT INCIRLIK DECLINED TO COMMENT.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE JAMES BAKER IS EXPECTED WHEN HE MEETS WITH TURKISH OFFICIALS TO RAISE THE ISSUE OF THE USE OF INCIRLIK AS A STAGING AREA FOR U.S. AIRCRAFT IN A WAR WITH IRAQ. BAKER HAS SCHEDULED TO FLY TO ANKARA LATER WEDNESDAY AFTER MEETING WITH IRAQI FOREIGN MINISTER TARIQ AZIZ IN GENEVA.

PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL HAS SAID THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT BEEN GRANTED PERMISSION TO USE INCIRLIK, WHICH IS UNDER TURKISH COMMAND, BUT THAT THIS COULD CHANGE DEPENDING ON DEVELOPMENTS.

OZAL HAS ALSO SAID THAT TURKEY HAS MADE NO DECISION YET ON WHETHER IT WOULD JOIN A WAR AGAINST IRAQ IF BAGHDAD DID NOT COMPLY WITH A UNITED NATIONS DEADLINE TO WITHDRAW FROM KUWAIT BY JAN. 15.

PRESIDENTIAL SPOKESMAN KAYA TOPERI ANNOUNCED THAT BAKER TELEPHONED PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL TO APOLOGIZE FOR THE CHANGE IN HIS ITINARY.

TOPERI SAID BAKER POSTPONED HIS VISIT HERE DUE TO WEATHER CONDITIONS. HE DID NOT ELABORATE.

BAKER MET WITH HIS IRAQI COUNTERPART TARIQ AZIZ IN GENEVA ON WEDNESDAY FOR MORE THAN SIX HOURS. BUT, THE MEETING DID NOT PRODUCE ANY SOLUTIONS TO THE GULF CRISIS.

EARLIER, A FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID HERE THAT THE AGENDA OF THE TALKS BETWEEN BAKER AND THE TURKISH AUTHORITIES WOULD BE SHAPED ACCORDING TO THE RESULTS OF THE GENEVA TALKS.

@@EVERY ISSUE CAN BE DISCUSSED, BUT THE OUTCOME OF BAKER'S MEETING WITH IRAQI FOREIGN MINISTER TARIQ AZIZ IS VERY IMPORTANT,'' SAID SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR AT HIS WEEKLY BRIEFING TO THE PRESS.

HIS REMARKS CAME IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION WHETHER BAKER WOULD RAISE THE ISSUE OF THE USE OF THE INCIRLIK NATO AIRBASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY AS A STAGING ARER FOR THE U.S. AIRCRAFT IN THE EVENT OF A WAR AGAINST IRAQ. THE AIRBASE IS UNDER TURKISH COMMAND.

BAKER IS SCHEDULED TO VISIT ANKARA AS PART OF A TOUR OF WESTERN AND GULF COUNTRIES.

THE LEADING NATIONAL DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED WEDNESDAY THAT BAKER WOULD ASK THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW THE USE OF INCIRLIK BY U.S. WARPLANES.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE ON THURSDAY DENIED NEWS REPORTS THAT U.S. MILITARY DEPENDENTS HAVE BEEN EVACUATED FROM THE INCIRLIK AIR BASE.

THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED WEDNESDAY THAT ABOUT 2,500 AMERICAN SERVICEMEN AT NATO'S INCIRLIK AIR BASE SENT THEIR FAMILIES HOME BECAUSE OF THE THREAT OF A WAR WITH IRAQ.

OFFICIALS AT THE BASE NEAR ADANA IN SOUTHERN TURKEY DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE REPORT WEDNESDAY. HOWEVER, ON THURSDAY THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE DENIED THE REPORT IN A TERSE STATEMENT.

DIYARBAKIR, TURKEY (AP) - MORE THAN 300 IRAQI SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS HAVE DEFECTED TO TURKEY OVER THE PAST FEW DAYS, THE REGIONAL GOVERNOR, BASED IN THIS SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCE, ANNOUNCED THURSDAY.

GOV. HAYRI KOZAKCIOGLU TOLD REPORTERS THAT THE GROUP INCLUDED 220 SOLDIERS AND 95 CIVILIANS, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

KOZAKCIOGLU SAID THE ARMY DESERTERS DEFECTED WITHOUT THEIR ARMS, ANATOLIA SAID.

IN NOVEMBER OFFICIALS SAID THAT 93 IRAQI SOLDIERS, INCLUDING TWO ARMY OFFICERS AND A NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER, AND 30 CIVILIANS DEFECTED TO TURKEY AND SOUGHT ASYLUM.

FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR SAID WEDNESDAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD TAKEN ALL NECESSARY MEASURES FOR A POSSIBLE INFLUX OF REFUGEES FROM IRAQ.

FOLLOWING IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT, MORE THAN 10,000 PEOPLE, MANY FROM PAKISTAN AND BANGLADESH, CROSSED INTO TURKEY THROUGH THE BORDER POST OF HABUR ON THE IRAQI-TURKISH FRONTIER.

JORDAN ON WEDNESDAY CLOSED ITS BORDER WITH IRAQ AND SAID NO REFUGEES FROM IRAQ AND KUWAIT WOULD BE ALLOWED TO CROSS INTO THE COUNTRY.

Turkish Lira Falls On Dollar Run; Bank Reserves Short

ANKARA -(AP-DJ)--The strength of the Turkish Lira plummeted against the dollar Friday following a jump in demand for dollars during the past two days; stemming from high tension in the Gulf region; dealers said.

The dollar rose to 3,019.03 Turkish lire Friday from 3,012.01 lire at Thursday's fixing and from its 2,992.95 lire official rate on Wednesday.

Black market dealers said the dollar jumped to 3,180 lire Friday from 3,130 lire on Thursday; when it was up 55 lire from the day before.

Many Turks attempted to withdraw large amounts of dollars or close their foreign currency deposit accounts at Turkish banks when the Geneva talks between the U.S. Secretary of State James Baker III and his Iraqi counterpart Tariq Aziz failed to produce a solution to the Gulf crisis; a Turkish banking official said.

Some of the banks failed to meet the demands and caused a panic among deposit-holders; who believed that their foreign currency deposits here being blocked by the government.

Late Thursday; the Turkish central bank announced that no official restrictions had been imposed on foreign currency and instructed banks to continue the sale and purchase of dollars and other foreign monies.

An official for the state Etibank's central branch in Ankara said Friday the run on deposits had exhausted their supplies of foreign currency and issued a request for additional reserves from the central bank.

"We will restart paying foreign currency Monday;" the official said.

State Minister Gunes Taner; who is in charge of Turkish economy; said the problem was temporary because the foreign currency demand came so suddenly and in such large volume that the banks to failed meet all requests.

"It is impossible to provide three to five billion dollars in one day;" Taner said. But he said Turkey had a 12 billion dollars of foreign currency reserves and was able to overcome the problem.

HOUSEHOLD EXPRESSION.

OZAL'S HAS ANTAGONIZED MEMBERS OF THE BUREAUCRACY AND THE POWERFUL MILITARY. IN THE PAST FOUR MONTHS, HIS FOREIGN MINISTER, DEFENSE MINISTER AND ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF HAVE RESIGNED.

BUSINESS EXECUTIVES, NEWSPAPERS AND OPPOSITION PARTIES HAVE ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN THE COUNTRY WILL TIE ITS FORTUNES TOO CLOSELY TO THE WEST.

THEY POINT OUT THAT TURKEY IS LOSING AN ESTIMATED 7 BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR THROUGH OBSERVING THE EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ.

WHILE THE UNITED STATES HAS ENLARGED IMPORT QUOTAS FOR TURKISH TEXTILES, OTHER BENEFITS, SUCH AS GENEROUS AID FROM EUROPEAN AND ARAB COUNTRIES, HAS NOT MATERIALIZED, TURKS SAY.

''WHY SHOULD TURKEY GO TO THE WAR?'' ASKED CAN DONMEZ, A MERCHANT IN ISTANBUL'S COVERED MARKET, SURROUNDED BY CARPETS WITH BRIGHT BLUE AND RED GEOMETRIC DESIGNS.

''WE ARE NOT BENEFITING FROM THE GULF (CRISIS) AT ALL. ACTUALLY IT'S THE OPPOSITE -- WE WERE BENEFITING FROM IRAQ.''

TURKEY HAS NOT SENT FORCES TO THE U.S.-LED MILITARY COALITION. AND OZAL HAS CONTINUALLY SAID TURKEY WILL NOT FIGHT IRAQ AT THE BORDER UNLESS ATTACKED.

BUT HE HAS INDICATED HE MAY CHANGE HIS MIND. ON JAN. 7, HE SAID TURKEY HAD NOT DECIDED YET IF IT WOULD JOIN A WAR.

MANY PEOPLE FEAR TURKEY COULD BE DRAGGED INTO A CONFLICT -- PARTICULARLY IF OZAL ALLOWS U.S. BOMBERS TO USE THE INCIRLIK BASE 950 KILOMETERS (550 MILES) NORTHWEST OF IRAQ FOR AN ATTACK ON THE NEIGHBORING COUNTRY.

''THEN THE IRAQIS MIGHT STRIKE BACK,'' SAID KOHEN.

THERE IS LITTLE LOVE FOR SADDAM HUSSEIN IN TURKEY, DESPITE ITS PREDOMINANTLY MOSLEM POPULATION. MANY TURKS FEAR HIS ARMS AND RESENT HIS GAS ATTACKS AGAINST IRAQ'S KURDISH POPULATION. TURKEY AND IRAQ HAVE ALSO BEEN FEUDING OVER WATER FROM THE EUPHRATES AND TIGRIS RIVERS.

A FEW TURKS SAY TAKING PART IN A GULF WAR COULD ENHANCE THE COUNTRY'S PRESTIGE WITH THE WEST AND GIVE IT MORE INFLUENCE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

MANY OTHERS, HOWEVER, SAY THE WEST HAS NOT PROVED A RELIABLE ALLY IN THE PAST, ESPECIALLY IN TURKEY'S DISPUTES WITH GREECE.

IN ADDITION, THEY SAY, TURKEY WILL HAVE TO LIVE WITH IRAQ LONG AFTER FOREIGN TROOPS LEAVE THE AREA.

''IRAQ IS A NEIGHBOR WITH WHICH WE HAVE MUTUAL POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC INTERESTS. FOR TURKEY'S LONG-TERM INTEREST, WE NEED TO HAVE GOOD RELATIONS WITH ALL OUR NEIGHBORS,'' SAID YALIM EREZ, CHAIRMAN OF TURKEY'S MAIN BUSINESS ASSOCIATION.

TURKS' NERVOUSNESS ABOUT WAR HAS BEEN EVIDENT IN RECENT DAYS, WITH A RUN ON FOREIGN CURRENCY ACCOUNTS. MANY BANK BRANCHES IN ISTANBUL AND ANKARA HAVE RUN OUT OF GERMAN MARKS OR U.S. DOLLARS.

EROL MANISALI, AN ECONOMIST AT ISTANBUL UNIVERSITY, ESTIMATED THAT REGULAR SAVINGS ACCOUNTS IN ISTANBUL HAD SHRUNK BY 10 PERCENT IN THREE WEEKS DUE TO PANICKED WITHDRAWALS.

SOME STORES HAVE REPORTED THAT CUSTOMERS ARE STOCKING UP ON FOOD IN CASE OF TROUBLE.

THE OPPOSITE EFFECT WAS APPARENT AT THE OTTOMAN-ERA COVERED MARKET. ONLY A FEW TOURISTS STROLLED UNDER THE BRIGHTLY PAINTED ARCADES, PAST SHOPS BURSTING WITH CERAMICS, RUGS, JEWELRY AND LEATHER BAGS.

''WAR FEARS HAVE AFFECTED THE MARKET VERY MUCH,'' SAID JEWELER RIDVAN KOSOVA, SHAKING HIS HEAD. ''THERE ARE NO SALES.''

^NATO's Only Front-Line State Uneasy as War Looms<
^By MARY BETH SHERIDAN<
^Associated Press Writer=

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) - Yashar Kemal, Turkey's famed novelist, was scheduled to speak about the Gulf crisis, but it was another war that loomed before his audience at an Istanbul hotel.

"Don't go to Yemen, Yemen, you will be dust and soil," he began.

The audience, attending a forum on the Gulf crisis last week, immediately recognized the old song. It was a lament of Turkey's bloody rout in its Arab territories in World War I.

That disaster finished off the 500-year-old Turkish Ottoman Empire. It also resulted in Turkey adopting a hands-off approach to the Middle East -- a policy that has endured for nearly seven decades.

Now, many Turks fear they will be drawn into another Middle East war, through their government's pro-U.S. stand.

Some Turks have taken to citing the World War I songs to warn what could happen to NATO's only front-line state with Iraq.

"There is a lot of concern, a lot of anxiety," said Sami Kohen, senior columnist for the daily Milliyet, in an interview. "The Turks in general don't want to get involved in an armed conflict."

Turkey has offered critical support for the U.N. embargo against Iraq, shutting down two key Iraqi oil pipelines. In addition, it has more than 100,000 troops along the 250-kilometer (150-mile) border with Iraq, tying down an estimated eight Iraqi divisions.

Turkey has also allowed the United States to station F-111 and F-16 aircraft at Incirlik military base.

But with his support of the U.S.-led effort and his harsh criticism of Iraq, President Turgut Ozal is widely seen as departing from the foreign policy adopted in the 1920s by Kemal Ataturk, whose leadership saved Turkey from extinction.

Ataturk's policy, "peace at home, peace in the world," is a household expression.

Ozal's has antagonized members of the bureaucracy and the powerful military. In the past four months, his foreign minister, defense minister and army chief of staff have resigned.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THOUSANDS OF TURKS LIVING NEAR THE FRONTIER WITH IRAQ ARE SELLING THEIR BELONGINGS, BOARDING BUSES AND HEADING FOR RELATIVES LIVING IN SEEMINGLY SAFE AREAS, OFFICIALS AND NEWSPAPER REPORTS SAID MONDAY.

AS JAN. 15 AND A POSSIBLE WAR WITH IRAQ APPROACHES, MANY POOR BORDER INHABITANTS ARE CHOOSING TO SLEEP IN THE OPEN IN CITIES FARTHER FROM THE FRONTIER RATHER THAN FACE POSSIBLE AIR ATTACKS BY IRAQ. CIVIL SERVANTS WORKING IN THE AREA HAVE SENT THEIR WIVES AND CHILDREN TO FAR OFF TOWNS.

THERE WAS LESS PANIC IN OTHER PARTS OF TURKEY, BUT A CIVIL DEFENSE PLAN HAS BEEN LAUNCHED AND OFFICIALS SAY THEY HAVE DISTRIBUTED PAMPHLETS NATIONWIDE WITH INSTRUCTIONS IN CASE OF AN ATTACK.

"WE HAVE ABOUT 30,000 GAS MASKS THAT WILL BE DISTRIBUTED TO CIVIL DEFENSE VOLUNTEERS FOR RESCUE OPERATIONS," SAID AHMET TURAN BOZKIR, GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THE INTERIOR MINISTRY'S CIVIL DEFENSE ORGANIZATION. HIS GROUP ORGANIZED A BOMB ATTACK DRILL SATURDAY IN THE ANKARA HIPPODROME, WHERE A FAKE STREET HAD BEEN BUILT COMPLETE WITH SHELTERS, A BANK AND A POST OFFICE.

BOZKIR SAID CHILDREN IN HIGH SCHOOL WOULD BE TRAINED ON HOW TO REACT IN CASE OF WAR. HOSPITAL OFFICIALS IN THE CAPITAL, ANKARA, SAID THEY HAD BEEN NOTIFIED TO PREPARE FOR POSSIBLE WAR CASUALTIES.

ALTHOUGH TURKISH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL HAD SAID HIS COUNTRY WOULD NOT FIGHT IRAQ, HE INDICATED A POSSIBLE SHIFT IN POLICY A WEEK AGO WHEN HE SAID TURKEY HAD NOT DECIDED WHETHER TO JOIN A WAR OR NOT.

AS THE U.N-SET JAN. 15 DEADLINE FOR IRAQ TO PULL OUT OF KUWAIT DREW NEAR, U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE JAMES A. BAKER III MET WITH AMERICAN ALLIES IN THE GULF TO ASSURE THEIR WAR PREPAREDNESS. DURING HIS VISIT HERE, HE IS BELIEVED TO HAVE DISCUSSED THE USE OF A NATO AIR BASE FOR U.S. PLANES. OFFICALS HAVE REFUSED TO COMMENT.

THERE IS NO OFFICIAL FIGURE FOR PEOPLE FLEEING BORDER AREAS, BUT A MARDIN OFFICIAL WHO REFUSED TO BE IDENTIFIED SAID ALL BUSES OUT OF TOWN WERE FULLY BOOKED FOR THE NEXT FIVE TO SIX DAYS.

In the last few weeks, Turkish engineer units have been planting mines, digging ditches and erecting fences and other barriers along the border, the diplomats said.

Iraqi troops have made similar preparations, they said.

The Turkish soldiers have recently completed a series of training exercises and are prepared for battle if necessary, they said.

"Both sides basically are digging in," a diplomat said.

Turkey has 800,000 troops -- the second-biggest military in NATO after the United States.

To augment its forces, Turkey has recently received 80 Leopard-1 tanks and 320 M-113 armored personnel carriers from Germany; Patriot surface-to-air missiles from the United States and the Netherlands; and air-to-air rockets from Norway, officials said.

In a surprise announcement Monday night, the government said the United States had agreed to send 48 more warplanes to bolster Turkey's defense. The move doubled the U.S. Air Force contingent in Turkey.

NATO has already dispatched about 50 Belgian, Italian and German planes at Turkey's request, to signal NATO's willingness to defend the country from attack.

"Turkey would beat them (Iraq) back without any big problem from their own border," a diplomat said.

However, both Turkey and Iraq have declared they have no interest in a "second front" war.

Both countries have set up defensive rather than offensive formations at the border, diplomats and analysts said.

Turkey has left its powerful mechanized forces on the Soviet border, indicating it does not plan any all-out attack, they said.

Any offensive by Turkey would be unpopular at home, where the public has strongly backed neutrality in Arab conflicts ever since Turkey lost its Arab colonies in the First World War.

Turkey also wants to avoid destabilization in the region caused by a drastically weakened or carved-up Iraq.

Further discouraging a border war is the mountainous, sparsely populated terrain, which boasts only one paved highway.

"It's not a place you'd want to go to war, particularly in winter," a diplomat said.

Still, if attacked, Turkish forces are expected to display the fierce determination that has characterized their armed forces for 1,000 years. Their discipline would help compensate for their lack of modern equipment, analysts said.

Turkey has not sent troops to the U.S.-led multinational coalition arrayed against Saddam Hussein. But some people fear the country could be drawn into a conflict if the United States uses NATO bases for planes staging attacks on Iraq.

Turkey so far has said its main NATO air base in the southern town of Incirlik can be used only for logistics.

Another possibility is that provocations could result in border skirmishes between Iraq and Turkey, without a full war breaking out, a diplomat said.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE TURKISH MILITARY HAS DUG IN ON IRAQ'S NORTHERN BORDER; DISPATCHING TENS OF THOUSANDS OF EXTRA SOLDIERS AND MINING THE BORDER IN CASE OF A ''SECOND FRONT'' WAR; DIPLOMATS AND MILITARY ANALYSTS SAY.

EXPERTS AGREE THAT A FULL-SCALE WAR ALONG THE 250-KILOMETER (150-MILE) BORDER IS UNLIKELY. IRAQ AND TURKEY WOULD FACE PROHIBITIVE MILITARY AND POLITICAL COSTS IF THEY LAUNCHED OFFENSIVES ON THE FRONTIER; ACCORDING TO WESTERN DIPLOMATS AND ANALYSTS.

BUT BOTH COUNTRIES HAVE NONETHELESS MADE EXTENSIVE DEFENSE PREPARATIONS; IN CASE A ''SECOND FRONT'' DOES OPEN IN THE NORTH WHILE THE U.S.-LED COALITION DRIVES FROM KUWAIT TO THE SOUTHERN BORDER OF IRAQ.

''I THINK THERE'S ALL KINDS OF OPPORTUNITIES FOR TURKEY TO BE DRAGGED IN'' TO A WAR; SAID A DIPLOMAT; SPEAKING ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY. ''BUT I DON'T THINK THE GOVERNMENT WILL SAY; 'LET'S GO TO BAGHDAD.''

IN RECENT MONTHS; TURKEY HAS BEEFED UP ITS FORCES ALONG THE BORDER BY 30 TO 50 PERCENT; ACCORDING TO THE DIPLOMATS. TURKEY HAS AN ESTIMATED 100;000-150;000 MEN ON THE FRONTIER; PINNING DOWN 70;000 TO 100;000 IRAQIS.

THE TURKISH FORCES ARE NOW ON HIGH ALERT; THE DIPLOMATS AND ANALYSTS SAID.

IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS; TURKISH ENGINEER UNITS HAVE BEEN PLANTING MINES; DIGGING DITCHES AND ERECTING FENCES AND OTHER BARRIERS ALONG THE BORDER; THE DIPLOMATS SAID.

IRAQI TROOPS HAVE MADE SIMILAR PREPARATIONS; THEY SAID.

^Turkish Naval Fleet Sent to the Mediterranean to Watch Cyprus<
ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Turkey has sent a naval fleet to the eastern Mediterranean to discourage Greek Cypriots from launching any military actions while Turkey is distracted by a possible war in Iraq, a government official said Monday.

A government official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the Turkish armed forces had to take the necessary precautions in case the Greek Cypriots presented Turkey with a ''fait accompli.''

Turkey sent four destroyers and three submarines from Golcuk naval base on the sea of Marmara to Iskenderun near Cyprus in the eastern Mediterranean last week.

Turkish papers initially said the force was part of Turkey's efforts to beef up its defense in case of a Gulf war.

Cyprus was divided into northern Turkish Cypriot and southern Greek Cypriot sectors after Turkish troops invaded the island following an Athens-backed coup in the tiny island in 1974.

The two communities have been living separately since then. Turkish Cypriots declared an independent state in 1983, which was declared invalid by the United Nations. Turkey is the only country that recognizes it.

U.N.-sponsored intercommunal talks to reunite the island have been deadlocked.

Turkey is also unhappy about what it calls Greek diplomatic efforts to identify the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait with Turkey's military intervention in Cyprus.

Turkey and Greece have been at odds on several issues besides the Cyprus conflict, including the share of airspace in the Aegean, militarization of Greek islands in the Aegean and oil drilling rights and territorial waters.

BY ZEYNEP ALEMDAR=

^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE TURKISH PARLIAMENT ON THURSDAY AUTHORIZED THE USE OF ITS MILITARY BASES FOR ATTACKS AGAINST IRAQ BY U.S.-LED MULTINATIONAL FORCES.

THE WARPOWERS RESOLUTION WAS PASSED BY A TALLY OF 250 VOTES FOR, 148 AGAINST AND 52 ABSTENTIONS. ALL FIVE OPPOSITION PARTIES VOTED AGAINST THE MEASURE, BUT PASSAGE WAS ASSURED BY THE VOTES OF THE GOVERNING MOTHERLAND PARTY.

UNDER A LIMITED PERMISSION GRANTED BY PARLIAMENT IN SEPTEMBER, THE GOVERNMENT ALLOWED NATO AND U.S. MILITARY AIRCRAFT TO BE DEPLOYED IN THIS COUNTRY. BUT, UNTIL THURSDAY'S VOTE, THEIR PRESENCE HERE HAD REMAINED PURELY FOR DEFENSIVE REASONS AND THEY WERE NOT ALLOWED TO STAGE MILITARY ACTIONS.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION, HOWEVER, IF OR WHEN THE BASES WOULD BE USED FOR STRIKES AGAINST IRAQ.

IRAQ.

THE MILITARY COMMAND WAS WATCHING THE SITUATION CAREFULLY, SAID COL. HALIL KALAYCI, THE OFFICER IN CHARGE OF THE MILITARY PRESS CENTER AT DIYARBAKIR IN SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY.

''THE ARMY IS ON ALERT ALONG THE BORDER,'' HE SAID.

TURKEY HAS MORE THAN 100,000 TROOPS ALONG ITS 150 MILE (250 KILOMETER) SOUTHERN BORDER. THEY FACE ABOUT THE SAME NUMBER OF IRAQI SOLDIERS.

EDUCATION MINISTER AVNI AKYOL SAID HE EMPOWERED GOVERNORS TO CLOSE SCHOOLS IN CASE OF AN ATTACK BY IRAQ.

CHIEF OF STAFF DOGAN GURES, DEFENSE MINISTER HUSNU DOGAN AND FOREIGN MINISTER AHMET KURTECE ALPTEMOCIN ATTENDED THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE MEETING CALLED AFTER THE U.S.-LED STRIKE BEGAN.

AKBULUT ANNOUNCED EARLIER IN THE WEEK THAT THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT SEEK PERMISSION FROM THE PARLIAMENT, WHERE THE GOVERNING MOTHERLAND PARTY ENJOYS A SOLID MAJORITY, FOR THE USE OF INCIRLIK NATO BASE IN SOUTHERN ADANA PROVINCE BY U.S. AIRCRAFT DEPLOYED THERE.

UNDER LIMITED PERMISSION GRANTED BY PARLIAMENT IN SEPTEMBER, THE GOVERNMENT ALLOWED THE UNITED STATES TO STATION 48 AIR FORCE WARPLANES AT INCIRLIK. THEY INCLUDE F-111, F-15 AND F-16 FIGHTERS. TURKEY ALSO AGREED TO THE DISPATCH OF ADDITIONAL 48 WARPLANES TO THIS COUNTRY LAST WEEK, BUT IT WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY KNOWN IF THEY ARRIVED BEFORE THE ATTACK BEGAN.

NATO ALSO DISPATCHED ABOUT 50 BELGIAN, ITALIAN AND GERMAN PLANES AT TURKEY'S REQUEST, TO SIGNAL NATO'S WILLINGNESS TO DEFEND THE COUNTRY FROM ATTACK.

ANATOLIA REPORTED WEDNESDAY THAT THE FIRST PARTY OF PATRIOT SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILES ARRIVED AT INCIRLIK FROM NETHERLANDS WEDNESDAY.

NATO ANNOUNCED AFTER AN EMERGENCY MEETING IN BRUSSELS THURSDAY THAT IT WOULD VIEW AN IRAQI ATTACK AGAINST TURKEY AS AN ATTACK AGAINST NATO.

ANKARA; TURKEY (AP) - PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT SAID THE GOVERNMENT THURSDAY WOULD ASK PARLIAMENT TO GRANT IT WAR POWERS TO USE IN CASE IRAQ ATTACKS TURKEY AND TO LET THE UNITED STATES USE AIRBASES AS STAGING AREAS.

FOLLOWING A MEETING AT THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE CALLED AFTER THE U.S.-LED ATTACK BEGAN AGAINST IRAQ; AKBULUT SAID THAT PERMISSION WAS BEING SOUGHT NEEDED FOR ANY TURKISH MILITARY OPERATION AGAINST IRAQ IN CASE IRAQ ATTACKED THIS COUNTRY; THE ONLY NATO MEMBER BORDERING IRAQ.

AKBULUT SAID THE U.S. PLANES MIGHT USE THE BASES HERE AS A STAGING AREA AGAINST IRAQ AFTER PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL WHETHER OR NOT TURKEY IS ATTACKED.

IT WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY KNOWN WHEN PARLIAMENT WOULD CONSIDER THE GOVERNMENT'S REQUEST.

THE GOVERNOR OF THE SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCE OF SIRNAK TOLD THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY THAT A BLACKOUT WAS ORDERED IN HARBUR TOWNSHIP; WHICH INCLUDES THE ONLY BORDER POST BETWEEN IRAQ AND TURKEY. IRAQ CLOSED ITS EXIT AT HARBUR ON WEDNESDAY.

PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT PLEDGED THAT TURKEY WOULD NOT ATTACK IRAQ UNLESS ITS ARAB NEIGHBOR STRUCK FIRST.

BUT HE SAID THE U.S. PLANES MIGHT USE THE BASES HERE AS A STAGING AREA AGAINST IRAQ AFTER PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL, WHETHER OR NOT TURKEY IS ATTACKED.

ERDAL INONU, THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION SOCIAL DEMOCRAT POPULIST PARTY, SAID HIS PARTY WOULD OPPOSE THE PROPOSAL ON THE GROUNDS THAT ADDITIONAL WAR POWER WOULD DRAG TURKEY INTO A WAR WITH IRAQ.

THREE OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES AT THE PARLIAMENT ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THEY WOULD VOTE AGAINST IT.

THE GOVERNING MOTHERLAND PARTY HAS A SOLID MAJORITY WITH 276 SEATS IN THE 450-SEAT PARLIAMENT.

THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ITS DECISION TO REQUEST WAR POWERS FROM PARLIAMENT AFTER EMERGENCY MEETINGS WITH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL AND HIGH RANKING MILITARY GENERALS IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE U.S.-LED ALLIED ATTACK ON IRAQ EARLY THURSDAY.

PARLIAMENT LAST SEPTEMBER GRANTED PERMISSION FOR THE USE OF THE INCIRLIK NATO AIRBASE BASE IN SOUTHEAST TURKEY FOR LOGISTICS AND HUMANITARIAN REASONS. BUT TURKISH AND U.S. OFFICIALS HERE SAID THE BASE HAS NOT GONE INTO OPERATION SINCE THE ATTACK ON IRAQ.

MEANWHILE OZAL SAID U.S. PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH TELEPHONED HIM ABOUT AN HOUR BEFORE THE U.S. AIRCRAFT BEGAN THE FIRST AIR STRIKE AGAINST IRAQ TO NOTIFY HIM ABOUT IT.

BUSH SAID THERE WOULD BE FIRST A MASSIVE AIR RAID WHICH WOULD BE FOLLOWED BY OTHER ATTACKS IN @@GROWING WAVES,'' OZAL TOLD REPORTERS.

^Associated Press Writer=

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) _ U.S. warplanes taking off from a strategic NATO air base in southern Turkey bombed targets in northern Iraq early today, newspapers reported. But the Foreign Ministry said they were only on a training mission.

A Pentagon spokesman in Washington, Army Lt. Col. Steve Roy, declined comment on a report by a U.S. newspaper that the warplanes aimed to knock out Iraqi mobile missile launchers that hurled modified Scud missiles into Israel early today.

A U.S. spokesman at the Incirlik base, 440 miles west of the Iraqi border, said he could not give any information on operational matters.

The reports came a day after Parliament authorized the use of air bases in Turkey for attacks on Iraq by American jets, raising the possibility of a second front in the Persian Gulf war.

While a second front could be helpful to the U.S.-led multinational force battling Iraq, many Turks fear the prospect of a land war if Iraq cites the use of Incirlik by U.S. warplanes as a provocation and attacks Turkey.

The newspaper reports said the planes took off from the base early today, flew west toward Iraq and returned three hours later. The Turkish newspapers Cumhuriyet and Hurriyet said the aircraft were on a bombing mission, as did The New York Times, which cited an unidentified U.S. official in Washington.

Hurriyet reported that when asked about the flights, Gen. Siyami Tastan, commander of the Turkish air force, said: ``This was to be expected.´´

A Foreign Ministry spokesman, Murat Sungar, said only that the 27 jets and three refueling aircraft were on a three-hour night training mission.

The United States has deployed 48 warplanes at the base, including F-16, F-15 and F-111 jets. The government said 48 new planes would arrive and at least 37 have flown in so far, according to reporters around the base who counted the arrivals.

An unspecified number of Patriot air-to-air anti-aircraft batteries have also been brought to Incirlik in the past few days.

``The bases could be used if U.S. wants, and also airspace could be used,´´ President Turkish Ozal told Cable News Network after the vote in Parliament on Thursday.

Government spokesman Mehmet Yazar said it was up to the Turkish general staff to decide the need and the timing for such action.

According to the bilateral defense cooperation treaty between Turkey and the United States, the base could not be used for any

On Thursday; the Turkish parliament authorized the use of air bases in Turkey for attacks on Iraq by U.S. warplanes.

A foreign ministry announcement Friday also indicated that Incirlik was used by U.S. planes.

It said the government gave the ''necessary instructions'' in connection with the decision for the extensive use of the bases.

Ozal reiterated his early position that Turkey had no intention to attack Iraq as long as there was no attack from its neighbor.

Ozal said he believed Iraq would not attack Turkey; but; he added; that in case of an Iraqi attack Turkey would ''retaliate in the most severe way ... with its air forces'' and with land forces as well if necessary.

Some 180;000 Turkish troops are deployed along Turkey's 150-mile (250 km) border with Iraq. It is the only NATO country to border Iraq. Baghdad has deployed an estimated 100;000 Iraqi troops at the border.

A spokesman at Incirlik refused Friday to disclose the exact number of planes at the base.

The United States has deployed at least 48 warplanes at the base; including F-16; F-15 and F-111 jets.

An unspecified number of Patriot air-to-air antiaircraft batteries have also been brought to Incirlik.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - U.S. warplanes taking off from a strategic NATO airbase in southern Turkey bombed targets in northern Iraq early Friday, Turkish newspapers reported. But the Foreign Ministry said they were on a training mission.

''Turkey is a second front,'' headlined the liberal daily Cumhuriyet.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said 27 warplanes and three refueling aircraft were on a night training mission.

A U.S. spokesman at the Incirlik base said he could not give any information on operational matters.

The reports said the planes took off from the base at 1.30 a.m. (2330GMT), flew west toward Iraq and returned three hours later.

The independent daily Hurriyet reported that when asked about the flights Gen.Siyami Tastan, commander of the Turkish air force, said ''this was to be expected.''

Hours earlier, the Turkish parliament authorized the use of air bases in Turkey for attacks on Iraq by U.S. warplanes.

Some 180,000 Turkish troops along Turkey's 150-mile (250 km) border with Iraq are tying down 100,000 Iraqi troops.

While a second front could be helpful to the U.S.-led multinational force battling Iraq, many Turks fear the prospect of a land war if Iraq cites the use of Incirlik by U.S. warplanes as a provocation and attacks Turkey.

''The bases could be used if U.S. wants, and also airspace could be used,'' President Turkish Ozal told the Cable News Network after the vote in Parliament Thursday.

Government spokesman Mehmet Yazar said it was up to the Turkish general staff to decide the need and the timing for such a use.

A spokesman at Incirlik refused Friday to disclose the exact number of planes at the base citing security reasons.

The United States has deployed 48 warplanes at the base, including F-16, F-15 and F-111 jets. The government said 48 new planes would arrive and at least 37 have flown in so far, according to reporters around the base who counted the arrivals.

An unspecified number of Patriot air-to-air antiaircraft batteries have also been brought to Incirlik in the past few days.

According to the bilateral defense cooperation treaty between Turkey and the United States, the base could not be used for any purpose other than NATO duty, meaning not for any Mideast war.

U.S. Secretary of State James D. Baker III and his Turkish counterpart Ahmet Kurtcebe Altemocin agreed through an exchange of letters to lift these restrictions, a government official said Thursday.

Turkey has been promised increased military and economic aid and trade concessions in exchange for an expanded role for the base, said the official who requested anonymity.

Turkey's opposition parties voted against the warpowers measure, saying it would drag Turkey into a war with Iraq.

President Ozal, a staunch supporter of the United States throughout the Gulf crisis, argues that Turkey has a lot to gain from this policy.

''There is no profit without risk, not gambling but calculated risk,'' Ozal said Thursday in an interview with the Turkish TV station Star 1.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - WAVES OF U.S. BOMBERS TOOK OFF FROM A STRATEGIC NATO BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY FOR THE SECOND DAY SATURDAY FOR ATTACKS ON NORTHERN IRAQ, ACCORDING TO LOCAL CORRESPONDENTS AND NEWSPAPER REPORTS.

THE MISSIONS HEIGHTENED WIDESPREAD FEARS HERE THAT TURKEY WOULD BE DRAGGED INTO A WAR WITH ITS NEIGHBOR AND BECOME A ''SECOND FRONT'' IN THE GULF CONFLICT.

OPPOSITION DEPUTIES STORMED OUT OF PARLIAMENT ON SATURDAY, SAYING THE LEGISLATURE SHOULD HAVE BEEN INFORMED ABOUT U.S. MISSIONS FROM TURKISH TERRITORY.

MOST TURKS FEEL THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD HAVE LIMITED ITSELF TO SUPPORTING U.N. SANCTIONS AGAINST IRAQ. THIS HAS ALSO BEEN THE VIEW OF TURKEY'S POWERFUL ARMED FORCES AND THE FOREIGN MINISTRY, WHO WERE EXPECTED TO REACT COOLLY TO THE COUNTRY'S INCREASED INVOLVEMENT IN THE CONFLICT.

''THIS IS A SECOND FRONT, ALTHOUGH IT IS ONLY FROM THE AIR AT THIS TIME,'' COLUMNIST HASAN CEMAL WROTE IN THE LIBERAL DAILY CUMHURIYET SATURDAY. ''THERE IS ONLY ONE STEP LEFT TO A HOT WAR.''

RESIDENTS OF SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY, WHICH BORDERS IRAQ, CONTINUED TO FLEE THE AREA ON SATURDAY. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE HAVE JOINED THE EXODUS.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENTS NEAR THE GIANT NATO INCIRLIK BASE SAID FIVE GROUPS OF U.S. BOMBERS HAD TAKEN OFF SINCE FRIDAY, BEGINNING HOURS AFTER THE PARLIAMENT AUTHORIZED EXPANDED USE OF TURKISH BASES IN THE GULF WAR.

THEY SAID THE LATEST WAVE LEFT SATURDAY AFTERNOON FROM THE BASE A FEW KILOMETERS (MILES) FROM THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA. THE PLANES FLEW IN GROUPS OF 25 TO 30 AND RETURNED ABOUT THREE HOURS LATER, THE REPORTS SAID.

RESIDENTS ALONG THE BORDER WERE QUOTED IN NEWSPAPERS SATURDAY AS SAYING THEY HAD HEARD EXPLOSIONS AND THE RATTLE OF ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF TURKEY'S 250-KILOMETER (150-MILE) FRONTIER AFTER THE FIRST GROUPS OF PLANES LEFT INCIRLIK ON FRIDAY.

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY AND PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL HAVE INDICATED THAT THE U.S. PLANES WERE GOING TO BOMB IRAQ.

BUT TURKISH AND U.S. OFFICIALS HAVE REFUSED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION UNDER A NEWS BLACKOUT ORDERED BY PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT. NO OFFICIAL EXPLANATION HAS BEEN GIVEN FOR THIS POLICY.

INDEPENDENT TURKISH PAPERS HAVE REPORTED THE U.S. FLIGHTS. HOWEVER, THE STATE-RUN RADIO AND TELEVISION AND THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY HAVE BEEN BARRED FROM COVERING THE STORY.

OZAL DEFENDED HIS GULF POLICY IN A TELEVISION INTERVIEW FRIDAY NIGHT, SAYING THAT AN AGGRESSIVE COUNTRY LIKE IRAQ COULD BE A PROBLEM FOR TURKEY IN THE FUTURE.

HIS OPPONENTS HAVE ARGUED THAT TURKEY WILL HAVE TO LIVE WITH ITS NEIGHBOR AFTER A WAR, AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT ABANDON ITS TRADITIONAL NEUTRALITY IN MIDDLE EAST CONFLICTS.

A RECENT POLL BY THE GOVERNING MOTHERLAND PARTY SHOWED 74 PERCENT OF RESPONDENTS WERE OPPOSED TO TURKEY ENTERING A WAR WITH IRAQ.

MANY TURKS SAY THE FLIGHTS FROM INCIRLIK COULD PROVOKE AN IRAQI STRIKE ON TURKEY; PROMPTING A TURKISH COUNTERATTACK AND POSSIBLY ALL-OUT WAR.

HOWEVER; IRAQ WOULD FACE A CONSIDERABLE THREAT IN ATTACKING TURKEY. SUCH A MOVE COULD COMMIT SADDAM HUSSEIN TO A SECOND FRONT IN THE NORTH WHILE HIS TROOPS FACE U.S. FORCES BASED IN THE GULF AREA. ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - WAVES OF U.S. BOMBERS TOOK OFF FROM A STRATEGIC NATO BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY FOR THE SECOND DAY SATURDAY FOR ATTACKS ON NORTHERN IRAQ, ACCORDING TO LOCAL CORRESPONDENTS AND NEWSPAPER REPORTS.

THE MISSIONS HEIGHTENED WIDESPREAD FEARS HERE THAT TURKEY WOULD BE DRAGGED INTO A WAR WITH ITS NEIGHBOR AND BECOME A @@SECOND FRONT'' IN THE GULF CONFLICT.

OPPOSITION DEPUTIES STORMED OUT OF PARLIAMENT ON SATURDAY, SAYING THE LEGISLATURE SHOULD HAVE BEEN INFORMED ABOUT U.S. MISSIONS FROM TURKISH TERRITORY.

MOST TURKS FEEL THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD HAVE LIMITED ITSELF TO SUPPORTING U.N. SANCTIONS AGAINST IRAQ. THIS HAS ALSO BEEN THE VIEW OF TURKEY'S POWERFUL ARMED FORCES AND THE FOREIGN MINISTRY, WHO WERE EXPECTED TO REACT COOLLY TO THE COUNTRY'S INCREASED INVOLVEMENT IN THE CONFLICT.

RESIDENTS OF SOUTHERSTERN TURKEY, WHICH BORDERS IRAQ, CONTINUED TO FLEE THE AREA ON SATURDAY. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE HAVE JOINED THE EXODUS.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENTS NEAR THE GIANT NATO INCIRLIK BASE SAID FIVE GROUPS OF U.S. BOMBERS HAD TAKEN OFF SINCE FRIDAY, BEGINNING HOURS AFTER THE PARLIAMENT AUTHORIZED EXPANDED USE OF TURKISH BASES IN THE GULF WAR.

THEY SAID THE LATEST WAVE LEFT SATURDAY AFTERNOON FROM THE BASE A FEW KILOMETERS (MILES) FROM THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA. THE PLANES FLEW IN GROUPS OF 25 TO 38 AND RETURNED ABOUT THREE HOURS LATER, THE REPORTS SAID.

RESIDENTS ALONG THE BORDER WERE QUOTED IN NEWSPAPERS SATURDAY AS SAYING THEY HAD HEARD EXPLOSIONS AND THE RATTLE OF ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF TURKEY'S 250-KILOMETER (150-MILE) FRONTIER AFTER THE FIRST GROUPS OF PLANES LEFT INCIRLIK ON FRIDAY.

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY AND PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL HAVE INDICATED THAT THE U.S. PLANES WERE GOING TO BOMB IRAQ.

BUT TURKISH AND U.S. OFFICIALS HAVE REFUSED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION UNDER A NEWS BLACKOUT ORDERED BY PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT. NO OFFICIAL EXPLANATION HAS BEEN GIVEN FOR THIS POLICY.

INDEPENDENT TURKISH PAPERS HAVE REPORTED THE U.S. FLIGHTS. HOWEVER, THE STATE-RUN RADIO AND TELEVISION AND THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY HAVE BEEN BARRED FROM COVERING THE STORY.

OZAL DEFENDED HIS GULF POLICY IN A TELEVISION INTERVIEW FRIDAY NIGHT, SAYING THAT AN AGGRESSIVE COUNTRY LIKE IRAQ COULD BE A PROBLEM FOR TURKEY IN THE FUTURE.

HIS OPPONENTS HAVE ARGUED THAT TURKEY WILL HAVE TO LIVE WITH ITS NEIGHBOR AFTER A WAR, AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT ABANDON ITS TRADITIONAL NEUTRALITY IN MIDDLE EAST CONFLICTS.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Two groups of bombers blasted off from a NATO base for raids on northern Iraq on Sunday, including the biggest U.S. mission yet sent from Turkey to attack sites in the neighboring country.

Fifty-six planes including F-15s, F-16s, F-111s and support aircraft were seen flying in waves from the giant Incirlik base in a 40-minute period starting at 12:55 p.m. (1055 GMT). They returned about three hours later, without most of their bombs.

Earlier Sunday morning, reporters saw 36 planes take off on a mission lasting more than three hours.

The planes are believed to have joined a search for remaining mobile missile launchers that could fire long-range Scud missiles at Israel or Saudi Arabia.

According to a count kept by reporters, Sunday afternoon's mission was the biggest single attack force to leave Incirlik since Thursday, when Parliament authorized expanded use of Turkish airfields in the fight to push Iraq from Kuwait.

The Turkish government and U.S. Embassy and military officials in Turkey have refused official comment on the flights.

But a high-ranking Turkish government official, speaking on condition of anonymity, confirmed Sunday that the planes from Incirlik were flying to Iraq.

The extensive use of the Turkish base has annoyed the powerful military here, which has complained to President Turgut Ozal, the leading Turkish daily Cumhurriyet reported Sunday.

The U.S. missions from Turkey have also prompted widespread fears that Turkey will get involved in a ''second front'' of the Gulf war against Iraq.

Prime Minister Yildirim Akbulut went on nationwide television on Sunday to assure citizens that was not the case.

''We are not going to use our forces unless we are attacked,'' he said. He contended that Iraq would not retaliate militarily against Turkey because it lacked the means and because Turkey was well defended.

A Western military official said Sunday the U.S. planes were probably seeking Iraqi mobile missile launchers and depots of chemical and biological weapons in northern Iraq.

The second priority would be three northern air bases he called ''very hot targets.'' One is near the Iraqi city of Mosul, he said, speaking on condition of anonymity. He declined to identify the others.

^Iran's Envoy Calls for Pullout by Iraq and Allied Forces<
ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - An Iranian envoy on Monday called for the pullout of Iraqi troops from Kuwait and the withdrawal of U.S.-led multinational forces in the Gulf.
Allireza Moayyyeri, adviser to Iranian President Hashemi [illegible]sanjani, said his trip was part of Iranian peace efforts.
``Iraq has to pull out of Kuwait, and the multinational forces should do the same,'' he told reporters before leaving Ankara.
Iran fought an eight-year-longl war with neighboring Iraq until 1988. It has condemned Iraq's occupation of Kuwait, but also disapproves of the presence of foreign forces in the region.
``Iraq's territorial integrity should be protected, we cannot accept any geographical change in the countries of the region.''
Moayyeri did not specify what changes he was referring to.
Turkey has expressed concern that a possible post-war scenario would include a Kurdish state in a weakened Iraq, and has said it would want to have a place at the negotiating table.
Both Turkey and Iran have faced trouble from separatist Kurds who envision a state carved out of parts of Turkey, Iran, and Iraq.
Moayyeri said his country and Turkey shared similar views on many issues but differed on others, noting Turkey has NATO obligations.
Ankara has allowed U.S. warplanes to take off from its Incirlik air base for bombing raids on Iraq. The act has alarmed many Turks who fear their country may be drawn into a war with Iraq.
It has also upset some Arab states, among them Libya and Morocco who warned Turkey against becoming involved in the war.
Prime Minister Yildirim Akbulut repeatedly has said his country would not attack Iraq.
``Unless Iraq attacks us, we will not attack, we will not enter the war,'' he said in an interview with Turkish Television on Monday.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) - Thre bombs exploded at a NATO maintenance facility here Monday night after gunmen overpowered a guard; police said. The explosions caused extensive damage but no injury, they said.

Three of eight bombs went off; shattering windows and causing other damage to the five-story building; police said.

A communist organization claimed responsibility for the attack on the center; which overlooks the Bosporus on the outskirts of Istanbul.

Police refused to give other details such as the number of attackers and the type of explosives.

The attackers apparently fled.

It was not known if there were any other people in the building besides the guard at the time of the blasts.

An anonymous caller to a local newspaper; Cumhuriyet; claimed responsibility for the blast in the name of DevSol (Revolutionary Left).

There was speculation that the attack might be in retaliation for NATO member Turkey's stand in the Gulf war. U.S. war planes have taken off from an airbase in Turkey to carry out bombing raids on Iraq.

''When I heard the huge explosion; I thought it was something related to the war; a bombing or something;'' said a man who lives near the facility. ''I rushed to the balcony and saw clouds of smoke.''

DevSol is an underground extreme leftist organization that played a major part in the wave of political terrorism that rocked Turkey in the 1970s. Hundreds of its members were captured after the 1980 military takeover; which was triggered by the political violence; and were put on trial.

Several members were executed. Others received long prison terms. Authorities expressed hope that the organization had been eradicated; but DevSol apparently has reorganized and has claimed responsibility for various terrorist acts in the past couple years.

Under a news blackout ordered by Premier Yildirim Akbulut, the television and the semi-official Anatolia news agency have been barred from reporting about Incirlik.

Turkish and U.S. officials here refuse to officially acknowledge the flights, although the Pentagon has confirmed them.

Journalists who had been watching Incirlik from the second floor of a nearby food market were chased away by Turkish soldiers on Sunday.

The journalists returned Monday, but were watched by plainclothes police.

Turkish journalists observing the planes from a cotton field near the base were also ordered to leave.

The government is trying to limit the news to prevent hostilities with Iraq, according to a government source, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Iraq's ambassador to Turkey, Rafi Daham Micvel, was quoted as telling Turkish newspapers that his country believed Turkey's assurances that Incirlik was not being used for attacks against Iraq.

His remarks suggested that Iraq and Turkey are attempting to save face about the U.S. missions.

Meanwhile, Interior Minister Abdulkadir Aksu announced that Turkey was prepared for a possible refugee influx from Iraq. Aksu said up to 200,000 Iraqis might arrive in coming days.

Only a few dozen Iraqi soldiers and civilians have arrived since the outbreak of the Gulf war.

The refugees have told Turkish officials that about 50,000 Iraqis are waiting a few miles (kilometers) from the heavily militarized border to enter Turkey, said the deputy governor of Diyarbakir, Ozcan Erdogan, in a telephone interview.

In another development, the military said Turkish planes had been conducting training missions near the border.

The chief of staff office said a plane accidentally dropped a bomb on the Turkish side on Sunday. No injuries were reported.

ON MONDAY, MORE THAN 30 U.S. BOMBERS AND TRANSPORT PLANES ARRIVED AT THE INCIRLIK NATO BASE NEAR THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA AT 11:55 A.M. (0955 GMT). HOWEVER, IT WAS NOT CLEAR WHETHER THEY WERE RETURNING FROM A MISSION IN NORTHERN IRAQ OR WERE NEW ARRIVALS.

U.S. AIRCRAFT HAVE ALREADY MADE ABOUT 300 SORTIES OUT OF THE GIANT BASE SINCE FRIDAY.

A NEWSPAPER REPORTED MONDAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERING ALLOWING THE U.S. PLANES TO ALSO USE BASES IN DIYARBAKIR AND MALATYA, CLOSER TO IRAQ, FOR ATTACKS.

THE DAILY, CUMHURIYET, REPORTED THAT A TURKISH BASE IN SOUTHEASTERN BATMAN TOWNSHIP WAS ALREADY BEING USED BY U.S. AIRCRAFT FOR LOGISTICS. THE REPORT COULD NOT BE CONFIRMED.

^IRAN'S ENVOY CALLS FOR PULLOUT BY IRAQ AND ALLIED FORCES<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - AN IRANIAN ENVOY ON MONDAY CALLED FOR THE PULLOUT OF IRAQI TROOPS FROM KUWAIT AND THE WITHDRAWAL OF U.S.-LED MULTINATIONAL FORCES IN THE GULF.

ALLIREZA MOAYYERI, ADVISER TO IRANIAN PRESIDENT HASHEMI RAFSANJANI, SAID HIS TRIP WAS PART OF IRANIAN PEACE EFFORTS.

@@IRAQ HAS TO PULL OUT OF KUWAIT, AND THE MULTINATIONAL FORCES SHOULD DO THE SAME,'' HE TOLD REPORTERS BEFORE LEAVING ANKARA.

IRAN FOUGHT AN EIGHT-YEAR-LONG WAR WITH NEIGHBORING IRAQ UNTIL 1988. IT HAS CONDEMNED IRAQ'S OCCUPATION OF KUWAIT, BUT ALSO DISAPROVES OF THE PRESENCE OF FOREIGN FORCES IN THE REGION.

MOAYYERI DID NOT SPECIFY WHAT CHANGES HE WAS REFERRING TO. TURKEY HAS EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT A POSSIBLE POST-WAR SCENARIO WOULD INCLUDE A KURDISH STATE IN A WEAKENED IRAQ, AND HAS SAID IT WOULD WANT TO HAVE A PLACE AT THE NEGOTIATING TABLE.

BOTH TURKEY AND IRAN HAVE FACED TROUBLE FROM SEPARATIST KURDS WHO ENVISION A STATE CARVED OUT OF PARTS OF TURKEY, IRAN, AND IRAQ.

MOAYYERI SAID HIS COUNTRY AND TURKEY SHARED SIMILAR VIEWS ON MANY ISSUES BUT DIFFERED ON OTHERS, NOTING TURKEY HAS NATO OBLIGATIONS.

ANKARA HAS ALLOWED U.S. WARPLANES TO TAKE OFF FROM ITS INCIRLIK AIR BASE FOR BOMBING RAIDS ON IRAQ. THE ACT HAS ALARMED MANY TURKS WHO FEAR THEIR COUNTRY MAY BE DRAWN INTO A WAR WITH IRAQ.

IT HAS ALSO UPSET SOME ARAB STATES, AMONG THEM LIBYA AND MOROCCO WHO WARNED TURKEY AGAINST BECOMING INVOLVED IN THE WAR.

PRIME MINISTER YILDIRIM AKBULUT REPEATEDLY HAS SAID HIS COUNTRY WOULD NOT ATTACK IRAQ.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - A GROUP OF OPPOSITION PARLIAMENTARY DEPUTIES RAIDED THE OFFICE OF THE STATE-OWNED TELEVISION STATION'S PRESIDENT TUESDAY TO PROTEST CENSORSHIP OF NEWS ABOUT TURKEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE GULF WAR.

TURKISH RADIO AND TELEVISON CUT ITS REGULAR NEWS BROADCAST TO SHOW TAPED FILM OF THE INCIDENT IN WHICH ABOUT 20 DEPUTIES OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRAT POPULIST PARTY BARGED INTO THE ROOM AND PUSHED THE PRESIDENT'S SECRETARY AROUND.

THE PRESIDENT, KEREM AYDIN ERDEM, WAS NOT THERE AT THE TIME. WHEN HE CAME IN LATER, THE DEPUTIES TOLD HIM THEY WERE THERE TO PROTEST CENSORING NEWS ABOUT TURKEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE GULF WAR, SPECIFICALLY ABOUT THE USE OF A STRATEGIC AIRBASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY FOR RAIDS AGAINST IRAQ BY U.S, WARPLANES.

ERDEM TOLD THE DEPUTIES THAT HE WAS DOING HIS DUTY.

THE STATE STATION HAS INTERRUPTED ITS AIRING OF THE U.S. NETWORK CNN'S COVERAGE OF THE GULF WHEN A STORY ABOUT TURKEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE CRISIS COMES UP.

THE U.S. USE OF INCIRLIK AIR BASE FOR RAIDS AGAINST IRAQ HAS DRAWN WIDESPREAD CRITICISM IN THIS COUNTRY. MANY PEOPLE FEAR THE POLICY WILL PROVOKE A RETALIATION FROM IRAQ AND MAY DRAG TURKEY INTO A WAR WITH ITS ARAB NEIGHBOR.

TURKEY, A NATO MEMBER, WON APPROVAL FROM PARLIAMENT FOR EXPANDED USE OF ITS AIR BASES, AND U.S. WAR PLANES HAVE RUN MORE THAN 300 SORTIES AGAINST IRAQ FROM INCIRLIK.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE RUSHED IN PANIC TO A SHELTER IN THE CITY, WITNESSES SAID. ADANA IS LOCATED NEAR THE STRATEGIC INCIRLIK BASE, USED BY U.S. WARPLANES BOMBING TARGETS IN NORTHERN IRAQ, WITNESSES SAID.
A U.S. SPOKESMAN AT THE AIR BASE, LT. COL. DICK SHEFFIELD, SAID THE ALERT WAS SOUNDED WHEN THE LAUNCH OF AN IRAQI MISSILE WAS DETECTED. THE ALL-CLEAR SIREN WENT ON WHEN OFFICIALS DISCOVERED THE MISSILE WAS HEADED FOR TEL AVIV, ISRAEL.
THE GOVERNOR OF ADANA, RECEP BIRSIN OZEN, GAVE A SIMILAR EXPLANATION.
AN IRAQI MISSILE HIT A TEL AVIV NEIGHBORHOOD TUESDAY EVENING AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME SIRENS BLARED IN ADANA. SEVERAL OTHER IRAQI ROCKETS LAUNCHED AT ISRAEL WERE INTERCEPTED BY PATRIOT AIR-DEFENSE MISSILES.
THE USE OF INCIRLIK FOR U.S. WARPLANES ATTACKING IRAQ HAS RAISED FEAR AMONG RESIDENTS THAT IRAQ MAY RETALIATE.

^GULF-TURKEY-DIVIDED POLICY, 1ST ADD,0276<
^ANKARA: DAILY CUMHURIYET,<
OZAL HAS COUNTERED THAT TURKEY STANDS TO GAIN ENORMOUSLY FROM THE GULF CRISIS. HE IS KNOWN TO EXPECT INCREASES IN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID FROM THE UNITED STATES, A LARGER FOREIGN INVESTMENT FLOW AND A BIGGER SAY FOR TURKEY IN MIDEAST AFFAIRS.

HE HAS ALSO SAID NEUTRALITY IN THIS CASE WOULD BE COSTLY. OZAL HAS DESCRIBED NEIGHBORING IRAQ AS AN AGGRESSIVE COUNTRY THAT COULD ONE DAY CAUSE PROBLEMS FOR TURKEY AS WELL, ESPECIALLY OVER THE SHARING OF THE WATERS OF THE EUPHRATES AND TIGRIS RIVERS.

OZAL, A TRUE BELIEVER IN HIGH TECHNOLOGY, APPEARS TO HAVE NO DOUBTS THAT THE MASSIVE U.S. FORCE IN THE GULF WILL VANQUISH IRAQI PRESIDENT SADDAM HUSSEIN.

WHEN A PEACE CONFERENCE CONVENES AFTER THE WAR, OZAL SAYS TURKEY SHOULD HAVE A SEAT AT THAT TABLE IN ORDER TO PREVENT DISMEMBERMENT OF IRAQ AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A KURDISH STATE NEAR THE BORDER IRAQ AND TURKEY SHARE. TURKEY HAS AN INCREASINGLY RESTIVE KURDISH MINORITY OF 10 MILLION PEOPLE. IRAQ HAS BEEN ACCUSED OF USING CHEMICAL WEAPONS AGAINST ITS REBELLIOUS KURDS.

SOMEWHERE BETWEEN OZAL AND HIS CRITICS IS THE PUBLIC AT LARGE, CURRENTLY OPPOSED TO WAR BUT NOT SO CRITICAL OF OZAL'S GULF POLICY.

A RECENT MOTHERLAND PARTY POLL SHOWED 74 PERCENT OF RESPONDENTS OPPOSED TO TURKEY'S ENTERING A GULF WAR BUT 46 PERCENT SUPPORTING OZAL'S HANDLING OF THE AFFAIR SO FAR.

IF TURKEY SURVIVES THE CRISIS WITH LITTLE DAMAGE AND SOME OF THE GAINS OZAL IS HOPING FOR, THE MOTHERLAND PARTY COULD LOOK TOWARD ANOTHER ELECTION VICTORY IN ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR 1992, OPPOSITION POLITICIANS FEAR.

^GULF CRISIS TEARS APART NATIONAL CONSENSUS ON FOREIGN POLICY< ^AN AP BACKGROUND REPORT<
^BY EMEL ANIL<
^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE GULF WAR HAS TORN APART A NATIONAL CONSENSUS ON TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY THAT HAD ENDURED SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE REPUBLIC 68 YEARS AGO.

GONE IS THE ALMOST UNANIMOUS SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT ENJOYED WHEN TURKEY INVADED NORTHERN CYPRUS IN 1974 BECAUSE IT SAID IT HAD TO PROTECT THE TURKISH MINORITY ON THE MEDITERRANEAN ISLAND.

THIS TIME, ON ONE SIDE OF A DEEP NATIONAL DIVIDE IS PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL WHO HAS BEEN PUSHING FOR ACTIVE INVOLVEMENT FOR TURKEY AS AN ALLY OF THE UNITED STATES. SO FAR, HIS VIEW HAS PREVAILED, THANKS TO THE LARGE PARLIAMENTARY MAJORITY OF THE GOVERNING MOTHERLAND PARTY HE FOUNDED.

TURKEY IS PROVIDING VITAL SUPPORT FOR THE U.S.-LED FORCES ARRAYED AGAINST IRAQ BY ALLOWING THEM TO USE A STRATEGIC AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY. SINCE FRIDAY MORNING, U.S. WARPLANES TAKING OFF FROM INCIRLIK HAVE BEEN POUNDING TARGETS IN IRAQ.

BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF WAR, TURKEY ALSO PLAYED A KEY ROLE IN THE ENFORCEMENT OF U.N. ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AGAINST IRAQ. TURKS CUT OFF TWO IRAQI PIPELINES PUMPING CRUDE THROUGH THIS COUNTRY AND BANNED ALL BILATERAL AND TRANSIT TRADE.

LINED UP AGAINST OZAL ARE OPPOSITION PARTIES, MOST NEWSPAPER COMMENTATORS, AND MEMBERS OF TURKEY'S POWERFUL MILITARY AND CIVILIAN ESTABLISHMENT.

THEY HAVEN'T BEEN ABLE TO DICTATE A MORE NEUTRAL POLICY, BUT, TO A CERTAIN EXTENT, THEY HAVE RESTRAINED OZAL'S HAND.

@@IF IT WERE ONLY UP TO ME, I WOULD HAVE SENT TROOPS TO THE GULF,'' OZAL DISCLOSED IN AN INTERVIEW ON TURKISH TELEVISION FRIDAY EVENING.

IT IS HARD TO TELL WHERE OPPOSITION TO OZAL'S DOMESTIC POLICIES AND HIS HEAVY-HANDED STYLE OF GOVERNMENT ENDS, AND ACTUAL DIFFERENCES ON GULF POLICY BEGIN. STILL, THERE ARE SOME CLEAR POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT ON THE GULF.

THE GOVERNMENT, HEADED BY OZAL'S LOYAL SUPPORTER YILDIRIM AKBULUT, HAS BEEN CRITICIZED FOR RISKING AN IRAQI CHEMICAL WEAPONS ATTACK WITHOUT TAKING MEASURES TO PROTECT THE CIVILIAN POPULATION. THERE ARE FEW SHELTERS OR GAS MASKS IN THE SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCES MOST VULNERABLE TO ATTACK. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS HAVE LEFT THE REGION.

OZAL HAS RUSHED HEADLONG INTO MAJOR FOREIGN POLICY CHANGES -- SUCH AS JETTISONING TRADITIONAL RELUCTANCE TO GET INVOLVED IN INTER-ARAB SQUABBLES -- FOR DUBIOUS RETURNS, CRITICS HAVE CHARGED.

OPPONENTS MAINTAIN THE NEW POLICIES HAVE WRECKED DECADES-LONG EFFORTS TO NORMALIZE TIES WITH DISTRUSTFUL ARAB NEIGHBORS ONCE RULED BY THE OTTOMAN TURKS.

@@WHAT IS OZAL'S POLICY? IT IS ONE-DIMENSIONAL, DEPENDENT ONLY ON THE UNITED STATES,'' HASAN CEMAL WROTE ON MONDAY IN THE LIBERAL DAILY CUMHURIYET.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE UNITED STATES HAS BEGUN USING A SECOND BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY IN CONNECTION WITH WAR OPERATIONS IN NEIGHBORING IRAQ, A FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID WEDNESDAY.
THE UNITED STATES HAS SENT A MILITARY SEARCH-AND-RESCUE TEAM TO THE AIR BASE AT BATMAN IN SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY, SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR TOLD A WEEKLY NEWS BRIEFING.
THE TEAM ARRIVED A FEW DAYS AGO, HE SAID, WITHOUT PROVIDING ANY DETAILS.
A MILITARY SPOKESMAN AT THE TURKISH CHIEF OF STAFF'S OFFICE HERE SAID THE TEAM WOULD BE USED FOR HUMANITARIAN PURPOSES IN MILITARY MISSIONS IN IRAQ.
U.S. OFFICIALS AT THE MAIN TURKISH-U.S. BASE IN INCIRLIK SAID THEY COULD GIVE NO IMMEDIATE INFORMATION ABOUT THE FORCES AT BATMAN.
TURKISH NEWSPAPERS REPORTED THAT 20 U.S. COBRA HELICOPTERS ARRIVED AT BATMAN IN RECENT DAYS TO REINFORCE THE SEARCH-AND-RESCUE OPERATIONS.
U.S. JETFIGHTERS HAVE BEEN USING THE STRATEGIC INCIRLIK BASE IN THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA AS A STAGING AREA FOR BOMBING MISSIONS IN IRAQ SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF WAR.
SULEYMAN DEMIREL, FORMER PREMIER AND LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION TRUE PATH PARTY, SAID WEDNESDAY THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTER TOLD HIM ONLY MILITARY TARGETS WERE BEING BOMBED IN NORTHERN IRAQ.
U.S. AND TURKISH OFFICIALS HAVE CONFIRMED THAT THE BASE IS BEING USED FOR AMERICAN BOMBING FLIGHTS BUT THEY REFUSE TO GIVE DETAILS ON THE MISSIONS.
ACCORDING TO AN UNOFFICIAL COUNT BY REPORTERS, THE U.S. BOMBERS HAVE MADE AT LEAST 400 SORTIES OUT OF INCIRLIK.
AROUND 75 U.S. PLANES INCLUDING BOMBERS AND SUPPORT AIRCRAFT WERE SEEN TAKING OFF FROM INCIRLIK STARTING AT ABOUT 2 P.M. (1200 GMT) WEDNESDAY. EARLIER, MORE THAN 50 U.S. PLANES LEFT THE BASE AND RETURNED AFTER ABOUT THREE HOURS.
A PATRIOT MISSILE WAS LAUNCHED BY MISTAKE TUESDAY AND SELF-DESTRUCTED ABOVE INCIRLIK, OFFICIALS SAID. AIR RAID SIRENS CAUSED PANIC IN THE CITY THE SAME EVENING, BUT OFFICIALS SAID THEY WERE TRIGGERED BY AN ATTACK ON ISRAEL.
AN 8-YEAR-OLD BOY WAS SEVERELY INJURED WHEN A PIECE OF MISSILE FELL ON HIS HEAD AT A PLAYGROUND. AN OFFICIAL AT THE CUKUROVA MEDICAL SCHOOL HOSPITAL IN ADANA SAID THE BOY REMAINED IN CRITICAL CONDITION WEDNESDAY.
THE UNITED STATES AND THE NETHERLANDS HAVE RECENTLY SENT THE SOPHISTICATED PATRIOT MISSILES TO TURKEY TO GUARD AGAINST POSSIBLE AGGRESSION FROM IRAQ.
THE MISSILES WERE DEPLOYED AT INCIRLIK AND DIYARBAKIR, THE SITE OF A MILITARY AIRPORT WHERE A NATO UNIT COMPOSED OF BELGIAN FLIERS IS BASED. GERMAN AND ITALIAN AIR FORCE PILOTS BELONGING TO THE NATO FORCE HELPING DEFEND TURKEY ARE AT A BASE IN THE CITY OF MALATYA.
A DUTCH OFFICER TOLD REPORTERS IN DIYARBAKIR THAT 40 PATRIOTS HAD BEEN DEPLOYED IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CITY, THE DAILY MILLIYET REPORTED. THE NUMBER OF PATRIOTS AT INCIRLIK WAS NOT DISCLOSED.
DEV SOL (REVOLUTIONARY LEFT), A MARXIST UNDERGROUND GROUP, CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE BOMBING WEDNESDAY OF THE OFFICES OF TWO U.S. ORGANIZATIONS. THE BLASTS INJURED ONE TURKISH WOMAN AND DAMAGED THE BUILDINGS.

^EDS: UPDATES WITH LEFTIST GROUP CLAIMING RESPONSIBILITY FOR BOMBINGS, U.S. FLAG BURNED<

ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - BOMBS EXPLODED AT THE OFFICES OF TWO U.S. ORGANIZATIONS WEDNESDAY MORNING, SLIGHTLY INJURING A TURKISH WOMAN AND CAUSING EXTENSIVE DAMAGE, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

DEV SOL (REVOLUTIONARY LEFT), AN EXTREME LEFTIST UNDERGROUND GROUP, CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR BOTH ATTACKS.

THE SAME GROUP HAD ALSO CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR TUESDAY'S BOMB BLASTS AT A NATO MAINTENANCE FACILITY IN ISTANBUL.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE EXPRESSED FEARS OF TERRORIST ATTACKS. TURKEY HAS ALLOWED THE USE OF A STRATEGIC AIR BASE NEAR THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA BY U.S. WARPLANES BOMBING NORTHERN IRAQ.

THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY SAID THE FIRST EXPLOSION WEDNESDAY OCCURRED AT THE OFFICES OF THE AMERICAN BOARD, A MISSIONARY GROUP THAT HAS BEEN RUNNING SCHOOLS AND A PUBLISHING HOUSE IN TURKEY SINCE THE 19TH CENTURY.

A GROUP OFFICIAL, WHO SPOKE ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID THREE PEOPLE DISARMED AND TIED UP A POLICEMAN AND A GUARD AT THE ENTRANCE AND WALKED UP TO THE FOURTH FLOOR. THERE, THEY BOUND EMPLOYEES, PLANTED AN EXPLOSIVE DEVICE AND LEFT, HE SAID.

THE OFFICIAL SAID A TURKISH WOMAN EMPLOYED BY THE MISSIONARY GROUP WAS SLIGHTLY INJURED IN THE BLAST. THE EXPLOSION KNOCKED DOWN SOME WALLS AND BLEW OUT WINDOWS, HE SAID.

THE TWO OTHER EMPLOYEES WERE TAKEN TO THE POLICE STATION TO IDENTIFY SEVERAL SUSPECTS DETAINED AFTER THE INCIDENT.

THE SECOND BLAST CAME 10 MINUTES LATER AT THE OFFICES OF THE TURKISH AGENT OF ABS, AN AMERICAN SHIPPING COMPANY, CAUSING DAMAGE, ANATOLIA REPORTED.

THE ATTACKERS TIED UP PEOPLE IN THE BUILDING AND PLANTED AN EXPLOSIVE THAT WENT OFF AFTER THEY LEFT, THE DISPATCH SAID.

A REPORTER AT THE SCENE SAID THEY LEFT BEHIND HANDBILLS SIGNED DEV SOL.

LATER, ANONYMOUS CALLERS TO LOCAL NEWSPAPER OFFICES CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY IN THE NAME OF DEV SOL FOR BOTH ATTACKS. ANATOLIA QUOTED THE CALLERS AS SAYING THE TWO AMERICAN ORGANIZATIONS BOMBED EARLIER WERE FRONTS FOR THE CIA (CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY) IN OUR COUNTRY. WE WANT THE UNITED STATES TO TAKE ITS HANDS OFF THE MIDDLE EAST.''

THE OUTLAWED DEV SOL HAS BEEN CARRYING OUT ATTACKS IN TURKEY SINCE THE 1970S.

IN IZMIR'S BUCA TOWNSHIP, ANATOLIA SAID, ABOUT 11 SUPPORTERS OF TURKEY'S SOCIALIST PARTY BURNED AN AMERICAN FLAG TO PROTEST AN INCIDENT IN WHICH TWO PEOPLE WERE FIRED UPON BY TURKISH SOLDIERS SOMETIME BACK WHEN THEY GOT TOO CLOSE TO A NATO INSTALLATION AND DID NOT HEED ORDERS TO HALT. THE REPORT GAVE NO FURTHER DETAILS.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - A PATRIOT MISSILE WAS LAUNCHED BY MISTAKE TUESDAY AND SELF-DESTRUCTED ABOVE A STRATEGIC AIR BASE USED BY U.S. PLANES TO CARRY OUT BOMBING MISSIONS AGAINST IRAQ, A MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID.

THE 1-MILLION-DOLLAR SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILE BLEW UP NEAR THE INCIRLIK BASE, CAUSING NO INJURIES, SAID LT. COL. HASAN KESEBIR, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE TURKISH MILITARY CHIEF OF STAFF'S OFFICE IN ANKARA.

THE PATRIOT SHOT INTO THE SKY JUST AFTER A U.S. PLANE COMING IN FOR A LANDING AT THE BASE DROPPED TWO FLAMING OBJECTS, WITNESSES SAID. OFFICIALS SAID THEY HAD NO INFORMATION ON WHAT THE OBJECTS WERE OR WHETHER THEY WERE RELATED TO THE PATRIOT LAUNCH.

THE FIRING OF THE MISSILE PROMPTED PANIC AND ANGER IN A CROWDED TURKISH NEIGHBORHOOD NEAR THE JOINT TURKISH-AMERICAN BASE OUTSIDE THE CITY OF ADANA. SOME RESIDENTS SAID THEY THOUGHT THE SHOT MARKED TURKEY'S ENTRY INTO THE GULF WAR.

RENZI GONULTAS, A BAKER, SAID HE WAS WORKING BESIDE HIS OVEN WHEN HE FELT A STRONG TREMOR AND HEARD AN EXPLOSION.

"I WENT OUT. I WAS SURE THE WAR HAD BEGUN. IT WAS TERRIBLE," HE SAID. "THEN I LOOKED UP AND SAW A WHITE CLOUD" WHERE THE MISSILE EXPLODED.

THE TURKISH MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID THAT DURING A ROUTINE CHECK, THE PATRIOT MISSILE'S MECHANISMS HAD GOTTEN LOCKED AND IT WAS ACCIDENTALLY FIRED AT 1:09 P.M. (1109 GMT).

A U.S. MILITARY SPOKESMAN AT INCIRLIK READ A STATEMENT SAYING "A PATRIOT MISSILE SELF-DESTRUCTED AFTER IT WAS LAUNCHED TODAY." HE ADDED THAT AN INVESTIGATION WAS UNDER WAY AND NO FURTHER DETAILS WERE AVAILABLE.

U.S. PLANES HAVE BEEN RUNNING MISSIONS FROM TURKEY INTO NEIGHBORING IRAQ SINCE FRIDAY. AUTHORITIES HAVE DECLINED TO GIVE DETAILS ABOUT THEM.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) - Bombs exploded Wednesday in the buildings of two organizations with U.S. links, slightly injuring one Turkish employee and causing extensive damage, officials and news reports said.

The first explosion occured at 9:05 a.m. (0705 GMT) at the offices of the American Board, a missionary group that has been running schools and a publishing house here since the 19th century.

An official for the Board, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the assailants had disarmed and tied up a guard and a policeman at the entrance and then walked up to the fourth floor. There, they bound three employees, planted an explosive device and left, he said.

A Turkish woman, Tulin Cember, was injured slightly in the blast, the official said. The explosion knocked down some walls and blew out windows, he said.

The two other employees were taken to the police station to identify several suspects detained after the incident.

No one claimed responsibility for the attack.

The second explosion came 10 minutes later in the offices of the Turkish agent of an American shipping company, ABS, causing damage, the semi-official Anatolia news agency reported.

The attakers tied up people at the building and placed an explosive which went off after they left, the dispatch said.

The attackers left behind handbills signed DEV SOL (Revolutionary Left), an extreme leftist Turkish underground group that has been carrying out attacks since the 1970s, according to a reporter at the scene. The handbills said the bombing was to protest Turkey's involvement in the Gulf war.

Turkey has allowed the use of a strategic air base near the southern city of Adana by U.S. warplanes bombing northern Iraq.

On Tuesday, bombs exploded at a NATO maintenance facility in Istanbul. DEV SOL also claimed responsibility for that attack.

Officials have expressed fears of terrorist attacks in Turkey because of the Gulf war. Turkey has adopted a staunch pro-U.S. stand.

^Eds: UPDATES WITH STATEMENT THAT NO DAMAGE DONE; OTHER DETAILS.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Two Patriot missiles were fired from an air base in southeastern Turkey on Thursday, but authorities exploded them after realizing there was no threat in the area, an official said.

The Dutch-owned missiles were fired from the Diyarbakir base ''following a computer-indicated attack by tactical ballistic missiles,'' a spokesman for the Dutch air force said. He added that ''none (of the ballistic missiles) were in the air space in reality.''

The nature of the error was not immediately clear, he said.

The missiles blasted into the sky at about 10:10 a.m. (0810) and were blown up using a built-in security mechanism, said the Dutch spokesman at Diyarbakir, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

It was not immediately clear whether or how the computer erred in detecting a missile, he said. An investigation was under way, he said.

A statement from the Allied Forces Press Center in Diyarbakir said the missiles caused no damage.

Last Tuesday, a U.S. Patriot missile was fired by mistake at the Incirlik air base in southern Turkey. It self-destructed near the joint Turkish-American base. A falling piece of the missile seriously injured an 8-year-old Turkish boy.

That evening, an air raid alarm sounded briefly. It was caused computers picking up a missile attack on Israel, officials said.

Incirlik has been used by U.S. warplanes running bombing missions into Iraq. The Turkish base at Diyarbakir is home to a unit of Belgian fliers who belong to a special NATO unit sent to Turkey to enhance the country's defense during war in neighboring Iraq. Italian and German fliers are at another base in southeastern Turkey.

There are 40 Patriot missiles at Diyarbakir supplied by the Netherlands, the spokesman said. An unspecified number of other Patriots sent by the United States are at Incirlik.

The powerful surface-to-air missiles have been highly effective in shooting down Iraqi Scud missiles fired at Saudi Arabia and Israel.

DIYARBAKIR, TURKEY (AP) - POLICE USED TEAR GAS AND OPENED FIRE IN THE AIR TO BREAK UP ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATIONS IN SEVERAL TURKISH CITIES FRIDAY, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

IN ISTANBUL, PROTESTERS BURNED AMERICAN AND ISRAELI FLAGS.

PEOPLE LEAVING MOSQUES AFTER FRIDAY PRAYERS STAGED ANTI-WAR RALLIES IN BINGOL, 130 KILOMETERS (80 MILES) NORTH OF DIYARBAKIR, AND BATMAN, 85 KILOMETERS (50 MILES) TO THE EAST, ANATOLIA SAID. THE DEMONSTRATORS SHOUTED ANTI-AMERICAN AND ANTI-ISRAEL SLOGANS.

WHEN THE DEMONSTRATORS REFUSED TO DISPERSE AFTER WARNINGS, POLICE FIRED TEAR GAS AND SHOTS IN THE AIR, THE REPORT SAID. NO INJURIES WERE REPORTED.

IN BINGOL, 45 PEOPLE WERE ARRESTED, PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR M. BAHRETTIN DEMIRER SAID.

IN BATMAN, EIGHT PEOPLE, INCLUDING THE POLICE CHIEF AND HIS DEPUTY, WERE INJURED IN SKIRMISHES BETWEEN THE PROTESTERS AND SECURITY FORCES, ANATOLIA SAID. FORTY PEOPLE WERE REPORTED ARRESTED.

IN THE MEDITERRANEAN PORT CITY OF MERSIN, IN THE SOUTH, DEMONSTRATORS WEARING SHROUDS EMBLAZONED WITH DRAWINGS OF SKULLS AND THE WORDS @@NO TO WAR'' PROTESTED THE GULF WAR, ACCORDING TO ANATOLIA.

THE AGENCY SAID A LOCAL OFFICIAL OF THE OPPOSITION SOCIAL DEMOCRAT POPULIST PARTY, ALI ERDINC, TOLD THE AUDIENCE THAT THE NATION DID NOT WANT WAR BUT THAT THE PARTY IN POWER WAS DRAGGING THE COUNNRY TOWARDS THE CONFLICT.

IN ANKARA, A GROUP OF FUNDAMENTALIST WOMEN GATHERED AT A MOSQUE AFTER FRIDAY PRAYERS AND INVITED PEOPLE TO SIGN A PETITION PROTESTING THE GULF WAR. ANATOLIA SAID POLICE ARRESTED THREE OF THE WOMEN.

IN ISTANBUL, A GROUP OF ABOUT 2,000 PEOPLE LEAVING SULTAN AHMET MOSQUE, ALSO KNOWN AS THE BLUE MOSQUE, MARCHED DOWN THE MAIN ROAD, CHANTING @@GOD IS GREAT'' AND SHOUTING ANTI-AMERICAN AND ANTI-ISRAEL SLOGANS.

RIOT POLICE DISPERSED THE PROTESTERS AND THERE WERE NO REPORTED INCIDENTS.

TEN PEOPLE WERE REPORTED ARRESTED IN A SIMILAR MARCH OUTSIDE ANOTHER ISTANBUL MOSQUE.

IN THE CENTRAL ANATOLIAN CITY OF KAYSERI, 38 PROTESTERS WERE ARRESTED, KAYSERI POLICE CHIEF HASAN YUCESAN SAID.

TURKEY, THE ONLY NATO NATION BORDERING IRAQ, HAS ALLOWED USE OF ITS AIRBASES BY AMERICAN WARPLANES TO ATTACK TARGETS IN IRAQ. SOME TURKS FEAR THE COUNTRY WILL BE BROUGHT DIRECTLY INTO THE CONFLICT.

^EDS: UPDATES WITH GOVERNMENT RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN PRESS<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY ON MONDAY IMPOSED RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN PRESS COVERAGE OF ALLIED MILITARY OPERATIONS CONNECTED TO THE GULF WAR.

THE NEW LIMITATIONS, ALREADY REQUIRED OF LOCAL NEWSPAPERS, ASK THE FOREIGN PRESS CORPS NOT TO PROVIDE DETAILS OF TROOP MOVEMENTS OR THE LOCATION AND TYPE OF AIRCRAFT.

THE PRESS RULES ARE AIMED AT PROTECTING @@THE SECURITY OF JOINT DEFENSE INSTALLATIONS SUPPORTING THE MULTINATIONAL FORCE IN OPERATION AGAINST IRAQ,'' A GOVERNMENT STATEMENT SAID.

TURKEY ALLOWS THE USE OF ITS AIR BASES BY U.S.-LED ALLIED FORCES. SINCE THE START OF THE GULF WAR, U.S. WARPLANES HAVE CARRIED OUT MORE THAN 300 BOMBING SORTIES AGAINST IRAQ FROM THE INCIRLIK AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY.

UNDER THE RESTRICTIONS, THE FOREIGN PRESS ARE PERMITTED TO REFER ONLY IN GENERAL TERMS TO THE NUMBER AND FUNCTION OF AIRCRAFT, TANKS AND ARTILLERY.

@@INFORMATION REGARDING TYPE OF AIRCRAFT AND LANDING AND TAKE-OFF POINTS MUST NOT BE TRANSMITTED,'' THE STATEMENT SAID. IN ADDITION, PHOTOS OF DEPLOYED FORCES MUST NOT SPECIFY THEIR LOCATION.

THE U.S. AIRCRAFT SORTIES WERE METICULOUSLY REPORTED FOR THE FIRST FEW DAYS OF THEIR MISSION. SOON AFTER THE WAR BEGAN, LOCAL AND FOREIGN REPORTERS WERE NOT ALLOWED NEAR THE INCILRIK AIRBASE, AND COVERAGE OF THE BOMBING RAIDS BECAME MORE DIFFICULT.

THE GOVERNMENT HAD ASKED LOCAL NEWSPAPERS TO LIMIT THEIR REPORTING ON INCIRLIK ACTIVITIES, AND BARRRED STATE TELEVISION AND THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY FROM REPORTING ABOUT INCIRLIK AND ABOUT THE 180,000 TURKISH TROOPS DEPLOYED NEAR THE BORDER WITH IRAQ.

THE USE OF INCIRLIK HAS RAISED FEARS IN TURKEY THAT IRAQ MAY RETALIATE, DRAGGING ANKARA INTO THE GULF WAR. IT HAS ALSO BEEN BEHIND A NUMBER OF TERRORIST BOMBINGS AGAINST AMERICAN AND ALLIED FORCES INTERESTS IN ISTANBUL, ANKARA AND THE SOUTHERN TOWN OF ADANA. DEV SOL, AN EXTREME LEFT-WING ORGANIZATION CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR MOST OF THE ATTACKS WHICH LEFT DAMAGE BUT NO CASUALTIES.

MEANWHILE, A STATE SECURITY COURT BANNED THE DISTRIBUTION OF A LEFTIST WEEKLY BECAUSE OF AN ANTI-WAR COLUMN AND ORDERED AN INVESTIGATION OF THE EDITORS, A JOURNALIST SAID MONDAY.

GULF-TURKEY-KURDS

^BAN ON KURDISH LANGUAGE TO BE LIFTED<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO LIFT A BAN ON THE PUBLIC USE OF THE KURDISH LANGUAGE IN WHAT COULD BE THE FIRST STEP TOWARD RECOGNIZING THE ETHNIC RIGHTS OF TURKEY'S INCREASINGLY RESTIVE KURDISH POPULATION.

MEHMET YAZAR, THE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN, TOLD REPORTERS AFTER A LATE-NIGHT CABINET SESSION FRIDAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD INTRODUCE LEGISLATION IN THE PARLIAMENT SOON ON THIS SENSITIVE ISSUE.

HE SAID THE BAN IMPOSED BY THE FORMER MILITARY GOVERNMENT IN 1983 WAS @@AN UNREALISTIC RESTRICTION OUT OF LINE WITH THE ACTUAL SITUATION AND IMPOSSIBLE TO ENFORCE.''

THE DECISION COMES AS KURDS IN IRAQ VOICE EXPECTATIONS FOR SOME FORM OF AUTONOMY AT THE END OF THE GULF WAR, A PROSPECT THAT COULD ENCOURAGE SIMILAR ASPIRATIONS AMONG TURKEY'S KURDS.

ALSO, PARLIAMENT SOURCES SAY, PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL HAS PROMISED DEPUTIES FROM SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY, THE KURDISH REGION, TO RELAX RESTRICTIONS ON THE KURDS IN RETURN FOR THEIR SUPPORT ON HIS GULF POLICY.

TURKEY'S KURDISH MINORITY IS ESTIMATED TO MAKE UP 10 MILLION OF THE TOTAL POPULATION OF 57 MILLION. THIS IS THE LARGEST CONCENTRATION OF KURDS, WHO ALSO LIVE IN NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES IRAN, IRAQ, SYRIA AND THE SOVIET UNION.

SINCE 1984, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN FIGHTING AGAINST KURDISH GUERRILLAS DEMANDING A SEPARATE HOMELAND.

ATTACKS BY THE GUERRILLAS, WHO ARE MEMBERS OF THE MARXIST KURDISH LABOR PARTY (PKK), HAVE ALMOST COME TO A STOP IN THE REGION FOLLOWING THE MASSING OF TROOPS ALONG THE FRONTIER WITH IRAQ AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF CRISIS.

THE PKK HAS ANNOUNCED THROUGH ITS REPRESENTATIVES IN EUROPE THAT THE GROUP IS AGAINST IRAQ'S SADDAM HUSSEIN IN THE CURRENT CONFLICT.

THE PKK ENJOYS LITTLE SUPPORT FROM THE KURDISH POPULATION IN TURKEY. BUT THE LEADERS OF THE MINORITY, INCLUDING MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT OF KURDISH ORIGIN, HAVE STARTED DEMANDING IN THE PAST YEAR SOME FORM OF CULTURAL AUTONOMY, INCLUDING PERMISSION TO USE THEIR LANGUAGE PUBLICLY.

SOME SINGERS HAVE BEEN PROSECUTED FOR SINGING SONGS IN KURDISH AND SEVERAL RESIDENTS IN THE SOUTHEAST HAVE BEEN JAILED FOR USING THE LANGUAGE IN OFFICIAL BUILDINGS.

THE KURDISH ISSUE HAS FIGURED PROMINENTLY IN THE FORMULATION OF OZAL'S GULF POLICY, WHICH HAS PLACED THIS NATO-MEMBER COUNTRY FIRMLY ON THE SIDE OF THE U.S.-LED ALLIANCE.

OZAL HAS ARGUED THAT TURKEY SHOULD HAVE A SAY IN A POST-WAR CONFERENCE ON THE MIDEAST IN ORDER TO PREVENT THE FOUNDATION OF AN INDEPENDENT KURDISH STATE IN NORTHERN IRAQ.

^THREE IRAQI SOLDIERS DEFECT<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THREE MORE IRAQI SOLDIERS HAVE DEFECTED TO TURKEY, OFFICIALS SAID SATURDAY.

AN OFFICIAL IN THE SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCE OF HAKKARI SAID THE THREE SOLDIERS DEFECTED FRIDAY NEAR CUKURCA DISTRICT AND WERE TAKEN TO THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT IN HAKKARI. HE HAD NO MORE DETAILS.

THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY QUOTED OFFICIALS AS SAYING HAKKARI WAS NOW HOUSING IN TEMPORARY SETTLEMENTS 37 IRAQIS, INCLUDING 21 SOLDIERS AND 16 CHILDREN, WHO HAVE ESCAPED THEIR COUNTRY SINCE THE GULF WAR BROKE OUT.

OFFICIALS FRIDAY SAID 18 IRAQI SOLDIERS, IN ADDITION TO TWO ELITE REPUBLICAN GUARDS, HAD DEFECTED TO HAKKARI SINCE THE GULF WAR BROKE OUT. THEY SAID 100 REFUGEES WERE WAITING TO CROSS OVER TO TURKEY.

IRAQ HAS SHUT THE ONLY OFFICIAL BORDER CROSSING AT HABUR, AND MANY OF THE SOLDIERS SAID THEY CROSSED OVER THE SNOWY MOUNTAINOUS FRONTIER ON FOOT, SOME WITH THEIR WIVES AND CHILDREN.

^Car Explodes at U.S. Consulate<
ADANA, Turkey (AP) - A car blew up in the parking lot of the U.S. Consulate in this southern Turkish city on Saturday, a consulate official said.
There was no immediate word on injuries or damage.
The official, speaking on condition of anonymity, said the blast was apparently caused by a bomb blowing up beneath the vehicle.
Outside the city of Adana is the joint Turkish-U.S. Incirlik base, which has been used by U.S. warplanes bombing Iraq in the Gulf war.
Security measures at U.S. facilities in Turkey have been stepped up in recent weeks because of fears of terrorist attacks. One NATO facility and two organizations with U.S. links in Istanbul have been bombed in the past week.

^Ban on Kurdish Language to Be Lifted(
ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - The government has decided to lift a ban on the public use of the Kurdish language in what could be the first step toward recognizing the ethnic rights of Turkey's increasingly restive Kurdish population.

Mehmet Yazar, the government spokesman, told reporters after a late-night Cabinet session Friday that the government would introduce legislation in the Parliament soon on this sensitive issue.

He said the ban imposed by the former military government in 1983 was ''an unrealistic restriction out of line with the actual situation and impossible to enforce.''

The decision comes as Kurds in Iraq voice expectations for some form of autonomy at the end of the Gulf war, a prospect that could encourage similar aspirations among Turkey's Kurds.

Also, parliament sources say, President Turgut Ozal has promised deputies from southeastern Turkey, the Kurdish region, to relax restrictions on the Kurds in return for their support on his Gulf policy.

Turkey's Kurdish minority is estimated to make up 10 million of the total population of 57 million. This is the largest concentration of Kurds, who also live in neighboring countries Iran, Iraq, Syria and the Soviet Union.

Since 1984, the government has been fighting against Kurdish guerrillas demanding a separate homeland.

Attacks by the guerrillas, who are members of the Marxist Kurdish Labor Party (PKK), have almost come to a stop in the region following the massing of troops along the frontier with Iraq after the outbreak of the Gulf crisis.

The PKK has announced through its representatives in Europe that the group is against Iraq's Saddam Hussein in the current conflict.

The PKK enjoys little support from the Kurdish population in Turkey. But the leaders of the minority, including members of parliament of Kurdish origin, have started demanding in the past year some form of cultural autonomy, including permission to use their language publicly.

Some singers have been prosecuted for singing songs in Kurdish and several residents in the southeast have been jailed for using the language in official buildings.

The Kurdish issue has figured prominently in the formulation of Ozal's Gulf policy, which has placed this NATO-member country firmly on the side of the U.S.-led alliance.

Ozal has argued that Turkey should have a say in a post-war conference on the Mideast in order to prevent the foundation of an independent Kurdish state in northern Iraq.

^TURKISH FOREIGN MINISTER RESPONDS TO GADHAFI(
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY ON MONDAY REJECTED LIBYAN CLAIMS THAT ANKARA HAS SPREADING THE GULF WAR BEYOND ITS BATTLE ZONE AND SAID LIBYAN LEADER MOAMMAR GADHAFI'S COMMENTS WERE MEANT TO PROVOKE TURKISH PUBLIC OPINION.

IN INTERVIEWS WITH TWO LEADING TURKISH DAILIES, GADHAFI WAS QUOTED AS CALLING ON THE TURKISH PEOPLE TO SHUT DOWN NATO BASES IN TURKEY AND TO CHANGE TURKEY'S PRO-WESTERN STANCE ON THE GULF WAR.

A STATEMENT BY MURAT SUNGAR, TURKEY'S FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN, ALSO REFUSED TO LINK HIS COUNTRY'S POLICY TO RELATIONS WITH OTHER COUNTRIES. HE WAS RESPONDING TO A THREAT BY GADHAFI TO CUT TIES WITH TURKEY BECAUSE OF ITS POLICY TOWARD IRAQ.

LIBYA HAS CONDEMNED IRAQ'S INVASION AND OCCUPATION OF KUWAIT, BUT HAS ALSO DENOUNCED THE INVOLVEMENT OF WESTERN TROOPS.

''THE LIBYAN LEADER SHOULD HAVE EVALUATED THE MATTER MORE OBJECTIVELY,'' SUNGAR SAID. ''THE PARTY THAT IS PROVOKING THE CRISIS WITHOUT DOUBT IS THE COUNTRY WHICH HAS INVADED AND ANNEXED THE TERRITORY OF A NEIGHBOR, VIOLATING INTERNATIONAL LAW.

''ITS NOT POSSIBLE TO CONSIDER THE GULF CRISIS AS A PURELY ARAB MATTER.''

APPARENTLY REFERING TO GADHAFI'S CALL ON THE TURKISH PEOPLE TO SHUT DOWN NATO BASES, SUNGAR SAID, ''GADHAFI'S SATEMENTS ARE A REAL SOURCE OF PROBLEM, AND THEY ARE DIRECTED AT PROVOKING THE TURKISH PUBLIC.

''I HOPE THEY HAVE BEEN EXAGGERATED BY THE PRESS.''

SHELTERS IN THE PAST WEEK, TO 100, ACCORDING TO THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR.

ON SUNDAY AND MONDAY, AUTHORITIES GAVE CIVIL DEFENSE COURSES TO 17,500 PEOPLE, COMPARED WITH AN AVERAGE 650 PEOPLE A DAY SINCE THE GULF CRISIS BEGAN, THEY SAY.

FROM MOSQUES AND TRUCKS EQUIPPED WITH BULLHORNS, OFFICIALS URGE CITIZENS TO JOIN UP.

"THE WORLD WAS NEVER EXPECTING SUCH A THREAT ... SO HE DIDN'T HAVE ENOUGH EDUCATION ABOUT THESE CHEMICAL ATTACKS," UNAL SAID IN AN INTERVIEW. "NO ONE IN THE WORLD DID."

THE SHORTCOMINGS OF TURKEY'S CIVIL DEFENSE PLANNING BECAME CLEAR A WEEK AGO. WHEN THE COUNTRY'S FIRST AIR RAID ALERT OCCURRED IN ADANA, MANY RESIDENTS DIDN'T HEAR IT, SINCE THEIR NEIGHBORHOODS LACKED ALARMS.

PHONE LINES OVERLOADED, PREVENTING CIVIL DEFENSE OFFICIALS FROM SENDING INSTRUCTIONS TO THE TELEVISION. IN SOME AREAS, RESIDENTS RUSHED OUTSIDE, INSTEAD OF RETREATING TO SEALED ROOMS.

THE MISSILE THAT TRIGGERED THE ALARM LANDED IN ISRAEL, U.S. AND TURKISH OFFICIALS SAID. BUT THE ALERT DROVE HOME THE POSSIBLE DANGER TO TURKS.

"NOW WE HAVE STARTED TO TAKE THIS WAR SERIOUSLY," SAID IBRAHIM KORKUNCH, A 33-YEAR-OLD SHOPKEEPER OFFERING PSEUDO-U.S. GOODS AT ADANA'S AMERICAN BAZAAR. "WE BELIEVE SADDAM CAN START SOMETHING."

THAT FEAR WAS FUELED BY A RECENT IRAQI LETTER TO TURKEY THREATENING UNSPECIFIED "CONSEQUENCES" FOR ALLOWING U.S. BOMBERS TO USE THE INCIRLIK BASE.

HOWEVER, MANY OFFICIALS COUNTER THAT IT IS UNLIKELY SADDAM WOULD ATTACK TURKEY SINCE HE WOULD RISK A SECOND-FRONT WAR AND A NATO RESPONSE.

THE MOST WIDESPREAD CONCERN HERE IS OF A CHEMICAL-WEAPONS ATTACK. SOME TURKS REMEMBER SEEING IRAQI KURDISH REFUGEES STREAM OVER THE BORDER TWO YEARS AGO AFTER THEY WERE GASSED BY SADDAM'S GOVERNMENT.

"WE ARE NOT REALLY SURE WHAT CHEMICAL WEAPONS ARE LIKE," SAID KORKUNCH, STANDING BEFORE A PILE OF COUNTERFEIT FRUIT OF THE LOOM UNDERSHIRTS.

"THE RUMORS MAKE US VERY NERVOUS."

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE HAVE LEFT ADANA BECAUSE OF THE FEAR OF A MISSILE WITH A CHEMICAL WARHEAD, EVEN THOUGH IRAQ HAS NOT YET LAUNCHED ONE.

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF OTHERS HAVE TAPED PLASTIC OVER THEIR WINDOWS.

STILL OTHERS PUT THEIR FAITH IN OUTSIDE FORCES.

"WE KNOW THERE ARE SHELTERS AT THE BASE," SAID SADET GECHILE, 42, A WOMAN IN A WHITE HEADSCARF WALKING NEAR THE BARBED-WIRE PERIMETER OF INCIRLIK.

"IF ANYTHING HAPPENS, WE PLAN TO JUMP OVER THE FENCES TO GO IN."

"I TOLD MY HUSBAND TO TAKE PRECAUTIONS," SAID VESILE ALBAYRAK, 32, A WOMAN IN TRADITIONAL HAREM PANTS SHOPPING IN THE 19TH OF MAY DISTRICT.

''Come to civil defense classes,'' cried the mosque's imam, or priest.

Since U.S. bombers began using a a Turkish base for raids on neighboring Iraq, life has not been the same for residents of this palm-fringed city.

The giant Incirlik base, once a source of friendly, free-spending Americans, has become a time-bomb in the eyes of many local residents. They fear Saddam Hussein will attack it because of the U.S. raids.

Now, residents of Adana and other parts of Turkey are trying to catch up on civil defense as they cope with life in the shadow of war.

''Living in peace for 60 years, people get relaxed,'' said the city's civil defense coordinator, Huseyin Unal. ''But in this tense atmosphere, they are more careful about things.''

Nervousness is widespread in this city of nearly 1 million.

Women complain they can't sleep. Some children scream at the frequent roar of warplanes.

Gas masks have become a coveted symbol of security to people who feel powerless to control their situation. But few can find or afford them.

''You cannot trust in anything, this is war. But you can feel more secure with gas masks,'' said Suleyman Dogan, a top official in the poor 19th of May district, where horse-drawn carts outnumber cars.

City officials say it is not possible or necessary to give masks to everyone. But they have nearly tripled the number of air raid shelters in the past week, to 100, according to the provincial'

^ANKARA: this incident.

It was not immediately clear if the explosions were related to the Gulf war.

In the past week bombs have gone off in this capital city, Istanbul and the southern city of Adana. In most cases Dev Sol, an underground Marxist organization, has claimed responsibility, saying the attacks were to protest Turkey's role in the Gulf war.

Turkey has allowed the use of Incirlik air base, near Adana, by U.S. warplanes bombing targets in Iraq.

Among the places bombed were the U.S. consulate in Adana, foreign airline offices and the city's main tax office in Ankara, a NATO facility and the buildings of two organizations with U.S. links in Istanbul.

On Monday, Ankara governor Saffet Arikan Bedük asked witnesses to bombings to give information to the police immediately. He also asked administrators of apartments to report any suspicious people staying in their buildings.

^CONTRACTORS ASK GOVERNMENT HELP SINCE LIBYA STOPPED PAYMENTS<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKISH COMPANIES WITH CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS IN LIBYA HAVE ASKED COMPENSATION FROM THE GOVERNMENT BECAUSE LIBYAN LEADER MOAMMAR GADHAFI HAS STOPPED PAYMENTS IN PROTEST OF TURKEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE GULF WAR.

ACCORDING TO A LETTER SENT BY THE COMPANIES TO PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT MONDAY, LIBYA OWES TURKISH CONTRACTORS 600 MILLION DOLLARS FOR WORK ALREADY FINISHED.

THE CONTRACTORS SAID THEY HAD PROJECTS IN THE NORTH AFRICAN COUNTRY AMOUNTING TO 3.5 BILLION DOLLARS AND EQUIPMENT THERE ESTIMATED WORTH 350 MILLION DOLLARS.

THE LETTER, PUBLISHED BY THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY TUESDAY, ALSO EXPRESSED FEARS FOR THE SECURITY OF SOME 25,000 TURKISH WORKERS EMPLOYED BY THE CONSTRUCTION COMPANIES IN LIBYA.

IT SAID THAT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE SATURDAY, GADHAFI HAD ANNOUNCED HE WAS STOPPING PAYMENT TO THE TURKISH COMPANIES. SUBSEQUENT INTERVENTION BY PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL IN A PHONE CONVERSATION WITH GADHAFI HAD NOT PRODUCED ANY RESULTS, COMPANIES SAID.

^TURKEY EXPECTS PROPORTIONAL RESPONSE BY NATO IF IRAQ ATTACKS(

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY WOULD EXPECT SUPPORT FROM ITS NATO ALLIES IN PROPORTION TO THE SIZE OF ANY IRAQI ATTACK, A HIGH-LEVEL GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL SAID FRIDAY.

THE OFFICIAL, WHO SPOKE ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID TURKEY ITSELF WILL CONSIDER RETALIATION DEPENDING ON THE NATURE OF THE ATTACK.

THE OFFICIAL INDICATED THAT TURKEY'S AIR FORCE IS CAPABLE OF RESPONDING TO AN IRAQI MISSILE OR AERIAL ATTACK BUT IF A POSSIBLE CONFRONTATION WIDENS, INVOLVING GROUND TROOPS, NATO'S AID WOULD BE REQUESTED.

U.S. WARPLANES TAKING OFF FROM INCIRLIK AIR BASE IN TURKEY HAVE BEEN BOMBING IRAQ SINCE THE START OF THE WAR.

OFFERING AN EXAMPLE, THE OFFICIAL SAID IF THE INCIRLIK AIRBASE, WHICH IS TURKISH TERRITORY, IS HIT THE RESPONSE WOULD BE DIFFERENT FROM THE CASE OF TWO IRAQI SCUD MISSILES FALLING IN AN EMPTY FIELD NEAR DIYARBAKIR, THE MAJOR CITY IN TURKEY'S SOUTHEASTERN REGION BORDERING IRAQ.

LAST WEEK IRAQI FOREIGN MINISTER TARIQ AZIZ WARNED TURKEY OF UNSPECIFIED CONSEQUENCES FOR ALLOWING THE USE OF ITS TERRITORY FOR ATTACKS AGAINST IRAQ.

SO FAR, THIS MESSAGE HAS NOT BEEN FOLLOWED BY ANY IRAQI AGGRESSION AGAINST TURKEY. AND TURKS ARE PRETTY CONFIDENT THAT IRAQ WILL NOT ATTACK TURKEY, WHILE MOST OF ITS MILITARY POWER IS ENGAGED AGAINST THE U.S.-LED ALLIANCE IN THE GULF.

TURKEY'S STANCE, EMPHASIZING ''PROPORTIONAL RESPONSE,'' APPEARED AIMED AT REASSURING NATO ALLIES, IN PARTICULAR GERMANY, THAT THEY WILL NOT BE SUCKED INTO A MIDEAST WAR AT THE FIRST SIGN OF IRAQI AGGRESSION AGAINST TURKEY.

''THERE ARE VARIOUS SCENARIOS AND RESPONSES ACCORDING TO THEM,'' SAID THE HIGH-LEVEL OFFICIAL.

THERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLE DEBATE IN GERMANY ON THE ISSUE OF TURKEY'S PROTECTION, WITH THE ANTI-WAR GROUPS AND THE OPPOSITION SOCIAL DEMOCRAT PARTY WARNING THE BONN GOVERNMENT NOT TO FIGHT IN TURKEY'S DEFENSE WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE PARLIAMENT.

IN AN INTERVIEW AIRED ON GERMAN TV SEVERAL DAYS AGO, PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL REACTED TO APPARENT GERMAN UNWILLINGNESS TO COME TO TURKEY'S AID BY SAYING GERMANY HAD BECOME TOO RICH AND LOST ITS FIGHTING SPIRIT.

^POLICE USE FORCE TO DISPERSE ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION<
ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - RIOT POLICE USING NIGHTSTICKS BROKE UP AN ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION FRIDAY BY HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE LEAVING FRIDAY PRAYERS, WITNESSES REPORTED.

SOME FIGHTING BROKE OUT BETWEEN THE POLICE AND THE DEMONSTRATORS, BUT THERE WERE NO REPORTED INJURIES. WITNESSES SAID AT LEAST 10 PEOPLE WERE ARRESTED.

THE UNAUTHORIZED DEMONSTRATION, INVOLVING ABOUT 400 PEOPLE, BEGAN AFTER A GROUP OF MEN LEFT BEYAZIT MOSQUE, NEAR THE ISTANBUL UNIVERSITY AREA IN THE HEART OF THE CITY. THE GROUP MARCHED ONTO THE MAIN STREET AND GATHERED SUPPORTERS.

THE CROWD THEN PUSHED PAST A POLICE CORDON AND SHOUTED ANTI-ISRAELI AND ANTI-AMERICAN SLOGANS. POLICE BEGAN HITTING THE DEMONSTRATORS WITH NIGHTSTICKS.

SOME DEMONSTRATORS WERE SEEN HITTING A REPORTER AND WITNESSES SAID POLICE GRABBED A PHOTOGRAPHER'S CAMERA AND SMASHED IT. THEIR IDENTITIES WERE NOT KNOWN.

THE PROTEST WAS SIMILAR TO ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATIONS STAGED FOR THE PAST TWO WEEKS IN ISTANBUL AND SEVERAL OTHER TURKISH CITIES FOLLOWING TRADITIONAL MOSLEM FRIDAY PRAYERS.

MEANWHILE, A @@CALL FOR PEACE'' MARCH SCHEDULED TO BE STAGED SATURDAY IN ISTANBUL BY EIGHT OPPOSITION PARTIES WAS ORDERED POSTPONED FOR TWO MONTHS BY THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.

THE OPPOSITION PROTESTED THE ORDER AND SAID, IN A STATEMENT, THAT 90 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION WAS AGAINST TURKEY'S ENTERING A WAR AGAINST IRAQ.

TURKEY, WHICH BORDERS IRAQ, HAS ALLOWED USE OF ITS AIR BASES BY U.S. WARPLANES FOR ATTACKS ON IRAQ. SOME TURKS FEAR THE COUNTRY WILL BECOME DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE WAR.

^GOVERNMENT BANS PUBLICATION OF LEFTIST WEEKLY<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE GOVERNMENT HAS BARRED THE PUBLICATION OF A WEEKLY LEFTIST MAGAZINE FOR TWO MONTHS BECAUSE OF ITS ANTI-WAR COVERAGE.

IN ADDITION, THE PRINTING PLANT WHICH PRINTS 2000'E DOGRU (TOWARD 2000) WAS ORDERED CLOSED FOR 10 DAYS. THEN IT CAN RESUME PRINTING OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

THE ORDER, ISSUED LATE THURSDAY, CITED FIVE REPORTS IN THE LAST EDITION OF THE WEEKLY AS EXAMPLES OF A NEWS COVERAGE DISRUPTING PUBLIC ORDER, WEAKENING THE STATE AND HARMING NATIONAL UNITY.

THE WEEKLY WROTE IN ITS LATEST ISSUE THAT TURKEY WAS INVOLVED IN THE GULF WAR TO PROTECT U.S. INTERESTS AND THAT PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL MIGHT FACE CHARGES OF HIGH TREASON FOR THAT REASON.

TURKEY IS ALLOWING USE OF A SOUTHERN BASE AS A STAGING AREA BY U.S. PLANES FOR BOMBING MISSIONS IN IRAQ.

HASAN YALCIN, ANKARA BUREAU CHIEF, SAID SATURDAY A SIMILAR MAGAZINE WOULD BE PUBLISHED UNDER A NEW NAME IN AN ATTEMPT TO CIRCUMVENT THE BAN.

THE WEEKLY, WHICH HAS A CIRCULATION OF AROUND 25,000, HAS BEEN BANNED FROM PUBLICATION OR CONFISCATED AT NEWSSTANDS SEVERAL TIMES IN THE PAST FOR PRO-COMMUNIST VIEWS OR SUPPORT OF THE KURDISH MINORITY.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY IS READY TO BACK IRAN'S GULF WAR PEACE INITIATIVE, AS LONG AS IRAQ WITHDRAWS FROM KUWAIT AND THE FORMER KUWAITI GOVERNMENT IS RESTORED, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE PRESIDENCY SAID TUESDAY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED THAT TURKEY'S FOREIGN MINISTER, AHMET KURTCEBE ALPTEMOCIN, WOULD VISIT IRAN, SYRIA, SAUDI ARABIA AND EGYPT FOR TALKS ON THE GULF CONFLICT. HIS TRIP WAS SCHEDULED TO START WEDNESDAY.

SPOKESMAN KAYA TOPERI SAID PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL, IN A PHONE CONVERSATION WITH THE IRANIAN HEAD OF STATE HASHEMI RAFSANJANI TUESDAY MORNING, PLEDGED TURKEY'S SUPPORT FOR THE IRANIAN PLAN.

BUT THE TURKISH LEADER SAID IRAQ WOULD HAVE TO MEET ALL THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTIONS ON THE WAR, TOPERI SAID.

IRAN HAS OFFERED TO HELP NEGOTIATE AN END TO THE WAR. DETAILS OF ITS PROPOSALS HAVE NOT YET BEEN DISCLOSED.

TURKEY, THE ONLY NATO MEMBER BORDERING IRAQ, HAS BEEN A KEY U.S. ALLY THROUGHOUT THE GULF CRISIS. U.S. WARPLANES ARE USING AN AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY TO FLY BOMBING MISSIONS AGAINST IRAQ.

OZAL WANTS TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN DETERMINING THE FUTURE OF THE MIDDLE EAST FOLLOWING THE GULF WAR.

HE HAS SAID TURKEY WOULD BE WILLING TO HOST AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE MIDDLE EAST AFTER THE FIGHTING STOPS.

TURKEY HAS TAKEN A STRONG PRO-U.S. STAND IN THE CRISIS AND ALLOWED U.S. BOMBERS TO CARRY OUT RAIDS ON IRAQ FROM A BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY.
SUNGAR SAID ABOUT 70 IRAQIS WERE EMPLOYED IN TURKEY, INCLUDING PEOPLE WORKING AT IRAQI SCHOOLS, AT A JOINT OIL PIPELINE TERMINAL IN YUMURTALIK AND AT DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS IN ANKARA AND ISTANBUL.
SUNGAR REFUSED TO GIVE FURTHER DETAILS, BUT A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, SPEAKING ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID IRAQ WAS ASKED TO REDUCE ITS PERSONNEL IN THIS COUNTRY BY ONE-THIRD.
IRAQ WAS PUMPING ITS CRUDE OIL TO A TERMINAL AT THE MEDITERREANEAN COASTAL TOWNSHIP OF YUMURTALIK THROUGH TWO JOINT PIPELINES UNTIL TURKEY CLOSED THEM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE U.N.-IMPOSED EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ FOLLOWING ITS INVASION OF KUWAIT ON AUG. 2.
SUNGAR SAID IRAQ WAS ASKED TO COMPLY WITH TURKEY'S REQUEST IN A REASONABLE AMOUNT OF TIME. HE DID NOT ELABORATE.
THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL POINTED OUT THAT TURKEY COULD DECLARE SEVERAL IRAQI DIPLOMATS AS PERSONA NON GRATA IF IRAQ DID NOT RESPOND TO THE REQUEST.
SEVERL OTHER WESTERN COUNTRIES HAVE ASKED IRAQ TO REDUCE ITS EMBASSY STAFFS BECAUSE OF FEAR THEY COULD BE INVOLVED IN TERRORISM.
THERE HAS BEEN INCREASED TERRORIST ACTIVITY IN TURKEY OOVER THE PAST TWO WEEKS. SEVERAL FOREIGN OFFICES, INCLUDING A NATO FACILITY AND TWO ORGANIZATIONS WITH U.S. LINKS IN ISTANBUL, WERE BOMBED LAST WEEK.

^GULF WAR PROMPTS DEV SOL TO STEP UP ATTACKS ON FOREIGN TARGETS<
^BY MARY BETH SHERIDAN=
^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - BY ASSASSINATING AN AMERICAN MILITARY EMPLOYEE, TURKEY'S LEFTIST DEV SOL GROUP HAS EMERGED AS ONE OF THE MOST RUTHLESS AND ACTIVE ORGANIZATIONS TARGETING WESTERNERS BECAUSE OF THE GULF WAR.

BOBBIE EUGENE MOZELLE, OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN, WAS GUNNED DOWN THURSDAY IN THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA. IT MARKED THE FIRST TIME DEV SOL HAD KILLED AN AMERICAN IN ITS 13-YEAR TERROR CAMPAIGN.

MOZELLE, 44, WAS A CIVILIAN CUSTOMS WORKER AT THE INCIRLIK AIR BASE, USED BY U.S. WARPLANES ATTACKING IRAQ.

THE SLAYING CAPPED A THREE-WEEK BOMBING CAMPAIGN BY DEV SOL THAT TARGETED OFFICES AND CARS IN TURKEY WITH LINKS TO THE UNITED STATES OR OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COALITION FIGHTING IRAQ.

THE CAMPAIGN HAS UNDERLINED THE RESILIENCE OF THE MARXIST-LENINIST GROUP. DEV SOL, OR REVOLUTIONARY LEFT, CONTINUES TO PLAGUE TURKISH OFFICIALS 11 YEARS AFTER A MILITARY COUP CRUSHED THREE-DOZEN LEFT- AND RIGHT-WING GROUPS SOWING TERROR IN THIS NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION MEMBER COUNTRY.

OFFICIALS AND TERRORISM SPECIALISTS SAY THE GULF WAR HAS APPARENTLY PROMPTED DEV SOL TO INTENSIFY ITS CAMPAIGN AGAINST WESTERN @@IMPERIALISM'' IN HOPES OF ATTRACTING NEW MEMBERS AND FUNDING.

@@THE OLDER GENERATIONS (OF LEFTIST TERRORISTS) ... HAVE LOST GROUND AFTER THE COLLAPSE OF THE SOVIET SYSTEM,'' SAID DOGU ERGIL, A PROFESSOR AT ANKARA UNIVERSITY WHO STUDIES TURKISH TERRORISM.

@@DEV SOL IS SHIFTING THEIR IDEOLOGICAL FOCUS, NOT TO COMMUNISM, BUT TO NEW, GENERAL CAUSES,'' HE SAID.

ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT SECURITY OFFICIALS, DEV SOL HAS A HARD CORE OF ABOUT 45 PEOPLE, MOST OF THEM TRAINED AT A CAMP IN THE SYRIAN-CONTROLLED BEKAA VALLEY OF LEBANON. THE MILITANTS ARE AIDED BY ABOUT 1,500 SYMPATHIZERS IN ISTANBUL AND 300 IN ANKARA, THE OFFICIALS SAY.

DEV SOL IS LIKELY RECEIVING MONEY FROM IRAQ, THEY SAY.

@@SUCH CONFLICTS OFFER IT A MEANS OF LIVELIHOOD AS WELL AS MINOR IDEOLOGICAL BOOSTS,'' SAID ERGIL.

THEY QUICKLY PROVIDED AN EXAMPLE OF THEIR METHODS, ASSASSINATING PREMIER NIHAT ERIM. DEV SOL CARRIED OUT ANOTHER 200 POLITICAL MURDERS BEFORE THE 1980 COUP, OFFICIALS SAY.

THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT ARRESTED 1,600 SUSPECTED MEMBERS OR SYMPATHIZERS FOLLOWING THE COUP. BUT DEV SOL KEPT ITS STRUCTURE, ORGANIZING IN PRISONS AND MAINTAINING SYMPATHIZERS OUTSIDE.

^IRAQ BEGINS REDUCTION OF IRAQI EMPLOYEES IN TURKEY<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - IRAQ, COMPLYING WITH A TURKISH REQUEST, SENT SOME OF ITS DIPLOMATS AND OTHER OFFICIALS HOME ON MONDAY, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

THE IRAQI EMBASSY GAVE NO FIGURES ON THE NUMBER OF OFFICIALS SENT BACK TO IRAQ, BUT SAID THEY WERE EMPLOYEES WORKING IN ANKARA, ISTANBUL AND THE SOUTHERN CITY OF ADANA.

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY LAST WEEK ASKED IRAQ TO REDUCE ITS CITIZENS EMPLOYED IN THIS COUNTRY BY ONE-THIRD, BECAUSE POLITICAL CONTACTS BETWEEN THE BORDERING NATIONS HAD DECLINED AS A RESULT OF THE GULF WAR.

TURKEY HAS SUPPORTED THE U.S. STAND IN THE CONFLICT AND ALLOWED AMERICAN AIRCRAFT TO USE INCIRLIK AIR BASE IN ADANA TO CARRY OUT BOMBING MISSIONS OVER IRAQ.

ABOUT 70 IRAQIS WERE EMPLOYED IN TURKEY, INCLUDING PEOPLE WORKING AT IRAQI SCHOOLS, AT DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS AND AT A JOINT CRUDE OIL PIPELINE TERMINAL IN YUMURTALIK, IN SOUTHERN TURKEY.

IRAQ WAS PUMPING CRUDE OIL TO THE MEDITERRANEAN TERMINAL FROM OIL-RICH FIELDS IN KIRKUK UNTIL TURKEY SHUT IT DOWN FOLLOWING IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT.

EMBASSY OFFICIALS QUOTED BY ANATOLIA SAID THE EMPLOYEES WERE RETURNING HOME THROUGH JORDAN. THE AGENCY SAID SOME INDIVIDUALS VOLUNTEERED TO RETURN.

TURKISH OFFICIALS SAID LAST WEEK THAT TURKEY WOULD DECLARE SEVERAL IRAQI DIPLOMATS PERSONA NON GRATA IF IRAQ DID NOT COMPLY WITH ITS REQUEST.

SEVERAL OTHER NATIONS HAVE ASKED IRAQ TO REDUCE ITS EMBASSY STAFFS BECAUSE OF THE FEAR THEY COULD BE INVOLVED IN TERRORISM.

THERE HAS BEEN AN INCREASE IN TERRORIST ATTACKS IN TURKEY OVER THE PAST THREE WEEKS. EVERAL OFFICES WITH FOREIGN TIES, INCLUDING TWO NATO FACILITIES, HAVE BEEN BOMBED. AN EXTREMIST LEFTIST GROUP, DEV-SOL, HAS CLAIMED CREDIT FOR MOST OF THE BOMBINGS.

IT DID NOT SAY WHEN THE CROSSING TOOK PLACE.

THE TWO SOLDIERS AND ONE CIVILIAN WERE TAKEN TO A REFUGEE CENTER IN HAKKARI, RAISING THE NUMBER OF IRAQI REFUGEES THERE TO 55, INCLUDING 29 SOLDIERS, THE REPORT SAID. THERE WAS NO ELABORATION ON THE DATES OF THE PREVIOUS CROSSINGS.

SINCE IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG. 2, 384 IRAQIS, INCLUDING 268 SOLDIERS HAVE SOUGHT REFUGE IN TURKEY.

CROSSING INTO TURKEY HAS BECOME DIFFICULT DUE TO HEAVY SNOW AND THE PRESENCE OF THOUSANDS OF IRAQI TROOPS AT THE BORDER.

^NUMBER OF IRAQIS FLEEING TO TURKEY JUMPS DRAMATICALLY<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE NUMBER OF IRAQI SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS FLEEING ACROSS THE IRAQI-TURKISH BORDER HAS INCREASED DRAMATICALLY, WITH 494 POURING IN OVER THE PAST FOUR DAYS, THE REGIONAL GOVERNOR'S OFFICE IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CITY OF DIYARBAKIR SAID FRIDAY.

AN OFFICIAL AT THE OFFICE, SPEAKING ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID THE FIGURE INCLUDED 256 SOLDIERS WHO HAD ARRIVED IN THE BORDER PROVINCES OF HAKKARI AND SIRNAK FROM FEB. 11-15.

ONLY 91 IRAQI SOLDIERS HAD ARRIVED IN THE PREVIOUS 25 DAYS.

THE DEFECTIONS BROUGHT THE TOTAL NUMBER OF IRAQI SOLDIERS WHO HAVE FLED TO THIS COUNTRY DURING THE GULF WAR TO 347. IN ADDITION, 312 CIVILIANS HAVE ARRIVED.

THE OFFICIAL SAID THAT WARMER WEATHER MAY HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE INCREASE. SINCE THE START OF THE WAR, THE BORDER ARER HAD BEEN BLANKETED IN SNOW.

IN ADDITION, REFUGEES AND SOLDIERS WERE LIKELY DISCOURAGED FROM MAKING THE CROSSING BECAUSE OF REPORTS THAT IRAQ HAD PLANTED MINES ALONG THE BORDER.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - POLICE DETAINED A SUSPECTED IRAQI TERRORIST AFTER FINDING EXPLOSIVES INSIDE THE CAR HE DROVE TO CROSS INTO TURKEY FROM SYRIA, TURKISH NEWSPAPERS REPORTED SATURDAY.
THE ISTANBUL DAILY MILLIYET SAID THE SUSPECT WAS DETAINED AT CILVEGOZU BORDER POST IN SOUTHEASTERN HATAY PROVINCE THURSDAY AFTER POLICEMEN FOUND THE EXPLOSIVES INSIDE THE CAR.
THE DAILY SAID THE SUSPECT WAS OF IRAQI ORIGIN BUT CARRIED A JORDANIAN PASSPORT.
THE SUSPECT DENIED ANY KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE EXPLOSIVE FOUND INSIDE THE VEHICLE, SAYING HE WAS ONLY A DRIVER AND WAS TO HAVE TURNED OVER THE CAR, A MERCEDES, TO AN IRAQI MAN IN ISTANBUL, MILLIYET SAID.
PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR HANEFI DEMIRKOL REFUSED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION IN THE CASE, SAYING THAT THE MATTER WAS UNDER INVESTIGATION.
TURKISH AUTHORITIES HAVE RECENTLY STEPPED UP SECURITY THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.
THERE HAS BEEN AN INCREASE IN TERRORIST ATTACKS AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF WAR. SEVERAL OFFICES WITH FOREIGN TIES HAVE BEEN BOMBED. A U.S. CITIZEN, EMPLOYED AT AN AIRBASE USED AS A STAGING POINT BY U.S. PLANES FOR BOMBINGS IN IRAQ, WAS KILLED LAST WEEK.
AN EXTREMIST LEFTIST GROUP, DEV SOL, HAS CLAIMED CREDIT FOR THE ATTACKS. THE GROUP REPORTEDLY RECEIVES TRAINING IN THE BEKAA VALLEY IN SYRIA.

^OZAL: MAJOR POLITICAL CHANGES WILL SWEEP THE GULF REGION AFTER THE WAR<
ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY EXPECTS MAJOR POLITICAL CHANGES, INCLUDING DEMOCRACY, TO SWEEP THE REGIMES OF THE MIDDLE EAST AFTER THE GULF WAR, TURKISH PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL SAID SUNDAY.

@@THE COOL WIND OF DEMOCRACY WILL BLOW IN THE REGION. STEPS WILL BE TAKEN TOWARD DEMOCRATIZATION,'' OZAL TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE, ACCORDING TO THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY.

IT QUOTED OZAL AS SAYING IRAQ COULD BENEFIT FROM THE CHANGES BY BECOMING MORE DEMOCRATIC. HE DID NOT GIVE DETAILS.

OZAL SAID AT LEAST 100 BILLION DOLLARS WILL BE NEEDED FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION OF IRAQ AFTER THE FIGHTING ENDS.

THE DISPATCH QUOTED OZAL AS SAYING TURKEY WOULD ASK KUWAIT TO COMPENSATE TURKISH CONSTRUCTION COMPANIES FOR THEIR LOSSES AFTER THE WAR.

SEVERAL TURKISH CONTRACTORS WERE WORKING ON CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS VALUED AT OVER 500 MILLION DOLLARS WHEN THE GULF CRISIS BROKE OUT LAST AUGUST. THESE COMPANIES ABANDONED THEIR JOBS AND LEFT BEHIND MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN EQUIPMENT BECAUSE OF THE CRISIS.

OZAL ALSO SAID TURKEY WOULD BENEFIT FROM NEW BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES AFTER THE CONFLICT ENDS.

TURKEY WAS ONE OF THE FIRST COUNTRIES TO TAKE PART IN THE U.N.-IMPOSED ECONOMIC EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ. IT SHUT OFF TWO JOINT PARALLEL PIPELINES PUMPING CRUDE OIL FROM IRAQI OIL FIELDS TO A TURKISH MEDITERRANEAN TERMINAL.

TURKEY HAS ALSO SUPPORTED THE WAR EFFORT OF THE U.S.-LED COALITION. IT HAS ALLOWED AMERICAN WARPLANES TO STAGE BOMBING MISSIONS OVER IRAQ FROM A BASE IN SOUTHERN URKEY.

^TURKISH MILITARY DELEGATION VISITS U.S. TROOPS IN GULF<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - A TURKISH MILITARY DELEGATION HAS TRAVELED TO THE GULF TO STUDY THE U.S.-LED ALLIANCE'S WAR STRATEGY AND DETERMINE WHAT STEPS TURKEY SHOULD TAKE DURING THE CONFLICT, NEWSPAPERS REPORTED SUNDAY.

THE DELEGATION, LED BY A TURKISH LIEUTENANT GENERAL, ARRIVED IN RIYADH, SAUDI ARABIA ON SATURDAY, THE DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED. THE OFFICERS ARE GUESTS OF THE U.S. DEFENSE DEPARTMENT, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

THE TURKISH GROUP WAS SCHEDULED TO VISIT DHAHRAN, THE SAUDI CITY THAT IS A KEY ORGANIZATIONAL CENTER FOR ALLIED FORCES FIGHTING IRAQ, HURRIYET REPORTED.

TURKEY, THE ONLY NATO MEMBER BORDERING IRAQ, HAS ALLOWED U.S. BOMBERS TO USE A JOINT TURKISH-AMERICAN BASE AT INCIRLIK TO LAUNCH RAIDS ON IRAQ. TURKEY DOES NOT HAVE TROOPS IN THE MULTINATIONAL COALITION.

TURKISH NEWSPAPERS HAVE REPORTED THAT PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL WANTED TO SEND A HIGH-LEVEL MILITARY DELEGATION TO THE GULF TO STUDY THE TECHNIQUES AND WEAPONS BEING USED BY THE U.S.-LED COALITION.

HOWEVER, THE MILITARY REBUFFED OZAL, APPARENTLY FEARING A HIGH-LEVEL VISIT WOULD INTENSIFY COMPLAINTS EXPRESSED BY SEVERAL MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRIES ABOUT TURKISH INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAR, NEWSPAPERS REPORTED.

TURKISH LEADERS HAVE TRIED IN RECENT WEEKS TO QUELL SPECULATION THAT TURKEY WOULD OPEN A @@SECOND FRONT'' AGAINST IRAQ DURING A GROUND WAR.

HURRIYET SAID MEMBERS OF THE TURKISH DELEGATION VISITING SAUDI ARABIA WORKED IN OPERATIONS AND STRATEGIC PLANNING DEPARTMENTS IN THE MILITARY. IT DID NOT IDENTIFY THEM FURTHER.

THE PAPER SAID THE DELEGATION WOULD STUDY THE ALLIANCE'S WAR STRATEGY, INCLUDING PLANS FOR A GROUND ATTACK. THE OFFICERS WERE ALSO TRYING TO DETERMINE WHICH STEPS TURKEY SHOULD TAKE AS THE WAR DEVELOPED, THE REPORT SAID, WITHOUT ELABORATING.

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER SABAH SAID IN A BRIEF REPORT THAT THE TURKISH OFFICERS WOULD DISCUSS COORDINATION OF U.S. AND TURKISH FORCES. IT DID NOT GIVE DETAILS.

THERE WAS NO ONE AT THE PRESS OFFICE OF THE TURKISH DEFENSE MINISTRY ON SUNDAY TO COMMENT ON THE REPORTS.

OZAL, PRIME MINISTER YILDIRIM AKBULUT AND TURKISH MILITARY LEADERS HAVE SAID TURKEY WILL ONLY ENTER THE WAR IF SADDAM HUSSEIN ORDERS AN ATTACK ON TURKEY -- A MOVE CONSIDERED HIGHLY UNLIKELY HERE.

TURKEY HAS ROUGHLY TRIPLED ITS TROOPS IN THE BORDER AREA WITH IRAQ SINCE THE INVASION OF KUWAIT, BRINGING THE TOTAL NUMBER TO 180,000. THEY ARE PINNING DOWN AN ESTIMATED 100,000 IRAQI TROOPS.

IN RECENT WEEKS, TURKEY HAS BEEFED UP THE BORDER DEFENSE WITH UNITS OF ITS THIRD ARMY, WHICH INCLUDES MORE MECHANIZED FORCES AND NORMALLY GUARDS THE SOVIET FRONTIER, DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID.

USUALLY THE IRAQI BORDER AREA IS DEFENDED ONLY BY THE SECOND ARMY, WHICH IS DOMINATED BY INFANTRY FORCES.

^GULF-TURKEY-REFUGEES<
^OVER 280 MORE IRAQIS ARRIVED IN TURKEY<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - MORE THAN 280 IRAQIS POURED OVER THE BORDER INTO TURKEY IN A TWO-DAY PERIOD ENDING SUNDAY, PART OF A SHARP INCREASE IN SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS ARRIVING IN THE PAST WEEK, NEWS REPORTS SAID.

THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY, QUOTING UNIDENTIFIED OFFICIALS, SAID THAT 281 IRAQIS HAD ARRIVED IN THE SOUTHEASTERN DISTRICT OF SILOPI, NEAR THE JUNCTURE OF THE IRAQI, TURKISH AND SYRIAN BORDERS.

ANOTHER FOUR IRAQIS ARRIVED IN THE PROVINCE OF HAKKARI, FURTHER NORTH, ACCORDING TO ANATOLIA.

THE AGENCY DID NOT GIVE A BREAKDOWN OF HOW MANY WERE CIVILIANS AND HOW MANY WERE SOLDIERS.

ADDED TO FIGURES PROVIDED BY THE REGIONAL GOVERNOR'S OFFICE ON FRIDAY, THE NEW ARRIVALS WOULD BRING THE NUMBER OF IRAQIS ESCAPING TO TURKEY TO 893 SINCE THE START OF THE GULF WAR.

IN PREVIOUS DAYS, ABOUT HALF OF THE ARRIVALS WERE SOLDIERS.

NEARLY ALL OF THE IRAQIS ARRIVED IN THE PAST WEEK, AS BITTER, SNOWY WEATHER EASED IN THE BORDER AREA AND THE U.S.-LED ALLIED FORCES POUNDED IRAQ IN AIR ATTACKS.

ANATOLIA SAID THAT 88 OF THE IRAQIS ARRIVED IN SILOPI ON SUNDAY. THIRTY-EIGHT OF THEM WERE SOLDIERS, IT SAID. THE AGENCY PROVIDED NO FURTHER DETAILS.

AN OFFICIAL AT THE DIYARBAKIR OFFICE OF THE RED CRESCENT, WHICH HELPS REFUGEES, SAID SUNDAY HE HAD NO INFORMATION ON THE LATEST ARRIVALS. THE RED CRESCENT IS THE MUSLIM VERSION OF THE RED CROSS.

THE REGIONAL GOVERNOR'S OFFICE IN THE MAIN SOUTHEASTERN CITY OF DIYARBAKIR WAS CLOSED SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND NO ONE COULD BE REACHED FOR COMMENT.

MOST OF THE IRAQIS TRAVELED ON FOOT ACROSS THE COUNTRYSIDE SINCE THE OFFICIAL BORDER CROSSING AT HABUR WAS SHUT BY IRAQ SHORTLY BEFORE THE WAR BEGAN. MINES WERE REPORTEDLY PLANTED ALONG THE BORDER, FURTHER HINDERING ESCAPE.

A TURKISH JOURNALIST BASED IN DIYARBAKIR SAID THE ACTUAL FIGURE OF IRAQIS REACHING TURKEY COULD BE MUCH HIGHER THAN WHAT AUTHORITIES HAD REPORTED.

@@IT'S IMPOSSIBLE TO KNOW HOW MANY IRAQIS HAVE ARRIVED. MANY GO DIRECTLY TO WESTERN TURKEY WITHOUT CONTACTING SECURITY OFFICIALS,'' HE SAID, SPEAKING ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY.

TURKISH OFFICIALS SAID LAST MONTH THAT MORE THAN 100,000 IRAQIS MIGHT FLEE TO THIS COUNTRY BECAUSE OF THE WAR.

THE IRAQIS ARE BEING HOUSED IN CAMPS IN THE EASTERN AND SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCES OF HAKKARI, SIRNAK, VAN AND BITLIS, AS WELL AS IN HOTELS IN THE CITIES.

AT LEAST 1,040 IRAQIS HAVE BEEN TAKEN PRISONER OF WAR BY ALLIED FORCES BASED IN SAUDI ARABIA, INCLUDING ABOUT 650 DESERTERS.

SINCE IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG. 2, AT LEAST 1,269 IRAQIS HAVE SOUGHT REFUGE IN TURKEY, INCLUDING THE LATEST FIGURES.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE INCREASED FLOW OF IRAQIS FLEEING TO TURKEY HAS CONTINUED, WITH MORE THAN 100 IRAQIS ARRIVING SUNDAY NIGHT AND EARLY MONDAY, ACCORDING TO THE REGIONAL GOVERNOR'S OFFICE IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CITY OF DIYARBAKIR.

THE OFFICE SAID 36 SOLDIERS AND 80 CIVILIANS ARRIVED IN THE BORDER PROVINCES OF HAKKARI AND SIRNAK.

THE NEW ARRIVALS BROUGHT THE NUMBER OF IRAQIS ESCAPING TO TURKEY TO 1,206 SINCE THE START OF THE GULF WAR, THE OFFICE SAID. OF THOSE, 542 ARE SOLDIERS. A TOTAL OF 890 OF THEM ARRIVED IN THE PAST WEEK.

REGIONAL OFFICIALS SAID WARMER WEATHER IN RECENT DAYS MAY HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE INCREASE. HEAVY SNOW HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN REPORTED ALONG THE BORDER, WHICH MOST OF THE REFUGEES CROSSED ON FOOT SINCE THE MAIN ROAD CONNECTING THE TWO COUNTRIES WAS CLOSED BY IRAQ SHORTLY BEFORE THE WAR.

SINCE IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG. 2, 1,532 IRAQIS, INCLUDING 773 SOLDIERS, HAVE SOUGHT REFUGE IN TURKEY.

THE IRAQIS ARE BEING KEPT AT CAMPS IN THE EASTERN AND SOUTHEASTERN PROVINCES OF HAKKARI, SIRNAK, VAN AND BITLIS. HOTELS IN THESE CITIES ARE BEING TURNED INTO SHELTERS FOR THE IRAQI ARRIVALS.

A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, WHO SPOKE ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID THE GOVERNMENT WAS HOLDING TALKS WITH THE UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES TO PROVIDE AID FOR THE IRAQI DEFECTORS.

THE OFFICIAL SAID PLANS WERE BEING MADE ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT 100,000 IRAQIS MIGHT FLEE TO TURKY. HE ADDED THAT NO FINANCIAL AID HAD BEEN PROVIDED YET, BUT COUNTRIES WERE EXPECTED TO CONTRIBUTE TO A FUND ESTABLISHED FOR THE PURPOSE.

DIYARBAKIR, TURKEY (AP) - A TOTAL OF 157 IRAQIS FLED TO TURKEY WITHIN A 24-HOUR PERIOD ENDING SATURDAY MORNING, A SPOKESMAN AT REGIONAL GOVERNOR'S OFFICE IN THIS SOUTHEASTERN CITY SAID.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID 96 SOLDIERS AND 61 CIVILIANS ARRIVED IN THE BORDER PROVINCE OF SIRNAK FRIDAY NIGHT AND EARLY SATURDAY.

THEY BROUGHT THE TOTAL OF IRAQI REFUGEES FLEEING TO TURKEY DURING THE GULF WAR TO 1,890, INCLUDING 858 SOLDIERS, THE OFFICIAL SAID. MOST HAVE ARRIVED IN THE PAST TWO WEEKS.

A TOTAL OF 2,208 IRAQIS HAVE SOUGHT REFUGE IN TURKEY SINCE IRAQ INVADED KUWAIT ON AUG. 2.

THE OFFICIAL SAID THE REFUGEES WERE BEING KEPT IN CAMPS IN THE PROVINCES OF SIIRT, HAKKARI, SIRNAK, VAN, AND BITLIS NEAR THE BORDER AREA. A NUMBER OF 385 IRAQIS, MOST OF THEM SOLDIERS, WERE TRANSFERRED TO A CAMP IN THE CENTRAL ANATOLIAN PROVINCE OF KAYSERI SATURDAY, ACCORDING TO SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY'S FOREIGN MINISTER SAID THAT THE ALLIED GROUND OFFENSIVE IN KUWAIT WAS @@UNAVOIDABLE'' AND THAT SADDAM HUSSEIN'S GOVERNMENT BORE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE INTENSIFIED CONFLICT, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED SUNDAY.

THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF ANY UNUSUAL MOVEMENT ALONG THE 250-KILOMETER (150-MILE) TURKISH-IRAQI BORDER, WHICH IS FAR FROM KUWAIT. HOWEVER, A NEWSPAPER REPORTED THAT TURKEY HAD SHIFTED AIR FORCE PLANES FROM A SOUTHERN BASE TO AIRFIELDS NEARER THE BORDER.

MEANWHILE, ANOTHER 284 IRAQIS ARRIVED IN TURKEY, INCLUDING 164 DESERTING SOLDIERS, THE GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE REPORTED SUNDAY. A TOTAL OF 1,980 IRAQIS HAVE COME SINCE THE START OF THE GULF WAR, 926 OF THEM SOLDIERS, OFFICIALS SAID.

IT WAS NOT CLEAR WHETHER ANY OF THE SOLDIERS HAD FLED AFTER THE GROUND WAR STARTED. THE GOVERNMENT HAS DENIED REPORTERS ACCESS TO THE DESERTERS AND REFUGEES.

TURKISH FOREIGN MINISTER AHMET KURTCEBE ALPTEMOCIN, VISITING WASHINGTON, TOLD REPORTERS AFTER THE GROUND WAR BEGAN: @@UNFORTUNATELY, THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT DIDN'T UTILIZE THE LAST CHANCE GIVEN TO THEM, AND THEY CONTINUED WITH THEIR UNCOMPROMISING ATTITUDE,'' ANATOLIA REPORTED.

@@THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY BELONGS TO THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT AT THIS STAGE. IN ORDER TO REACH THE FINAL AIM, THE LAND OPERATION WAS UNAVOIDABLE,'' ALPTEMOCIN WAS QUOTED AS SAYING.

THE ISTANBUL-BASED NEWSPAPER CUMHURIYET SAID AN UNSPECIFIED NUMBER OF TURKISH PLANES HAD BEEN TRANSFERRED FROM THE TURKISH-AMERICAN BASE AT INCIRLIK TO MILITARY AIRFIELDS N DIYARBAKIR, MUSH AND ERHAC IN EASTERN TURKEY. IT GAVE NO DETAILS.

MILITARY OFFICIALS WERE UNAVAILABLE FOR COMMENT. U.S. WARPLANES HAVE BEEN USING INCIRLIK TO LAUNCH THOUSANDS OF RAIDS ON IRAQ.

TURKEY SUPPORTS THE U.S. GULF POLICY BUT HAS NOT DIRECTLY JOINED THE WAR. IT HAS ABOUT 180,000 TROOPS IN THE BORDER REGION WITH IRAQ, PINNING DOWN AN ESTIMATED 100,000 IRAQI SOLDIERS.

^BIGGEST GROUP OF IRAQI REFUGEES YET ARRIVES IN TURKEY<

^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - MORE THAN 400 IRAQIS POURED INTO TURKEY BY MONDAY EVENING, THE BIGGEST ONE-DAY TOTAL SINCE THE GULF WAR BEGAN, THE GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE REPORTED.

IN ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT, A NEWSPAPER REPORTED THAT U.S. PLANES HAD INTENSIFIED THEIR SORTIES INTO IRAQ FROM A BASE IN SOUTHERN TURKEY SINCE THE START OF THE ALLIED GROUND OFFENSIVE.

THE GOVERNMENT SAID 407 IRAQIS ARRIVED IN TURKEY BETWEEN 7 P.M. SUNDAY AND 6 P.M. MONDAY, INCLUDING 146 DESERTING SOLDIERS. THE FIGURE WAS MORE THAN DOUBLE THE AVERAGE NUMBER OF DAILY ARRIVALS IN THE PREVIOUS TWO WEEKS.

THE INCREASE COULD SIGNAL A BREAKDOWN OR LOOSENING OF IRAQI CONTROLS ALONG THE BORDER, PARTICULARLY SINCE THE GROUND WAR BEGAN IN THE SOUTH.

THE FLOOD OF REFUGEES HAS ALSO BEEN ATTRIBUTED TO RELATIVELY WARM WEATHER WHICH HAS MELTED SNOW IN THE MOUNTAINOUS AREA.

THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT HAS SAID 100,000 IRAQIS MAY FLEE TO THIS NEIGHBORING COUNTRY BECAUSE OF THE WAR. SO FAR, 2,560 IRAQIS HAVE ARRIVED DURING THE CONFLICT -- NEARLY ALL IN THE PAST TWO WEEKS.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS REFUSED TO ALLOW REPORTERS TO MEET WITH THE REFUGEES AND DESERTERS. THEY ARE BEING HOUSED IN REFUGEE CAMPS AND HOTELS GUARDED BY SECURITY FORCES. MOST ARE IN THE EASTERN CITIES OF SIRNAK AND TATVAN AND IN SIIRT, WHERE A MILITARY CAMP HAS BEEN CONVERTED TO HOUSE DESERTERS.

BECAUSE IRAQ CLOSED THE MAIN ROAD LINKING THE TWO COUNTRIES, THE REFUGEES ARE COMING ACROSS DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE 250-KILOMETER-LONG (150-MILE-LONG) BORDER ON FOOT.

MEANWHILE, THE NTIONAL DAILY CUMHURIYET SAID THAT THE NUMBER OF MISSIONS FROM THE JOINT U.S.-TURKISH BASE AT INCIRLIK HAD TRIPLED ON SUNDAY. AT LEAST SEVEN GROUPS OF PLANES LEFT THE BASE THAT DAY, EACH CONTAINING ABOUT 35 WARPLANES PLUS FIVE REFUELING AIRCRAFT, THE PAPER SAID.

SOME OF THE PLANES WERE CONDUCTING RECONNAISSANCE OPERATIONS, WHILE OTHERS WERE BOMBING IRAQ, IT SAID.

A BASE SPOKESMAN, MAJOR MICHAEL MAHER, REFUSED TO COMMENT ON OPERATIONS.

^ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER=

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - THE GULF WAR RAGING NEAR TURKEY'S BORDER HAS PROMPTED THE GOVERNMENT TO SPEED-UP MAJOR CHANGES IN ITS MILITARY, A POWERFUL FORCE THAT ONCE HELD TOGETHER THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE.

WITH 800,000 SERVICEMEN, TURKEY'S MILITARY IS THE SECOND-LARGEST IN NATO, AFTER THE UNITED STATES. BUT IT RELIES HEAVILY ON CONSCRIPTS AND OLD EQUIPMENT, WITH ITS KOREAN WAR-ERA TANKS A STRIKING CONTRAST TO THE HIGH-TECH WEAPONS USED IN NEIGHBORING IRAQ.

^Eds: UPDATES with statement saying rain fell more than 10 hours; other details.<

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Black rain fell for more than 10 hours in southeastern Turkey, causing panic among residents fearing it was caused by burning oil installations in Kuwait, officials said Tuesday.

However, officials said it was not immediately clear whether the black rain was caused by the burning oil fields or simple air pollution.

The governor's office in Hatay said tests were carried out on Tuesday to determine the nature of the rain. So far, black rain caused by burning oil installations has only been reported in the Gulf, particularly in Iran.

The rain in southeastern Turkey on Monday blackened the hands and faces of people caught outside, and turned their clothes black, newspapers reported. Hundreds of nervous residents telephoned state offices to get information about the rain.

The black rain fell in Turkey's Adana, Hatay and Sanliurfa provinces for several hours Monday.

Hanifi Demirkol, the governor of Hatay, said, "It first became all dark during the daytime and then the black rain arrived."

He later said in a statement that the black rain began falling in the morning and did not subside until about 10:20 p.m.

Demirkol said an initial investigation indicated that plants had not been harmed by the rain. But analysts could not determine what substances were in the rain, and samples were sent to Ankara to be tested, he said.

ANOTHER BIG CAMP IN SHIRNAK PROVIDES ACCOMODATION TO 422 SOLDIERS AND 384 CIVILIANS.
THE OTHER CAMPS ARE IN DIYARBAKIR, HAKKARI, KAYSERI, TATVAN AND SIVAS.
THE REFUGEES ARE CROSSING THE BORDER AT NIGHT TO AVOID DETECTION BY IRAQI SOLDIERS, THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE SAID.
THEY CROSS INTO TURKEY FROM SEVEN DIFFERENT POINTS ALONG THE BORDER FROM HAKKARI AND SHIRNAK PROVINCES.
TURKISH NEWSPAPERS REPORTED THAT TWO IRAQIS WERE KILLED WHEN THEY STEPPED ON A MINE WHILE TRYING TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY. TWO OTHERS WERE INJURED AS A RESULT OF MINE EXPLOSIONS RECENTLY, THE DAILIES SAID.
OFFICIALS REFUSED TO DENY OR CONFIRM THE REPORTS. HOWEVER, A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, SPEAKING ON CONDITION OF ANONYMITY, SAID TWO IRAQIS WERE UNDER TREATMENT IN HO STATE HOSPITALS. NO OTHER DETAILS WERE GIVEN.
TURKEY HAD MADE PLANS TO HOUSE SOME 100,000 IRAQI REFUGEES WITH THE BEGINNING OF THE GULF CRISIS.
ATAMAN SAID SEVERAL UNITED NATIONSS ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING UNICEF, THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION, THE WORLD FOOD PROGRAM AND THE U.N. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES, WERE WORKING TOGETHER TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE TO TURKEY TO HANDLE THE NEEDS OF THE REFUGEES.
HE SAID THESE ORGANIZATIONS ALTOGETHER HAD PLEDGED 7 MILLION DOLLARS TO TURKEY.
THE U.N. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES SAID WEDNESDAY IT HAD PROVIDED AID OF 317,600 DOLLARS FOR THE INFRASTRUCTURE OF FOUR REFUGEE CAMPS IN EASTERN TURKEY.
THE ORGANIZATION ALSO PROVIDED MATERIAL ASSISTANCE WORTH 282,500 DOLLARS, THE STATEMENT SAID. THE PACKAGE INCLUDED 1,200 TENTS, 12,000 BLANKETS, AND STOVES, IT ADDED.
JOURNALISTS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO VISIT THE CAMPS AND INTERVIEW THE REFUGEES. NO REASON IS GIVEN FOR THE NEWS BLACKOUT ON THE ISSUE.
SEVERAL FOREIGN JOURNALISTS WHO TRIED TO FIND IRAQI REFUGEES AFTER THEIR ENTRY INTO TURKEY ON WEDNESDAY WERE DETAINED FOR UP TO FOUR HOURS BY THE GENDARMARIE FORCES, OR MILITARY POLICE.

^THE FLOW OF IRAQI REFUGEES CONTINUES AFTER THE CEASE FIRE<

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - ALMOST 200 IRAQI REFUGEES, INCLUDING SOLDIERS, FLED ACROSS THE BORDER TO TURKEY OVER THE PAST 24 HOURS, THE GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE REPORTED FRIDAY.

IT SAID THE LATEST ARRIVALS WERE 154 CIVILIANS AND 26 SOLDIERS.

THE FLOW OF THE IRAQIS INTO TURKEY BEGAN AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE GULF CRISIS WITH IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT ON AUG. 2. SINCE THEN, 4,369 OF THEM ARRIVED.

THE TOTAL NUMBER OF IRAQIS WHO HAVE SOUGHT REFUGE IN TURKEY AFTER THE GULF WAR REACHED 3,902 WITH THE LATEST ARRIVALS. AMONG THOSE, AT LEAST 1,396 WERE SOLDIERS.

MORE THAN 500 OF THEM, INCLUDING ABOUT 100 SOLDIERS, ARRIVED AFTER THE CEASE-FIRE.

THE GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CITY OF DIYARBAKIR SAID THE REFUGEES ARE BEING HELD IN CAMPS IN SEVEN CITIES.

THE REFUGEES ARE CROSSING THE BORDER AT NIGHT TO AVOID DETECTION BY IRAQI SOLDIERS, OFFICIALS SAID. THEY CROSS INTO TURKEY FROM SEVEN DIFFERENT POINTS ALONG THE BORDER FROM HAKKARI AND SHIRNAK PROVINCES.

SEVENTEEN OTHER SUSPECTED MEMBERS OF DEV SOL WERE ALSO DETAINED IN RAIDS ON HIDEOUTS IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF THIS SOUTHERN CITY, ADANA POLICE CHIEF METE ALTAN TOLD REPORTERS.

DEV SOL HAS CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR KILLING A U.S. MILITARY EMPLOYEE IN ADANA AND WOUNDING A U.S. AIR FORCE OFFICER IN THE EASTERN CITY OF IZMIR LAST MONTH. IT ALSO SAID IT WAS BEHIND MORE THAN 15 BOMBINGS IN TURKEY IN RECENT WEEKS AIMED AT SHOWING ITS OPPOSITION TO THE ALLIED ROLE IN THE GULF WAR.

ALTAN SAID ONE OF THE SUSPECTS WAS ACCUSED OF PLANTING EXPLOSIVE DEVICES ON JAN. 26 OUTSIDE THE U.S. CONSULATE AND A TURKISH-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OFFICE, BOTH IN ADANA.

THE EXPLOSIONS CAUSED DAMAGE BUT NO INJURIES.

ALTAN IDENTIFIED THE MAN AS CUMHUR BIRCAN AND SAID POLICE WERE SEEKING HIS FEMALE ACCOMPLICE, IDENTIFIED AS SERIFE DOGAN.

ADANA IS NEARBY A TURKISH-AMERICAN AIR BASE FROM WHICH U.S. WARPLANES TOOK OFF FOR BOMBING RAIDS AGAINST NORTHERN IRAQ DURING THE GULF WAR.

SOME OF THE OTHER SUSPECTS, ALTAN SAID, WERE CHARGED WITH BOMBING A BANK DURING A ROBBERY ATTEMPT AND OPENING FIRE ON THE POLICE.

SEIZED AT THE HIDEOUTS, HE SAID, WERE OUTLAWED PROPAGANDA LITERATURE, ONE HANDGUN, A HOMEMADE BOMB AND CHEMICALS FOR MAKING EXPLOSIVES. HE DID NOT SAY WHEN THE RAIDS OCCURRED.

In addition, Turkey's hopes of joining the European Community remain dim. Despite its support for the allied cause, Turkey was denied on March 4 an 800-million-dollar EC aid package frozen for years by a Greek veto.

And there is no sign Turkey will play a key role in any new Mideast defense pact.

"There is a high possibility for Turkey to be marginalized again in the postwar settlement," said a Western diplomat, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Turkey's military role in the region remains unclear. As a democratic, officially secular Muslim country, Turkey may appear to the West as an ideal member of a regional defense organization.

But Turks are skeptical such an organization will succeed in the fractious Middle East. For their part, many Arabs are still suspicious of Turkey, a NATO member that once ruled them under the Ottoman Empire.

More likely, Turkey will grant the United States or NATO increased use of its bases, particularly for storage of equipment in case of another war, officials say.

"The policeman's rzle fon Turkey may be elevated," a senior Turkish official said, speaking on condition of anonymity. "That's not a bad thing ... obviously that is going to be some deterrent for Arabs who might think ill of Turkey."

Although his more grandiose ideas may not be fulfilled, Ozal has continued to assure Turks the government was right to abandon its traditional neutrality in Arab affairs.

"For the first time in 200 years Turkey has allied itself with the winners of a war," he exclaimed to a crowd this week. "Siding with the winners is always advantageous."

In fact, Ozal can point to some concrete gains:

--A 1.5-billion-mark (1-billion-dollar) military package from Germany, and a proposed 25-percent increase in U.S. military aid in 1992, to 625 million dollars. That would shatter Washington's usual 7:10 ratio for aid to rivals Greece and Turkey.

--A 50-percent increase in the U.S. import quota for Turkey's important textile industry.

--At least 3.5 billion dollars in special aid commitments from the West, Japan and the Idle East.

In addition, Turkish construction and export firms are expected to help in the rebuilding of Kuwait.

Still, the economic embargo against Iraq will cost Turkey at least 7 billion dollars over a year, according to the World Bank. And tens of thousands of Turks have been laid off due to the loss of trade and tourism, which have agoravated an economic slump.

Politically, Ozal's policies have gained support. But he appears to be squandering the badly needed boost in an uproar over his wife's campaign for a regional political post.

Turkish officials dismiss any speculation that they would seek former Turkish territory in northern Iraq as a payoff for their Gulf policies. Such territory would be difficult to control and the allies would be unlikely to let Iraq be carved up, they say.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - It was a scene to warm any leader's heart; much less a descendent of the dynastic Ottomans. President Turgut Ozal, visiting a western town recently, was greeted with a sign: ''Ozal, Conquerer of the Gulf.''

Ozal defied Turkish public opinion by allowing U.S. planes to use Turkish bases during the Gulf War. Now, he is basking in the praise of the United States, NATO -- and even a few of his own citizens.

But as the postwar era begins, Turkey is realizing it may not achieve its dreams of a leading regional role and big rewards for its Gulf policy, observers say.

''There are political gains, prestige gains,'' said Seyfi Tashan, director of the independent Foreign Policy Institute. ''How these can be transformed into material gains, I have my doubts.''

The U.N. embargo could not have succeeded without Turkey, a key outlet for Iraqi oil and exports. In addition, the use of Turkish bases enabled U.S. warplanes to raid air strips and other targets in nearby northern Iraq, a factor in the Iraqi planes' flight to Iran, diplomats say.

Turkey has emerged from the crisis with high marks in Washington. It has also improved its standing in NATO, which had been declining along with the Soviet threat.

But officials and diplomats say there is little sign Turkey will soon see a much-hoped-for ''Marshall Plan'' or regional economic fund, particularly since Saddam Hussein has survived.

In addition, Turkey's hopes of joining the European Community remain dim. Despite its support for the allied cause, Turkey was denied on March 4 an 800-million-dollar EC aid package frozen for years by a Greek veto.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - IN A DRAMATIC SWITCH IN POLICY, THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT HAS HELD SECRET MEETINGS WITH IRAQI KURDISH LEADERS, THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED MONDAY.

PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL SAID THAT FOREIGN MINISTRY AND INTELLIGENCE OFFICIALS MET LAST WEEK IN ANKARA WITH JALAL TALABANI, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED. TALABANI HEADS THE IRAQI-KURDISH FRONT, A COALITION OF KURDISH GROUPS BATTLING SADDAM HUSSEIN'S FORCES IN NORTHERN IRAQ.

AT THE BEGINNING OF THE GULF CRISIS, TURKEY SAID IT WOULD RESORT TO WAR IF NECESSARY TO BLOCK THE CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN IN NORTHERN IRAQ. BUT ITS ATTITUDE HAS SOFTENED GREATLY AS THE KURDS' QUEST FOR AUTONOMY HAS GATHERED STEAM.

OZAL TOLD REPORTERS WHILE TRAVELING TO MOSCOW FOR A VISIT THAT KURDISH REPRESENTATIVES HAD ALREADY MET WITH BRITISH, FRENCH AND OTHER OFFICIALS.

@@THEY ARE GUIDING THE KURDS ONE WAY OR ANOTHER. BUT THINGS HAPPENING THERE (IN NORTHERN IRAQ) ARE MORE TO OUR INTERESTS,'' OZAL SAID, ACCORDING TO ANATOLIA.

@@IT IS WRONG IF WE DON'T TALK WITH THEM WHEN OTHERS ARE TALKING WITH THEM.''

TURKEY HAS FEARED A KURDISH STATE WOULD ENCOURAGE SEPARATISTS HERE. SECURITY FORCES HAVE BEEN FIGHTING KURDISH GUERRILLAS IN TURKEY FOR SEVEN YEARS, LEAVING 3,000 PEOPLE DEAD.

TURKEY IS HOME TO MORE THAN HALF THE 25 MILLION PEOPLE IN KURDISTAN, AN AREA THAT INCLUDES SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY AND PARTS O IRAQ, IRAN, SYRIA AND THE SOVIET UNION. HOWEVER, THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT BANS MOST EXPRESSIONS OF KURDISH CULTURE.

OZAL SAID TURKISH OFFICIALS ALSO MET WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OFF THE OTHER MAIN IRAQI KURDISH REBEL GROUP, THE KURDISH DEMOCRATIC PARTY LED BY MESUT BARZANI, AS WELL AS WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF ETHNIC TURKS FROM NORTHERN IRAQ.

HE GAVE NO FURTHER DETAILS.

IN RECENT WEEKS, AS KURDS HAVE EMERGED AS A POTENTIALLY POWERFUL FORCE IN POSTWAR IRAQ, OZAL HAS MADE INDIRECT CONTACTS WITH THEIR LEADERS, ACCORDING TO NEWSPAPER REPORTS.

DIYARBAKIR, TURKEY (AP) - BELGIAN PLANES DEPLOYED AS PART OF A NATO FORCE TO BOLSTER TURKEY'S DEFENSE AGAINST A POSSIBLE IRAQI ATTACK STARTED RETURNING HOME ON MONDAY.

FOUR MIRAGE-5 PLANES TOOK OFF AFTER A MILITARY CEREMONY AT THE AIR BASE IN THE SOUTHERN CITY OF DIYARBAKIR. THERE ARE 18 BELGIAN AIRCRAFT.

BELGIUM, GERMANY, AND ITALY SENT A TOTAL OF 42 PLANES TO MALATYA AND DIYARBAKIR IN JANUARY FOLLOWING TURKEY'S REQUEST FOR THE ACE MOBILE FORCE, A UNIT UNDER THE ALLIES' EUROPEAN COMMAND.

TURKEY ALSO RECEIVED PATRIOT SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILES FROM THE UNITED STATES AND THE NETHERLANDS.

NATO DECIDED LAST WEEK TO WITHDRAW THE PLANES FROM TURKEY.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKISH PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT ANNOUNCED AT THE END OF A VISIT BY IRANIAN VICE PRESIDENT HASSAN HABIBI ON MONDAY THAT TWO LEADERS AGREED THAT THEIR NEIGHBOR IRAQ SHOULD NOT BE DIVIDED.
@@IRAN AND TURKEY CARRY THE SAME OPINION THAT THE IRAQI MAP SHOULD REMAIN UNCHANGED,'' AKBULUT TOLD A JOINT NEWS CONFERENCE AT ESENBOGA AIRPORT BEFORE HABIBI'S DEPARTURE.
KURDISH GUERRILLAS HAVE BEEN BATTLING IRAQI LEADER SADDAM HUSSEIN'S ARMY IN NORTHERN IRAQ. HEAVY FIGHTING ALSO WAS REPORTED IN SOUTHERN IRAQ BETWEEN SHIITE MUSLIM MILITANTS AND SADDAM'S TROOPS.
HABIBI PAID A THREE-DAY VISIT TO ANKARA TO DISCUSS BILATERAL ISSUES AND DEVELOPMENTS IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE GULF WAR.
TURKEY SUPPORTED THE UNITED STATES THROUGHOUT THE GULF CRISIS AND ALLOWED U.S. AIRCRAFT TO USE A SOUTHERN AIR BASE TO LAUNCH BOMBING MISSIONS AGAINST IRAQ.
HABIBI SAID IRAN WOULD DEMAND WAR DAMAGES FROM IRAQ, BUT, HE RULED OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT IRAQI PLANES, WHICH TOOK SHELTER IN IRAN DURING THE WAR, WOULD BE KEPT IN RETURN FOR WAR DAMAGES.

^Turkey and Iran Favor A Unified Iraq<
ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Turkish Premier Yildirim Akbulut announced at the end of a visit by Iranian Vice President Hassan Habibi on Monday that two leaders agreed that their neighbor Iraq should not be divided.

"Iran and Turkey carry the same opinion that the Iraqi map should remain unchanged," Akbulut told a joint news conference at Esenboga airport before Habibi's departure.

Kurdish guerrillas have been battling Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein's army in northern Iraq. Heavy fighting also was reported in southern Iraq between Shiite Muslim militants and Saddam's troops.

Habibi paid a three-day visit to Ankara to discuss bilateral issues and developments in the aftermath of the Gulf War.

Turkey supported the United States throughout the Gulf crisis and allowed U.S. aircraft to use a southern air base to launch bombing missions against Iraq.

Habibi said Iran would demand war damages from Iraq. But, he ruled out the possibility that Iraqi planes, which took shelter in Iran during the war, would be kept in return for war damages.

^German Defense Minister Visits His Troops in Turkey<
MALATYA, Turkey (AP) - German Defense Minister Gerhard Stoltenberg on Thursday visited German troops based in this southeastern city as part of a NATO Rapid Deployment Force to counter possible attack by Iraq.

During the trip, Stoltenberg said that there were no plans to leave German Roland and Hawk ground-to-air missile systems in Turkey after the Gulf War.

In an address to German soldiers at Erhac base, Stoltenberg said: ''We sent troops here as a preventive force against aggression. We will do our utmost to prevent the spread of the war.''

There are 200 German troops deployed at Erhac to fly and service the country's 18 Alpha jet fighters in the NATO force. Germany is in the process of providing sophisticated ground-to-air missile systems. Their crews will bring the number of German forces in this country to about 1,200.

Turkey has been allowing U.S. aircraft to take off from the joint U.S.-Turkish Incirlik base to bomb neighboring Iraq.

Stoltenberg said there had been difficulties in transporting the Roland and Hawk surface-to-air missile systems to Turkey. He added that their transfer would be completed on Saturday. He did not elaborate.

Germany apparently faced a problem in finding a suitable plane for the tranfer of the military hardware. A Soviet pilot of a transport plane chartered by Germany refused to make the trip, saying he was not authorized to fly to a crisis area.

The United States is expected tohelp transport the remaining Roland and Hawk systems.

Stoltenberg met with Turkish President Turgut Ozal, Premier Yildirim Akbulut and his counterpart Husnu Dogan in Ankara on Wednesday.

Stoltenberg told the German soldiers that the Turkish leaders praised the German efforts to defend Turkey.

The defense minister also listened to the problems of the German soldiers, who complained about poor accomodations and expensive communication services.

Stoltenberg watched the German troops train before proceeding to the neighboring Diyarbakir province, where German Roland missiles are to be deployed. He leaves Turkey Friday.

IT QUOTED AN UNIDENTIFIED TURKISH BORDER OFFICIAL AS SAYING THAT LANDMINES, BURIED UNDER THE IRAQI SIDE OF THE OVERPASS, MUST HAVE BEEN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING DURING A RAINSTORM.

THE OFFICIAL SAID ROCKS AND DIRT HURLED BY THE BLAST LANDED ON THE TURKISH SIDE OF THE BORDER, DAMAGING A VEHICLE, ANATOLIA REPORTED.

HE RULED OUT TERRORISM, THE DISPATCH SAID.

THERE WAS NO MENTION OF ANY CASUALTIES.

THE EXPLOSION, WHICH HEAVILY DAMAGED THE IRAQI SIDE OF THE CROSSING POINTS, WAS HEARD AS FAR AWAY AS THE TOWN OF SILOPI, 20 KILOMETERS (12 MILES) WEST OF HABUR, THE OFFICIAL SAID.

BEFORE THE GULF WAR, WHEN THE BORDER WAS OPEN, ONE OF THE OVERPASSES WAS USED FOR PASSAGE INTO IRAQ AND THE OTHER FOR ENTRY INTO TURKEY.

THE OFFICIAL WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT WITH THE START OF THE WAR AND THE CLOSURE OF THE BORDER THE IRAQIS HAD PLACED LANDMINES UNDER THEIR SIDE OF THE OVERPASSES AND PILED DIRT TO FORM BARRICADES.

THE BORDER CROSSING POINTS REMAIN CLOSED.

^TURKEY REFUSES TO MAKE COMMITMENT OF ANY SORT(

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - TURKEY SAID WEDNESDAY THAT IRAQI KURDISH LEADERS WERE INVITED HERE TO LEARN ABOUT THEIR POLITICAL AMBITIONS IN IRAQ WITHOUT MAKING ANY COMMITMENT TO THEIR CAUSE.

FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR SAID ''NO PROMISES OR PLEDGES WERE MADE'' DURING A MEETING WITH JALAL TALABANI AND A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE KURDISH DEMOCRATIC PARTY, LED BY MASSOUD BARZANI.

TALABANI HEADS THE IRAQI-KURDISH FRONT, A COALITION OF KURDISH GROUPS BATTLING SADDAM HUSSEIN'S TROOPS IN NORTHERN IRAQ.

DURING A WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE, SUNGAR SAID ALTHOUGH THE KURDISH LEADERS HAD MADE SOME REQUESTS, TURKEY DID NOT AGREE TO THEM. HE DID NOT SAY WHAT THEY WERE.

ACCORDING TO THE TURKISH NEWSPAPERS, KURDISH LEADERS HAD ASKED MONEY AND ARMS FROM TURKEY.

SUNGAR SAID THE KURDISH LEADERS MADE IT CLEAR THAT THEY WERE NOT AFTER AN INDEPENDENT STATE IN IRAQ BUT SOUGHT AUTONOMY IN THE NORTH.

PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL'S ANNOUNCEMENT MONDAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT HELD A SECRET MEETING WITH IRAQI KURDISH LEADERS CAUGHT THE COUNTRY BY SURPRISE FOR THE MEETING WAS A DRAMATIC SHITCH IN TURKISH POLICY.

TURKEY HAS FEARED A KURDISH STATE WOULD ENCOURAGE SEPARATISTS HERE. SECURITY FORCES HAVE BEEN FIGHTING GUERRILLAS REPRESENTED BY THE KURDISH LABOR PARTY, PKK, FOR SEVEN YEARS. AT LEAST 3,000 PEOPLE HAVE BEEN KILLED IN CLASHES AND ATTACKS LINKED TO THE INSURGENCY.

SUNGAR SAID THE KURDISH LEADERS STATED THAT THEY HAD NO CONTACT WITH THE PKK, WHICH HAS CONDEMNED THEM AS THE ''TOYS OF THE IMPERIALISTS.''

HOWEVER, SUNGAR'S STATEMENT FELL SHORT OF MEETING TALABANI'S REMARKS ABOUT THE ISSUE, PUBLISHED IN ISTANBUL DAILY MILLIYET WEDNESDAY.

TALABANI TOLD MILLIYET THAT THEY DID NOT SHARE THE VIEW OF THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT ABOUT THE PKK. ''THEY (TURKEY) IDENTIFY PKK AS A TERROR ORGANIZATION. BUT I LOOK AT PKK AS A PATRIOT, REVOLUTIONARY GROUP,'' HE SAID.

TURKEY IS HOME TO MORE THAN HALF THE 25 MILLION PEOPLE IN KURDISTAN, AN AREA THAT INCLUDES SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY AND PARTS OF IRAQ, IRAN, SYRIA AND THE SOVIET UNION. THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT BANS MOST EXPRESSIONS OF KURDISH CULTURE.

NEWSPAPER EDITORIALS SAID THE MEETING WAS AN APPARENT INTERFERENCE INTO IRAQ'S DOMESTIC AFFAIRS.

IN RESPONSE, SUNGAR REAFFIRMED THE GOVERNMENT'S EARLIER STAND THAT TURKEY SUPPORTED THE ''TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY'' OF IRAQ.

SUNGAR ALSO POINTED OUT THAT THE KURDISH LEADERS PLEDGED SUPPORT FOR THE ETHNIC TURKS IN A POSSIBLE NEW REGIME IN IRAQ.

SIIRT, TURKEY (AP) - KURDISH GUERILLAS SHOT TO DEATH A POLICEMAN AND WOUNDED TWO OTHERS AT A BUS TERMINAL NEAR THIS SOUTHEASTERN CITY, THE SEMI-OFFICIAL ANATOLIA NEWS AGENCY REPORTED THURSDAY.

IT SAID A POLICE TEAM GUARDING THE TERMINAL IN SIIRT, 95 KILOMETERS (50 MILES) NORTH OF THE IRAQI FRONTIER, CAME UNDER ATTACK LATE WEDNESDAY NIGHT BY SEPARATIST KURDS WHO OPENED FIRE.

THE DISPATCH DID NOT SAY WHETHER THE POLICE HAD A CHANCE TO FIRE BACK.

THE PERPETRATORS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE ESCAPED.

MOST OF THE PEOPLE LIVING IN THIS PART OF THE COUNTRY ARE ETHNIC KURDS. KURDS FORM ABOUT ONE-FIFTH OF TURKEY'S POPULATION OF 567 MILLION.

KURDISH INSURGENTS HAVE BEEN ATTACKING TURKISH SECURITY FORCES SINCE 1984 WHEN THEY BEGAN TO FIGHT FOR AN INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN IN SOUTHEASTERN TURKEY WHERE THE BORDERS OF IRAN, IRAQ AND SYRIA CONVERGE.

SINCE THE INSURGENCY BEGAN, ABOUT 3,000 PEOPLE, INCLUDING CIVILIANS, SECURITY PERSONNEL AND SEPARATIST KURDS, HAVE BEEN KILLED IN CLASHES.

POWERFUL ARMY; SINCE IT AIMS AT TURNING MUCH OF TURKEY'S SOUTHEAST INTO A KURDISH STATE.

IN ADDITION; TURKEY HAS TRADITIONALLY VIEWED KURDISH SEPARATISTS AS PAWNS OF FOREIGN POWERS. TURKEY HAS ACCUSED SYRIA OF AIDING KURDISH INSURGENTS INVOLVED IN A SEVEN-YEAR BATTLE IN THE SOUTHEAST THAT HAS CLAIMED 3;000 LIVES.

IN THE PAST; TURKEY COOPERATED WITH IRAQ IN FIGHTING THEIR KURDISH INSURGENCIES. BEFORE THE GULF WAR; TURKEY WENT AS FAR AS THREATENING WAR TO PREVENT THE EMERGENCE OF AN INDEPENDENT KURDISH STATE.

BUT FOREIGN AND TURKISH OBSERVERS SAY THE GOVERNMENT HAS CHANGED ITS TUNE BECAUSE OF THESE FACTORS:

-- IRAN HAS IMPORTANT INFLUENCE AMONG SHIITES IN SOUTHERN IRAQ. TURKEY HOPES TO HAVE A BUFFER BETWEEN ITSELF AND PRO-IRANIAN FORCES WHO MIGHT SEEK TO UPSET THE STATE-MANDATED SECULARISM IN THIS MUSLIM COUNTRY.

-- TURKEY BELIEVES KURDS ARE LIKELY TO ACHIEVE SOME SORT OF AUTONOMY IN NORTHERN IRAQ. IF TURKEY IS FRIENDLY WITH THE IRAQI KURDS; IT CAN KEEP THEM FROM SUPPORTING TURKISH KURDS.

''IF WE BECOME ENEMIES WITH THEM (IRAQI KURDS); OTHERS WILL USE IT AGAINST US;'' PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL SAID.

IN RECENT WEEKS; IRAQI KURDISH LEADERS HAVE PLEDGED IN INTERVIEWS NOT TO HURT TURKEY.

NONETHELESS; TURKEY'S RECOGNITION OF THE IRAQI KURDISH REBELS HAS COME UNDER FIRE. THE MILITARY GENERAL STAFF HAS OPPOSED THE MOVE; ACCORDING TO THE RELIABLE DAILY CUMHURIYET.

OPPOSITION LEADERS CHARGED THAT OZAL HAS FURTHER ABANDONED TURKEY'S TRADITIONAL NEUTRALITY IN CONFLICTS WITH ITS MIDDLE EASTERN NEIGHBORS.

''THIS IS PLAYING WITH FIRE;'' DECLARED SULEYMAN DEMIRAL; LEADER OF THE TRUE PATH PARTY.

OZAL COULD ALSO FACE OPPOSITION FROM WITHIN HIS CENTER-RIGHT MOTHERLAND PARTY. CONSERVATIVES IN THE PARTY HAVE STAUNCHLY DEFENDED TURKEY'S POLICY OF BANNING MOST FORMS OF KURDISH CULTURE AT HOME.

THEY HAVE POSTPONED ANY ACTION ON A BILL APPROVED BY THE CABINET IN JANUARY THAT WOULD ALLOW USE OF THE KURDISH LANGUAGE IN INFORMAL SETTINGS.

TURKEY HAS BEEN WARILY WATCHING THE IRAQI KURDS' REBELLION AGAINST SADDAM; NERVOUS ABOUT ANY SPILLOVER EFFECT. THERE HAS BEEN A SPATE OF PROTESTS IN KURDISH AREAS NEAR THE IRAQI BORDER RECENTLY; ALTHOUGH FEW PEOPLE EXPECT ANY SORT OF UPRISING IN TURKEY.

TURKISH SECURITY FORCES HAVE BROKEN UP THE PROTESTS AND DETAINED DEMONSTRATORS. TWO PROTESTERS WERE KILLED DURING A DEMONSTRATION ON MARCH 4.

HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS SAY THAT THROUGHOUT THE GULF WAR; KURDISH VILLAGES HAVE COME UNDER INCREASED REPRESSION BECAUSE OF THE LARGE NUMBER OF MILITARY FORCES NEAR THE BORDER.

SOME OBSERVERS SAY THAT IN RECOGNIZING THE IRAQI KURDISH REBELS; TURKEY WILL COME UNDER MORE PRESSURE TO EASE UP ON ITS OWN KURDS.

''IF WE DIDN'T THINK IN THE LONG TERM (ABOUT THE EFFECTS OF THE NEW POLICY) ... AND PARTICULARLY IF WE HAVEN'T DECIDED WHAT KIND OF NEW ARRANGEMENTS WE'RE GOING TO HAVE IN OUR COUNTRY; THEN WE HAVE VERY DIFFICULT DAYS AHEAD;'' WROTE MEHMET ALI BIRAND; ANOTHER MILLIYET COLUMNIST.

^Turkey Reverses Policies On Iraqi Kurds; But Holds Out at Home<
^By MARY BETH SHERIDAN<
^Associated Press Writer=

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - The Turkish government's announcement that it had met with Iraqi Kurdish insurgents marked a milestone for the Kurds, the world's largest ethnic minority without a homeland.

But Turkey's about-face in policy does not necessarily indicate any major changes soon for the largest group of Kurds -- those in Turkey itself.

The Foreign Ministry said Wednesday that Turkey invited the Iraqi Kurds to Ankara only to hear their plans, not pledge support. The Kurds included Jalal Talabani, head of the Iraqi-Kurdish Front, the coalition battling Saddam Hussein's army in northern Iraq.

But for a country that has viewed Kurds as a major security threat for seven decades, the meeting was a significant step.

''This incident is one of the most important decisions in Turkish political history,'' wrote Sami Kohen, a senior columnist for the Istanbul daily Milliyet, on Thursday. ''It indicated an essential policy change toward the Kurds and the Kurdish issue in the region.''

Turkey is home to more than half the 25 million people in Kurdistan, an area that includes southeastern Turkey and parts of Iraq, Iran, Syria and the Soviet Union. Kurds form 20 percent of Turkey's population, and many have assimilated completely into Turkish life.

But Kurdish separatism still unnerves the government and the powerful army, since it aims at turning much of Turkey's southeast into a Kurdish state.

In addition, Turkey has traditionally viewed Kurdish separatists as pawns of foreign powers. Turkey has accused Syria of aiding Kurdish insurgents involved in a seven-year battle in the southeast

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - U.S. Secretary of State James A. Baker III announced here Saturday that the United States would possibly donate one unit of Patriot anti-missile rocket to Turkey in a gesture to praise Turkey's pro-U.S. policy during the Gulf crisis.

"It will be the intention of the United States government to make a gift to the Turkish government of one unit of Patriot missile system," Baker told reporters during an impromptu news conference before his departure from this country.

Turkey received Patriot missiles from the United States and the Netherlands in a move to bolster the country's defense before the Gulf War.

Baker indicated that the Netherlands would also make a similar gesture to Turkey. "There may be similar grant from another government," he said.

Turkey, the only NATO member bordering Iraq, allowed U.S. bombers to use an airbase in Adana for attacks inside Iraq. It also has been a critical source of support for the U.N.-imposed economic embargo against Iraq.

Turkey hopes to gain increased economic and military assistance from the United States.

Baker said the U.S. government would also "use our good offices" to follow up on the aid commitments made by other countries to Turkey.

There had been pledges to provide a 3.5 billion dollars in special aid to Turkey from the West, Japan and the Middle East.

A U.S. Senate committee on Thursdayconsidered adding 2000million dollars in aid for Turkey as it began work on multibillion-dollar legislation financing the Gulf War and helping U.S. allies hurt by it.

Turkey already receeives 553 million dollars a year from the United States in military and economic aid.

^44 Iraqis Flee Across the Border<
ANKARA, Turkey (AP) - Forty-four Iraqi civilians crossed the border into Turkey in a 24-hour period ending Thursday morning, the regional governor's office in Diyarbakir said.

Iraqis began escaping to Turkey after Iraq invaded Kuwait on Aug. 2. Since then about 4,900 arrived, at least 1,900 of them soldiers.

Meanwhile, 26 Iraqi soldiers, who crossed into Turkey to flee from Kurdish rebels during fighting in northern Iraq last week, asked Turkish authorities to send them back to Iraq, the semi-official Anatolia news agency reported on Thursday.

The dispatch said the Turkish authorities accepted their request.

Iraqi refugees are being held in camps in seven cities.

ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - PRESIDENT TURGUT OZAL FLEW TO THE UNITED STATES ON FRIDAY SEEKING CONCRETE GAINS FOR TURKEY'S STAUNCH SUPPORT OF THE ALLIED COALITION IN THE GULF WAR.

OZAL WILL MEET WITH PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH AT CAMP DAVID TO DISCUSS BILATERAL ISSUES AND DEVELOPMENTS IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE WAR.

TURKEY, THE ONLY NATO MEMBER BORDERING IRAQ, HAS ALREADY BEEN GIVEN HIGH MARKS IN WASHINGTON. IT ALLOWED U.S. BOMBERS TO USE A SOUTHERN AIRBASE FOR ATTACKS ON IRAQ AND RIGIDLY ENFORCED THE U.N. EMBARGO, BLOCKING IRAQI OIL EXPORTS.

OZAL IS EXPECTED TO ASK FOR INCREASED U.S. MILITARY AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE DURING HIS TALKS WITH U.S. AUTHORITIES, OFFICIALS SAID.

THE VISIT COMES AS THE U.S. SENATE IS CONSIDERING ADDING 200 MILLION DOLLARS IN AID TO TURKEY TO REIMBURSE SOME OF ITS LOSSES DURING THE CRISIS. THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO AGAINST IRAQ WILL COST TURKEY AT LEAST 7 BILLION DOLLARS OVER A YEAR IN LOST TRADE, ACCORDING TO THE WORLD BANK.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE JAMES A. BAKER III VISITED TURKEY LAST WEEK. HE ANNOUNCED HERE THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD PLANS TO LET TURKEY KEEP ONE UNIT OF THE ANTI-MISSILE PATRIOT SYSTEM PROVIDED DURING THE GULF CRISIS.

^TALABANI SAYS INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN IS UNREALISTIC<
ANKARA, TURKEY (AP) - KURDISH LEADER JALAL TALABANI SAID KURDS WERE FIGHTING AGAINST IRAQI TROOPS TO WIN AUTONOMY BUT NOT FOR AN INDEPENDENT STATE, ACCORDING TO A TRANSCRIPT OF AN INTERVIEW RELEASED SUNDAY.

TALABANI SAID IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO ESTABLISH A SEPARATE, INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN IN THE REGION.@@IT IS A DREAM. IT IS NOT A REALISTIC GOAL,'' HE ADDED, ACCORDING THE STATE TELEVISION TRANSCRIPT OF THE INTERVIEW SCHEDULED TO BE AIRED MONDAY.

TALABANI SAID IT WAS NOT POSSIBLE TO CHANGE THE MIDDLE EAST MAP AND THAT THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY OPPOSED AN INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN ON GROUNDS IT WOULD LEAD TO THE DIVISION OF IRAQ.

TURKISH GOVERNMENT HELD SECRET TALKS WITH TALABANI HERE IN EARLY MARCH TO UNDERSTAND THE AIM OF THE KURDISH MOVE AGAINST THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT. THE TALKS MARKED A DRAMATIC SWITCH IN THIS COUNTRY'S KURDISH POLICY, WHICH VIEWED KURDS AS A MAJOR SECURITY THREAT FOR DECADES.

FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN MURAT SUNGAR ON SUNDAY CONFIRMED REPORTS BY TURKISH NEWSPAPERS THAT ANOTHER SECRET MEETING TOOK PLACE WITH KURDISH OPPOSITION LEADERS, BUT HE DECLINED TO GIVE DETAILS.

THE GOVERNMENT HELD TALKS WITH MUHSIN DIZAYI, A REPRESENTATIVE OF ANOTHER KURDISH LEADER MASSOUD BARZANI ON FRIDAY, THE REPORTS SAID.

DIZAYI VISITED THIS CITY TO ASK FOR HUMANITARIAN AID, INCLUDING FOOD AND MEDICINE, REPORTS SAID.

THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT IS RELUCTANT TO GRANT THE REQUEST. TURKISH OFFICIALS ARGUE THAT IT IS AGAINST INTERNATIONAL TREATIES TO PROVIDE AID TO REBEL GROUPS FIGHTING AGAINST INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED GOVERNMENTS.

THE KURDISH ISSUE IS ALSO A SENSITIVE MATTER IN THIS COUNTRY WHERE AT LEAST 12 MILLION KURDS LIVE. TURKEY HAS BANS ON SPEAKING KURDISH IN PUBLIC, KURDISH MUSIC, TEACHING KURDISH IN SCHOOLS OR PUBLISHING KURDISH BOOKS.

KURDISH SEPARATIST GUERRILLAS IN TURKEY HAVE BEEN FIGHTING FOR AN INDEPENDENT KURDISTAN SINCE 1984. ABOUT 3,000 PEOPLE HAVE DIED SO FAR IN CLASHES LINKED TO THE INDEPENDENCE BID.

THE ISTANBUL DAILY HURRIYET REPORTED SUNDAY THAT ELEVEN KURDISH GUERRILLAS AND FOUR SOLDIERS DIED IN A CLASH WHICH BEGAN ON FRIDAY AND LASTED TWO DAYS.

HURRIYET SAID THE FIGHTING TOOK PLACE AT ONE PART IN IRAQ WHEN THE TURKISH TROOPS ENTERED INTO THE IRAQI TERRITORY IN PURSUIT OF THE KURDISH GUERRILLAS.

PREMIER YILDIRIM AKBULUT ON SUNDAY INSISTED THAT TURKISH TROOPS DID NOT ENGAGE IN A MILITARY OPERATION OUTSIDE TURKEY.
